Retreat From Africa:

US Strategy in Africa David J Francis, 2010-02-25 This book outlines the construction interpretations and understanding of US strategy towards Africa in the early twenty first century No single issue or event in the recent decades in Africa has provoked so much controversy and unified hostility and opposition as the announcement by former President George W Bush of the establishment of the United States Africa Command AFRICOM The intensity and sheer scale of the unprecedented unity of opposition to AFRICOM across Africa surprised many experts and lead them to ask why such a hostile reaction occurred This book explores the conception of AFRICOM and the subsequent reaction in two ways Firstly the contributors critically engage with the creation and global imperatives for the establishment of AFRICOM and present an analytical outline of African security in relation to and within the context of the history of US foreign and security policy approaches to Africa Secondly the book has original chapter contributions by some of the key actors involved in the development and implementation of the AFRICOM project including Theresa Whelan the former US Deputy Assistant Secretary for African Affairs This is not only an attempt to contribute to the academic and policy relevant debates based on the views of those who are intimately involved in the design and implementation of the AFRICOM project but also to show in their own words that America has no clandestine agenda for Africa This book will be of interest to students of US foreign policy national security strategic studies international security and African politics David J Francis is Chair of African Peace Conflict Studies in the Department of Peace Studies at the University of Bradford

The United States and Africa Macharia Munene, J. D. Olewe Nyunya, Korwa Gombe Adar, 1995

Democratization in Africa: Challenges and Prospects Gordon Crawford, Gabrielle Lynch, 2013-09-13 It is two decades since the third wave of democratization began to roll across sub Saharan Africa in the early 1990s This book provides a very timely investigation into the progress and setbacks over that period the challenges that remain and the prospects for future democratization in Africa It commences with an overall assessment of the lack of progress made from 1990 to 2010 exploring positive developments with reasons for caution Based on original research subsequent contributions examine various themes through country case studies inclusive of the routinisation of elections accompanied by democratic rollback and the rise of hybrid regimes the tenacity of presidential powers the dilemmas of power sharing ethnic voting and rise of a violent politics of belonging the role of donors and the ambiguities of democracy promotion Overall the book concludes that steps forward remain greater than reversals and that typically though not universally sub Saharan African countries are more democratic today than in the late 1980s Nonetheless the book also calls for more meaningful processes of democratization that aim not only at securing civil and political rights but also socio economic rights and the physical security of African citizens This book was originally published as a special issue of Democratization

Marxism's Retreat from Africa (RLE Marxism) Arnold Hughes, 2015-04-24 The collapse of Marxism in much of the Third World as well as Europe was so sudden and spectacular that it is hard to believe that in the space of seven years The Journal of Communist Studies could bring out special issues both on the creation of Military Marxist Regimes in Africa and on their demise and the wider collapse of Marxist governments on the continent This volume first published in 1992 derives from a roundtable on the theme of The Retreat from Moscow African and Eastern European Experiences of Disengagement from Marxism held at the University of Birmingham in September 1991 The conference examined the recent experiences of African countries in transition from Marxism and Marxist influenced ideologies to an uncertain future based on the market economy and a plural political system

Debating African Issues William G. Moseley, Kefa M. Otiso, 2022-09-14 This debate style textbook allows students to explore diverse well founded views on controversial African issues pushing them to go beyond superficial interpretations and complicate and ground their understanding of the continent From the positive images in the film Black Panther to the derogatory remarks of former American President Donald Trump the African continent often figures prominently in the collective global imagination This interdisciplinary collection covers 20 enduring and contemporary debates across a broad range of subjects affecting Africa from development and health to agriculture climate change and urbanization Each chapter has a pro and con view penned by a leading expert on the topic in an accessible and engaging style These contrasting views on each issue are framed by an introduction that helps the student contextualize the debate and draw on further resources Moreover they enable readers to deepen their understanding of the topic develop a more nuanced perspective and foster classroom debates This book is an excellent resource for Africa related courses across a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields including African studies anthropology development studies economics environmental studies geography history international studies political science and public health

China Versus The Us, World Bank And Imf In Sub-saharan Africa Lynne Ciochetto, 2022-12-07 This timely book provides a comprehensive overview of the activities of the major foreign forces active in contemporary Sub Saharan Africa Stimulated by the abundance of reports in the media criticizing China s presence in Sub Saharan Africa there is an analysis of China s involvement in the region compared to the largest Western players the United States the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund China has only been economically active in Sub Saharan Africa since the 1990s while the United States the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have been active since the 1950s Indeed the World Bank has been the major lender for development during the whole period The book explores how these foreign interests have assisted with or hindered progress towards addressing the challenges facing the region These challenges include high rates of poverty and low levels of human development loss of political and economic sovereignty periodic sluggish economic development government indebtedness illegal financial flows and corruption the resource curse environmental destruction and climate change The approach is interdisciplinary and emphasises the key development issues social economic and environmental sustainability An audit approach is used to explore changes within China and the West since the 1950s and evaluate their impact on Sub Saharan Africa China versus the US World Bank and IMF in Sub Saharan

