Turning to Tradition Oliver Herbel, 2014 This book examines Christian converts to Orthodoxy who served as exemplars and leaders for convert movements in America during the twentieth century Tradition vs. Traditionalism Avi Sagi, 2008-01-01 This book is a first attempt to examine the thought of key contemporary Jewish thinkers on the meaning of tradition in the context of two models The classic model assumes that tradition reflects lack of dynamism and reflectiveness and the present's unqualified submission to the past This view however is an image that the modernist ethos has ascribed to the tradition so as to remove it from modern existence In the alternative model a living tradition emerges as open and dynamic developing through an ongoing dialogue between present and past The Jewish philosophers discussed in this work Joseph B Soloveitchik Yeshayahu Leibowitz David Hartman and Eliezer Goldman ascribe compelling canonic status to the tradition and the analysis of their thought discloses the tension between these two models The book carefully traces the course they have plotted along the various interpretations of tradition through their approach to Scripture and to Halakhah

Tradition Vs. Traditionalism Abraham Sagi, 2008 This book is a first attempt to examine the thought of key contemporary Jewish thinkers on the meaning of tradition in the context of two models The classic model assumes that tradition reflects lack of dynamism and reflectiveness and the present's unqualified submission to the past This view however is an image that the modernist ethos has ascribed to the tradition so as to remove it from modern existence In the alternative model a living tradition emerges as open and dynamic developing through an ongoing dialogue between present and past The Jewish philosophers discussed in this work Joseph B Soloveitchik Yeshayahu Leibowitz David Hartman and Eliezer Goldman ascribe compelling canonic status to the tradition and the analysis of their thought discloses the tension between these two models The book carefully traces the course they have plotted along the various interpretations of tradition through their approach to Scripture and to Halakhah Contents Editorial Foreword Introduction Returning to Tradition Paradox or Challenge The Tense Encounter with Modernity Soloveitchik Jewish Thought Confronts Modernity Compartmentalization From Ernst Simon to Yeshayahu Leibowitz The Harmonic Encounter with Modernity Religious Commitment in a Secularized World Eliezer Goldman David Hartman Renewing the Covenant Between Old and New Judaism as Interpretation Scripture in the Thought of Leibowitz and Soloveitchik Halakhah in the Thought of Leibowitz and Soloveitchik Eliezer Goldman Judaism as Interpretation Epilogue My Name's my Donors Name Notes Bibliography About the Author Index Whatever Happened to Tradition? Tim Stanley, 2021-10-14 The West feels lost Brexit Trump the coronavirus we hurtle from one crisis to another lacking definition terrified that our best days are behind us The central argument of this book is that we can only face the future with hope if we have a proper sense of tradition political social and religious We ignore our past at our peril The problem argues Tim Stanley is that the Western tradition is anti tradition that we have a habit of discarding old ways and old knowledge leaving us uncertain how to act or even of who we really are In this wide ranging book we see how tradition can be both beautiful and useful from the deserts of Australia to the court of nineteenth century Japan Some of the concepts defended here are highly controversial in the modern West authority nostalgia rejection of self and the hunt for spiritual transcendence We'll even meet a tribe who dress up their dead relatives and invite them to tea Stanley illustrates how apparently eccentric yet universal principles can nurture the individual from birth to death plugging them into the wider community and creating a bond between generations He also demonstrates that tradition far from being pretentious or rigid survives through clever adaptation that it can be surprisingly egalitarian The good news he argues is that it can also be rebuilt It's been done before The process is fraught with danger but the ultimate prize of rediscovering tradition is self knowledge and freedom Poetics of Change Julio Ortega, 2013-08-26 Too often literary criticism is academic exercise rather than creative act For the multifaceted Julio Ortega respected poet dramatist and novelist in his own right the act of criticism becomes profoundly creative his incisive readings of the text far transcending the pedantry that may falsely pass for imagination intelligence and rigor Nearly every Spanish American writer of consequence from Paz to Fuentes Cortázar to Lezama Lima has extolled Ortega's criticism as not merely a reflection but an essential part of the renaissance that took place in Spanish American letters during the late twentieth century Poetics of Change brings together Ortega's most penetrating and insightful analyses of the fiction of Borges Fuentes García Márquez Carpentier Rulfo Cabrera Infante and others responsible for great writing from Spanish America Ortega concerns himself most with the semantic innovations of these masters of the modern narrative and their play with form language and the traditional boundaries of genre Mapping their creative territory he finds that the poetics of Spanish American writing is that of a dynamically changing genre that has set exploration at its very heart The Indiana Companion to Traditional Chinese Literature William H. Nienhauser, 1986 A veritable feast of concise useful reliable and up to date information all prepared by top scholars in the field Nienhauser's now two volume title stands alone as THE standard reference work for the study of traditional Chinese literature Nothing like it has ever been published Choice The second volume to The Indiana Companion to Traditional Chinese Literature is both a supplement and an update to the original volume Volume II includes over 60 new entries on famous writers works and genres of traditional Chinese literature followed by an extensive bibliographic update 1985-1997 of editions translations and studies primarily in English Chinese Japanese French and German for the 500 entries of Volume I The End of Tradition? Ian D. Rotherham, 2014 The threats from global cultural change and abandonment of traditional landscape management increased in the last half of the twentieth century and ten years into the twenty first century show no signs of slowing down Their impacts on global biodiversity and on people disconnected from their traditional landscapes pose real and serious economic and social problems which need to be addressed now The End of Tradition conference held in Sheffield UK was organised by Ian D Rotherham and colleagues It addressed the fundamental issues of whether we can conserve the biodiversity of wonderful and iconic landscapes and reconnect people to their natural environment And if we can how can we do so and make them relevant for the twenty first century The book is in two parts Part 1 A History of Commons and Commons Management and Part 2 Commons Current Management and Problems Cinematic Homecomings Rebecca Prime, 2016-05-19 The history of cinema charts multiple histories of exile From the German migrants in 1930s Hollywood to today's Iranian filmmakers in Europe and the United States these histories continue to exert a profound influence on the evolution of cinematic narratives and aesthetics But while the effect of exile and diaspora on film practice has been fruitfully explored from both historical and contemporary perspectives the issues raised by return whether literal or metaphorical have yet to be fully considered Cinematic Homecomings expands upon existing studies of transnational cinema by addressing the questions raised by reverse migration and the return home in a variety of historical and national contexts from postcolonialism to post Communism By looking beyond exile the contributors offer a multidirectional perspective on the relationship between migration mobility and transnational cinema Narratives of return are among the most popular themes of the contemporary cinema of countries ranging from Morocco to Cuba to the Soviet Union This speaks to both the sociocultural reality of reverse migration and to its significance on the imagination of the nation

