Retrospective Technology Assessment 1976:

Retrospective Technology Assessment--1976 Joel Arthur Tarr, 1977 A Retrospective Technology Assessment Vary T. Coates, Program of Policy Studies in Science and Technology, Bernard S. Finn, 1979 , Strategies For Conducting Technology Assessments Joe E. Armstrong, Willis W. Harman, 2019-06-10 Using reviews of special reports and personal interviews with team members of recent National Science Foundation sponsored assessments the authors have assembled an eight step functional strategy for conducting technology assessments The steps are set within a framework that embodies the three key elements of all assessments technology descripti Review of the Technology Assessment Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology. Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Technology, 1978 Technology Assessment Mark A. Boroush, 1980 Technology assessment at the Second International Congress issues paradigms and practice Conjectures and reflections Recommendations and Reports Administrative Conference of the United States, Summary of Active Awards and Completed Projects of the Division of Policy Research and Analysis National Science Foundation (U.S.). Division of Policy Research and Analysis, 1979 A Guidebook for Technology Assessment and Impact Analysis Alan L. Porter, 1980 Technology and society Institutionalization of TA EIA Basic features of an assessment Strategies for particular assessments bounding and techniques Technology description and forecasting Social description and forecasting Impact identification and policy considerations Impact analysis Environmental analysis Economic impact analysis Analysis of social and psychological impacts Technological legal and institutional political analyses Impact evaluation Policy analysis Communication of results Project management Evaluation of technology assessments and environmental impact statements Critiques of TA EIA Future prospects Forecasting and Management of Technology Alan L. Porter, 1991 Consistently practical in its coverage the book discusses general issues related to forecasting and management introduces a variety of methods and shows how to apply these methods to significant issues in managing technological development With numerous exhibits case studies and exercises throughout it requires only basic mathematics and includes a special technology forecasting TOOLKIT for the IBM and compatibles along with full instructions for installing and running the program The Electrification of Russia, 1880-1926 Jonathan Coopersmith, 2016-11-01 The Electrification of Russia 1880 1926 is the first full account of the widespread adoption of electricity in Russia from the beginning in the 1880s to its early years as a state technology under Soviet rule Jonathan Coopersmith has mined the archives for both the tsarist and the Soviet periods to examine a crucial element in the modernization of Russia Coopersmith shows how the Communist Party forged an alliance with engineers to harness the socially transformative power of this science based enterprise A centralized plan of electrification triumphed to the benefit of the Communist Party and the detriment of local governments and the electrical engineers Coopersmith s narrative of how this came to be elucidates the deep seated and chronic conflict between the utopianism of Soviet ideology and the reality of Soviet politics and economics

Building New York's Sewers Joanne Abel Goldman,1997 As new theories on the transmission of disease heightened concerns over public health and urban sanitation physicians and professional engineers pressured the city to provide comprehensive sewage facilities The locally oriented Common Council resisted the effort because it would entail the creation of administrative bodies that would have the authority to make city wide decisions The New Engineer Sharon Beder,1998

Decision Making for Complex Socio-Technical Systems Thomas Flüeler,2006-03-08 Waste management can be considered as a mirror of society In its our fluctuating definition besides conserving a supply of valuable materials and resources it acts as a fascinating expression for our throw away mentality Waste is inevitable but it nevertheless provides an opportunity a need and an incentive for society to pursue a more careful management of it If this is successfully carried out society may well find it possible to manage itself in an overall more careful and universal way The management or governance of radioactive waste particularly is determined by a complex constellation of individuals social aggregates and institutions A wealth of interconnected parts forms a complex and volatile system that is highly technical and explosively political in nature The problems inherent in this system must be managed so as to reach a safe acceptable responsible feasible and sustainable solution It is a system with an objective long term dimension with a hazard potential of in part hundreds of thousands of years and it has a long term institutional dimension insofar as its implementation must last for decades The very notion of risk extends from the long life of radionuclides over the perception of dread to the decisional risk of whether when and how to implement an agreed upon solution The New Urban Frontier Lionel Frost,1991 Explores changes in city density by comparing Melbourne Los Angeles Vancouver Auckland and other new frontier cities Includes a new interpretation of the effect of development on problems faced by frontier cities and a detailed bibliography The author lectures on economics and economic history at La Trobe University

Technological Change and the City Patrick Nicol Troy,1995 This book looks at the complex relationships between cities technology economic factors environmental factors and social factors It points out how the form and structure of today s Australian cities the conditions in our cities and the choices about how we want our cities to be in the future are dependent on the decisions practices activities and investments made yesterday and today Reporting research on the major effects on the city of changes in the retailing industry land use and transport water sewerage and drainage services communications manufacturing and building it describes inter alia how the information age global economics innovation in the production system and environmental considerations are changing not only the way life is lived and business is done in the city but also how urban space is used and organised and how in turn these changes raise important social questions and challenge the very meaning of what constitutes a city NIOSH Publications Catalog National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health,1987

Nanotechnology: Societal Implications William S. Bainbridge,2007-07-03 Advances in nanoscience and nanotechnology promise great technical breakthroughs in the coming decades In this book leading scientists engineers and social scientists review the possible uses of these impending technical developments in various industrial medical and national security applications They also examine the corresponding ethical legal social economic and educational issues that these developments raise History of Technology Volume 13 Graham Hollister-Short, Frank James, 2016-09-30 The technical problems confronting different societies and periods and the measures taken to solve them form the concern of this annual collection of essays Volumes contain technical articles ranging widely in subject time and region as well as general papers on the history of technology In addition to dealing with the history of technical discovery and change History of Technology also explores the relations of technology to other aspects of life social cultural and economic and shows how technological development has shaped and been shaped by the society in which it occurred The Winged Gospel Joseph J. Corn, 2002 Exploring these early years of aviation Joseph Corn describes the fascinating and often bizarre plans for the future of manned flight and brings back to life the famous and lesser known aviators who became American heroes
