Return Of The Caravels:

The Return of the Caravels António Lobo Antunes, 2002 Set in Lisbon as Portugal's African colonies dissolve in the 1970s Jacket After Heresy Vitor Westhelle, 2010-03-01 which post colonial religious hybridity is made possible

Toward a Linguistic and Literary Revision of Cultural Paradigms Ettore Finazzi-Agrò, 2018-11-02 This book draws an updated Euro American conceptual map starting from a limited number of strategic terms whose meanings today are judged univocal and permanent while in fact daily use has turned them into common sense depriving them of their ambiguity an original feature of language particularly relevant when it comes to literary use By re examining the proper noun for each of the selected notions the contributors common intent is to shed light on their polysemous nature and linguistic fluidity in spite of the common tendency towards simplification and homogeneity imposed by hegemonic cultural paradigms Along this line the book explores the great divides between identity and otherness or common or alien in order to recover a sense of cultural identity which is at once polymorphous and polyphonic Revisiting Centres and Peripheries in Iberian Studies Mark Gant, 2019-08-05 Like its predecessor and companion volume New Journeys in Iberian Studies this volume gathers fresh and emerging research in a range of sub fields of Iberian studies from an international range of established academics and early career researchers The book provides rich evidence of the breadth and depth of new research being carried out in the dynamic field of Iberian studies at present As the title suggests a strong thread running through the collection is concerned with investigating the multiple spaces of tension between the centre and periphery that comprise the Iberian cultural system Topically the current situation in Catalonia naturally comes to the fore in a number of chapters and from a range of perspectives However in the revisiting of a range of cultural products and historical processes undertaken by the contributors it can be seen that transoceanic postcolonial relations are not neglected and concerns with history memory and fiction also weave their way through their work Negotiations of Migration Anni-Mari Juvonen, Verena Lindemann Lino, 2021-08-23 At a time when migration is mostly discussed in terms of conflict and crisis it is decidedly important to acknowledge the discursive traditions narrative patterns and conceptual categories that continue to inform how migration is represented analyzed and theorized in contemporary Europe This volume focuses on the potential of artistic and critical practices to challenge hegemonic framings of migration and embrace the ambivalence inherent in migration as a conflictual often violent yet also liberating uprooting By placing special emphasis on peripheral perspectives and subject positions the volume provides new insights into topics such as belonging and exclusion the migrant crisis and memory By bringing into dialogue creative practices and academic discourses it explores how new modes of seeing and theorizing may emerge through experiences and representations of migration Situated within the field of literary and cultural studies it complements historical and social analyses in the emerging interdisciplinary field of migration studies Prince Henry 'the Navigator' Peter Edward Russell, 2001-01-01 Studie over de centrale rol die prins Hendrik de Zeevaarder 1394 1460 speelde bij de eerste Portugese ontdekkingsreizen Studies in Trans-disciplinary Method Michael J. Shapiro, 2013 This groundbreaking and innovative text addresses the deep ontological and epistemological commitments that underpin conventional positivist methods and then demonstrates how method can be understood in much broader and more interesting ways Drawing on a broad range of philosophical and methodological theory as well as a wide variety of artistic sources from fine art to cinema and from literature to the blues leading contemporary thinker Michael Shapiro shows the reader how a more open understanding of the concept of method is rewarding and enlightening His notion of writing as method is enacted throughout the text and offers a stimulating alternative for students to positivist social science methods This is essential reading for all students and faculty with an interest in post positivist methods Europe after Empire Elizabeth Buettner, 2016-03-24 Europe after Empire is a pioneering comparative history of European decolonization from the formal ending of empires to the postcolonial European present Elizabeth Buettner charts the long term development of post war decolonization processes as well as the histories of inward and return migration from former empires which followed She shows that not only were former colonies remade as a result of the path to decolonization so too was Western Europe with imperial traces scattered throughout popular and elite cultures consumer goods religious life political formations and ideological terrains People were also inwardly mobile including not simply Europeans returning home but Asians Africans West Indians and others who made their way to Europe to forge new lives The result is a Europe fundamentally transformed by multicultural diversity and cultural hybridity and by the destabilization of assumptions about race culture and the meanings of place and where imperial legacies and memories live on Participatory Budgeting in Europe Yves Sintomer, Anja Röcke, Carsten Herzberg, 2016-03-10 Can participatory budgeting help make public services really work for the public Incorporating a range of experiments in ten different countries this book provides the first comprehensive analysis of participatory budgeting in Europe and the effect it has had on democracy the modernization of local government social justice gender mainstreaming and sustainable development By focussing on the first decade of European participatory budgeting and analysing the results and the challenges affecting the agenda today it provides a critical appraisal of the participatory model Detailed comparisons of European cases expose similarities and differences between political cultures and offer a strong empirical basis to discuss the theories of deliberative and participatory democracy and reveal contradictory tendencies between political systems public administrations and democratic practices Africa's Gold Coast Through Portuguese Sources, 1469-1680 Kwasi Konadu, 2022-07-28 Konadu provides a unique collection of sources written in Portuguese Latin Italian French and Spanish for Africa's Gold Coast from the late 15th to 17th century Students scholars and professionals with an avid interest in early modern African Atlantic and world history will benefit the English translations many for the first time The Portuguese-Speaking Diaspora Darlene J. Sadlier, 2016-11-15 Long before the concept of globalization the Portuguese constructed a vast empire that extended into Africa India Brazil and mid Atlantic territories as well as parts of China

Southeast Asia and Japan Using this empire as its starting point and spanning seven centuries and four continents The Portuguese Speaking Diaspora examines literary and artistic works about the ensuing diaspora or the dispersion of people within the Portuguese speaking world resulting from colonization the slave trade adventure seeking religious conversion political exile forced labor war economic migration and tourism Based on a broad array of written and visual materials including historiography letters memoirs plays poetry fiction cartographic imagery paintings photographs and films The Portuguese Speaking Diaspora is the first detailed analysis of the different and sometimes conflicting cultural productions of the imperial diaspora in its heyday and an important context for understanding the more complex and broader based culture of population travel and displacement from the former colonies to present day homelands The topics that Darlene J Sadlier discusses include exploration and settlement by the Portuguese in different parts of the empire the Black Atlantic slave trade nineteenth century travel and Orientalist imaginings the colonial wars and the return of populations to Portugal following African independence A wide ranging study of the art and literature of these and other diasporic movements this book is a major contribution to the growing field of Lusophone studies Photo-era ,1913 Photo-era Magazine Juan C.
