Lehrer, 2013-07-19 National Jewish Book Award Finalist A fresh and delightful portrait of Jewish renewal in Poland Highly recommended Choice Since the end of Communism Jews from around the world have visited Poland to tour Holocaust related sites A few venture further seeking to learn about their own Polish roots and connect with contemporary Poles For their part a growing number of Poles are fascinated by all things Jewish In this book Erica T Lehrer explores the intersection of Polish and Jewish memory projects in the historically Jewish neighborhood of Kazimierz in Krakow Her own journey becomes part of the story as she demonstrates that Jews and Poles use spaces institutions interpersonal exchanges and cultural representations to make sense of their historical inheritances The Indo-European Puzzle Revisited Kristian Kristiansen, Guus Kroonen, Eske

Willerslev, 2023-05-11 This book examines the impact of ancient DNA research and scientific evidence on our understanding of the emergence of Indo European languages in prehistory Offering cutting edge contributions from an international team of scholars it considers the driving forces behind the Indo European migrations during the 3rd and 2nd millennia BC The volume explores the rise of the world's first pastoral nomads the Yamnaya Culture in the Russian Pontic steppe including their social organization expansions and the transition from nomadism to semi sedentism when entering Europe It also traces the chariot conquest in the late Bronze Age and its impact on the expansion of the Indo Iranian languages into Central Asia In the final section the volumes consider the development of hierarchical societies and the origins of slavery A landmark synthesis of recent exciting discoveries the book also includes an extensive theoretical discussion regarding the integration of linguistics genetics and archaeology and the importance of interdisciplinary research in the study of ancient migration Index to

Jewish Periodicals, 1998 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Unexpected Encounters Francesco Vietti, 2024 Exploring different dimensions of the intersection of migration and tourism in the Mediterranean this book is the result of extensive ethnographic research carried out over a decade in the Mediterranean region It focuses on three main themes the impact of migrants visiting their country of origin for holidays called roots tourism the dynamics of the border encounters between local people tourists and migrants and how tourism has affected the cultural diversity in urban areas The book shows how migration and tourism play complementary roles in boosting the global dynamics of cultural social economic and political transformation in the Mediterranean

History Behind the Headlines, 2002 Provides background information on long term ethnic religious political territorial and economic conflicts between nations today The Publishers Weekly, 1997 Mobile Narratives Eleftheria Arapoglou, Mónika Fodor, Jopi Nyman, 2013-08-15 Emphasizing the role of travel and migration in the performance and transformation of identity this volume addresses representations of travel mobility and migration in 19th 21st century travel writing literature and media texts In so doing the book analyses the role of the various cultural ethnic gender and national encounters pertinent to narratives of travel and migration in transforming and problematizing the identities of both the travelers and travelees enacting in the borderzones between cultures While the individual essays by scholars from a wide range of countries deal with a variety of case studies from various historical spatial and cultural locations they share a strong central interest in the ways in which the narratives of travel contribute to the imagining of ethnic encounters and how they have acted as sites of transformation and transculturation from the early nineteenth century to the present day In addition to discussing textual representations of travel and migration the volume also addresses the ways in which cultural texts themselves travel and are reconstructed in various cultural settings The analyses are particularly attentive to the issues of globalization and migration which provide a general frame for interpretation What distinguishes the volume from existing books is its concern with travel and migration as ways of forging transcultural identities that are able to subvert existing categorizations and binary models of identity formation In so doing it pays particular attention to the performance of identity in various spaces of cultural encounter ranging from North America to the East of Europe putting particular emphasis on the representation of intercultural and ethnic encounters

Remigration to Post-Socialist Europe Caroline Hornstein

Tomic, Robert Pichler, Sarah Scholl-Schneider, 2018 Returning migrants have been involved in post socialist transformation processes all across Eastern and Southeastern Europe Engaged in politics the economy science and education arts and civil society return migrants have often exerted crucial influence on state and nation building processes and on social and cultural transformations However remigration not only comprises stories of achievements but equally those of failed integration marginalization non participation and lost potential these are mostly stories untold The contributions to this volume shed light on processes of return migration to various Eastern and Southeastern European countries from multidisciplinary perspectives Particular attention is paid to anthropological approaches that aim to understand the complexities of return migration from individual perspectives Library Journal ,1997 Handbook of Return Migration King,

Russell, Kuschminder, Katie, 2022-01-18 This authoritative Handbook provides an interdisciplinary appraisal of the field of return migration advancing concepts and theories and setting an agenda for new debates Immigrants John Schissler Jr., 2017-09-20 War crimes do not end with the war Revisit this riveting memoir as told by a Croatian immigrant whose family became unwitting actors in the cruel theater of a postwar Europe and how they survived to tell their story In this compelling frame story the author intertwines his return to his ancestral home with his past in Croatia All the wonderful images and emotions which he experienced in 2015 stand in stark contrast to those years from 1943 to 1950 when he and his family embarked on a protracted journey fraught with danger disease and death in a war torn Europe The authors meaningful pilgrimage in 2015 not only reveals all the beauty and charm of Croatia but also reminds us of the need to take a renewed look at the issue of immigration and family After his return voyage the author brings home the affirmation and reminder that we are all immigrants that melting pot that makes us a stronger America Eastern Europe Unmapped Irene Kacandes, Yuliya Komska, 2017-10-01 Arguably more than any other region the area known as Eastern Europe has been defined by its location on the map Yet its inhabitants from statesmen to literati and from cultural economic elites to the poorest emigrants have consistently forged or fathomed links to distant lands populations and intellectual traditions Through a series of inventive cultural and historical explorations Eastern Europe Unmapped dispenses with scholars long time preoccupation with national and regional borders instead raising provocative questions about the area's non contiguous and frequently global or extraterritorial entanglements The Intelligible Metropolis Nora Pleßke, 2014-08-15 Writings on the metropolis generally foreground illimitability stressing thereby that the urban ultimately remains both illegible and unintelligible Instead the purpose of this interdisciplinary study is to demonstrate that mentality as a tool offers orientation in the urban realm Nora Pleßke develops a model of urban mentality to be employed for cities worldwide Against the background of the Spatial Turn she identifies dominant urban specific structures of London mentality in contemporary London novels such as Monica Ali's Brick Lane J G Ballard's Millennium People Nick Hornby's A Long Way Down and Ian McEwan's Saturday A Companion to Twentieth-Century American Drama David Krasner, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides an original and authoritative survey of twentieth century American drama studies written by some of the best scholars and critics in the field Balances consideration of canonical material with discussion of works by previously marginalized playwrights Includes studies of leading dramatists such as Tennessee Williams Arthur Miller Eugene O'Neill and Gertrude Stein Allows readers to make new links between particular plays and playwrights Examines the movements that framed the century such as the Harlem Renaissance lesbian and gay drama and the solo performances of the 1980s and 1990s Situates American drama within larger discussions about American ideas and culture Caribbean Land and Development Revisited J.