Bartok, Hungary, and the Renewal of Tradition David E. Schneider, 2006-11-06 It is well known that Bela Bartok had an extraordinary ability to synthesize Western art music with the folk music of Eastern Europe What this rich and beautifully written study makes clear is that contrary to much prevailing thought about the great twentieth century Hungarian composer Bartok was also strongly influenced by the art music traditions of his native country Drawing from a wide array of material including contemporary reviews and little known Hungarian documents David Schneider presents a new approach to Bartok that acknowledges the composer's debt to a variety of Hungarian music traditions as well as to influential contemporaries such as Igor Stravinsky Putting representative works from each decade beginning with Bartok's graduation from the Music Academy in 1903 until his departure for the United States in 1940 under critical lens Schneider reads the composer's artistic output as both a continuation and a profound transformation of the very national tradition he repeatedly rejected in public By clarifying why Bartok felt compelled to obscure his ties to the past and by illuminating what that past actually was Schneider dispels myths about Bartok's relationship to nineteenth century traditions and at the same time provides a new perspective on the relationship between nationalism and modernism in early twentieth century music

The Sunset of Tradition and the Origin of the Great War Alexander Wolfheze, 2018-10-01 From a Traditionalist perspective the cultural history of the Modern Era amounts to the genesis of the Dark Age The Traditionalist meta historical narrative deconstructs the modernist myth of historic progress as an anti intellectual superstition It exposes the quintessential features of Modernity namely secular nihilism historical materialism socio political egalitarianism and collective narcissism as structural inversions of Traditional values The historic accumulation of these inversions set the stage for a final showdown between Tradition and Modernity In terms of ancient prophecy and Traditionalist philosophy the Great War represents the apocalyptic sunset of the world of Tradition This work follows the forgotten path of the philosophia perennis to trace the historic onset of the Dark Age It clears away a century deep deposit of progressive illusions and politically correct axioms The restored road of Traditional thought will lead a new generation of scholars to their rightful inheritance an intellectual tabula rasa on which history can be written anew

Inventing New Beginnings Asher D. Biemann, 2009-01-01 Inventing New Beginnings is the first book length study to examine the conceptual underpinnings of the Jewish Renaissance or return to Judaism that captured much of German speaking Jewry between 1890 and 1938 The book addresses two very fundamental yet hitherto strangely understated questions What did the term renaissance actually mean to the intellectuals and ideologues of the Jewish Renaissance and how did this understanding relate to wider currents in European intellectual and cultural history of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It also addresses the larger question of how we can contemplate renaissance as a mode of thought that is conditioned by the consciousness and experience of modernity and that extends to our present time
