The Hills of Hingham Dallas Lore Sharp, 2022-09-16 In The Hills of Hingham Dallas Lore Sharp presents a vivid tableau of rural New England life skillfully weaving together personal anecdotes and observations with rich descriptions of the natural landscape Sharp s lyrical prose is steeped in a genuine appreciation for the hills trees and wildlife that inhabit Hingham effectively capturing the essence of a simpler pastoral existence The text not only serves as an intimate reflection of the author s experiences but also contextualizes them within the broader American literary tradition of nature writing reminiscent of Thoreau and Muir as it resonates with themes of conservation and the human connection to nature Dallas Lore Sharp an influential figure in early 20th century nature writing was deeply influenced by his upbringing in Massachusetts His experiences as a teacher and naturalist informed his desire to articulate the beauty of his surroundings shedding light on the intricate balance between humanity and the natural world His dedication to environmentalism is imbued throughout the narrative aiming to foster a reverence for the landscapes that

Lingenfelter,1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history A Dictionary of the Chinese Language Robert Morrison,1865 The Naked Gaze Carlos Rojas,2020-03-17 This is a study of visuality in early modern and modern China Its focus however is not so much on imagery per se but rather on how vision itself has been conceived imagined and deployed in a variety of discursive contexts Of particular interest is how these discourses of vision have been used to articulate issues of gender and desire and specifically processes of gendered subject formation Through detailed readings of narrative works by eight authors of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries ranging from the canonical to the popular to the esoteric the study identifies three distinct constellations of visual concerns corresponding to the late imperial mid twentieth century and contemporary periods respectively At the same time however it argues that those historical periodizations themselves do not reflect a smooth unidirectional temporal movement rather they are the result of a complex process of retrospection and anticipatory projection The goal of this volume is to use a focus on tropes of visuality and gender to reflect on shifting understandings of the significance of Chineseness modernity and Chinese modernity

Mediterranean which comprised my journey through Barbary Having undertaken this journey quite alone I spent nearly my whole time with the Arabs and familiarized myself with that state of human society where the camel is man's daily companion and the culture of the date tree his chief occupation I made long journeys through desert tracts I travelled all round the Great Syrtis and passing through the picturesque little tract of Cyrenaica traversed the whole country towards Egypt I wandered about for above a month in the desert valleys between Asw n and Kos r and afterwards pursued my journey by land all the way through Syria and Asia Minor to Constantinople While traversing these extensive tracts where European comfort is never altogether out of reach where lost supplies may be easily replaced and where the protection of European powers is not quite without avail I had often cast a wistful look towards those unknown or little known regions in the interior which stand in frequent though irregular connection with the coast As a lover of ancient history I had been led towards those regions rather through the commerce of ancient Carthage than by the thread of modern discovery and the desire to know something more about them acted on me like a charm In the course of a conversation I once held with a H usa slave in K f in the regency of Tunis he seeing the interest I took in his native country made use of these simple but impressive words Please God you shall go and visit Kan These words were constantly ringing in my ears and though overpowered for a time by the vivid impressions of interesting and picturesque countries they echoed with renewed intensity as soon as I was restored to the tranquillity of European life During my three years travelling I had ample opportunity of testing the efficacy of British protection I experienced the kindness of all Her Britannic Majesty's consuls from Tangiers to Br sa and often enjoyed their hospitality It was solely their protection which enabled me to traverse with some degree of security those more desert tracts through which I wandered Colonel Warrington Her Majesty's consul in Tripoli who seems to have had some presentiment of my capabilities as an African explorer even promised me his full assistance if I should try to penetrate into the interior Besides this my admiration of the wide extension of the British over the globe their influence their language and their government was such that I felt a strong inclination to become the humble means of carrying out their philanthropic views for the progressive civilization of the neglected races of Central Africa Under these circumstances I volunteered cheerfully to accompany Mr Richardson on the sole condition however that the exploration of Central Africa should be made the principal object of the mission instead of a secondary one as had been originally contemplated In the meantime while letters were interchanged between Berlin London and Paris where Mr Richardson at that time resided my father whom I had informed of my design entreated me to desist from my perilous undertaking with an earnestness which my filial duty did not allow me to resist and giving way to Dr Overweg who in youthful enthusiasm came immediately forward to volunteer I receded from my engagement But it was too late my offer having been officially accepted in London and I therefore allayed my father's anxiety and joined the expedition It was a generous act of Lord Palmerston who organized the expedition to allow two foreign gentlemen to join it instead of one A sailor was besides attached to it and a boat was also provided in order to give full scope to the object of exploration The choice of the sailor was unfortunate and Mr Richardson thought it best to send him back from M rzuk but the boat which was carried throughout the difficult and circuitous road by M rzuk Gh t A r and Z nder exciting the wonder and astonishment of all the tribes in the interior ultimately reached its destination though the director of the expedition himself had in the meanwhile unfortunately succumbed