The African Erosion Surface Kevin Burke,Yanni Gunnell,2008-01-01 In this Memoir Burke and Gunnell draw on anglophone and francophone work to analyze the African continent s distinctive basin and swell topography Exploring topics such as landforms bauxites and laterites fission track studies climatic changes volcanic rock distribution hotspots mantle plumes and rifts as well as deep and shallow mantle geophysics ocean floor evolution continental flooding and offshore sediment deposition the authors have pieced together a coherent continent wide reconstruction of landscape development during the past 200 million years Two episodes of continental breakup and the formation of ocean floor were followed by erosion that reduced the continent to a low elevation and low relief African Surface by Late Cretaceous times Africa s present day topography developed mostly during the past 30 million years as the African Surface underwent swell uplift and climate changed radically after the Antarctic ice sheet first formed Northern hemisphere glaciation and related Sahara initiation 3 million years ago were Africa s most recent great changes Publisher s website

Africa's Geography Benjamin Ofori-Amoah,2019-04-30 Africa s Geography presents a comprehensive exploration of the world s second largest and most culturally diverse continent Author Benjamin Ofori Amoah challenges common misconceptions and misrepresentations of Africa from a geographical perspective harnessing the power of modern geographic mapping technology to explore this unique continent This text provides thorough coverage of the historical cultural economic and political forces that continue to shape Africa applying geographic context to relevant past and contemporary issues Coverage of economic development climate and biogeography transportation and communication manufacturing and commerce and mining and agriculture provides foundational knowledge of this vast and complex continent Ideally suited for multiple areas of classroom study this text offers an effective and flexible pedagogical framework Coverage of the entirety of Africa enables students to develop a cohesive portrait of the continent as a whole and identify the dynamism of its nations cultures and economies Engaging and accessible narrative strengthens comprehension while examples of historical and contemporary events increase student interest Innovative and unique Africa s Geography is an essential resource for cross disciplinary investigation of this fascinating part of the world

Social Status and Political Participation of Rich and Poor Citizens in Africa Elvis Bisong Tambe,2024-04-15 This book seeks to explore a fundamental obscurity in electoral behavior literature while socioeconomic status is typically robustly and positively associated with a higher propensity for voting worldwide the relationship in Africa is either negative or non-existent Building upon the author s previous works relating to political participation behavior and electoral processes this work focuses specifically on 35 sub-Saharan African political system case studies and analyzes why resource poor Africans tend to display greater electoral participation than their more comparatively affluent counterparts Drawing from a methodological theoretical framework utilizing Afrobarometer data and group mobilization theories such as the civic voluntarism model electoral clientelism democratic quality preference theory and institutional perspectives this book makes an original contribution to analyzing African regions less well examined in existing comparative participatory political science literatures Wars Of Imperial Conquest Bruce Vandervort, 2015-01-28 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company El Alamein and the Struggle for North Africa Jill Edwards, 2012-10-01 This new collection of studies presents fresh insights into a war fought over unusually difficult terrain and with exceptional supply demands From the ongoing Italian geomorphic study of the Alamein arena to individual memories of non combatant Alexandrians from the Free French to the seasoned colonial forces of Australia India New Zealand and South Africa and from vital naval engagements and the siege of Malta to the study of Rommel s leadership and the Churchill Montgomery duo this book presents the reader with a detailed yet broad reassessment of the complexities of the war in North Africa between 1941 and 1943 its technology philosophy military doctrine strategy tactics logistics and the associated local and international politics Writing from the perspectives of some of the many nations whose armies were involved in the conflict fifteen historians bring to their work the precision of their national historical archival sources in clear and spritely narratives ACCIDENTAL AFRICAN BLESSINGS Ugo Nacciarone, SJ., 2012-04-05 As I pondered on a title for this book I thought about my first life and work experience in Africa How I suffered several severe cases of malaria how difficult it was to adjust to the hot humid climate and the discouragements from my relatives and friends back home that I was in a wrong place to which I almost succumbed The only thing that made me stay was a sense of duty to the other five Jesuits working with me As this mission was only new I did not want to demoralize any of them This decision has later proven to be one of the best decisions I have ever made All that experience brought many turns to my life in Africa bringing me from Nigeria to Zambia to Ghana and back to Zambia again These events were like accidents Accidents are unexpected unplanned and often painful It was just an accident of history that the mission was just getting started and that it had so few people on it It might have been another accident of history that the Biafran War began just as I made my way to Nigeria that made it more difficult to recruit new members to the mission These accidents of history brought me to a painful decision to return to Nigeria when I didn t feel attracted to the prospect Yet this painful experience turned out to be a great blessing for me I came to love the people and the continent more than I could ever have imagined and found myself greatly enriched by the experience It is this development in personal growth that I want to share with the reader Cover Design by Danny Chiyesu

African Feminist Praxis Jessica Horn, 2024-12-19 Written in love and fire African Feminist Praxis is meticulous and visionary Dr Pumla Dineo Gqola SARChI Chair in African Feminist Imagination Nelson Mandela University and author of Female Fear Factory So much of the story of African resistance has been told in the masculine tracing the history of spectacle great struggles great speeches the grand displays of nation building This book adds to the literature that reverses this exploring the flesh and breadth of contemporary African feminist politics as articulated across the African continent It is structured around the key principles of kinship courage pleasure care and memory and draws on the African feminist academic canon the grey literature of practitioner knowledge and narratives of feminists activists themselves Through this it evidences the argument that African feminist praxis is fundamentally a politics of proposition a mode of liberatory worldmaking The Social Science for Social Justice series challenges the Ivory Tower of academia providing a platform for academics journalists and activists of color to respond to pressing social issues
