Lindisfarne Gospels to the ornate Psalter of Henry VIII A delight immersive conversational and intensely visual full of gorgeous illustrations and shimmering description Helen Castor author of She Wolves Medieval manuscripts can tell us much about power and art knowledge and beauty Many have survived because of an author's status part of the reason we have so much of Chaucer's writing for example is because he was a London based government official first and a poet second Other works by the less influential have narrowly avoided ruin like the book of illiterate Margery Kempe found in a country house closet the cover nibbled on by mice Scholar Mary Wellesley recounts the amazing origins of these remarkable manuscripts surfacing the important roles played by women and ordinary people the grinders binders and scribes in their creation and survival The Gilded Page is the story of the written word in the manuscript age Rich and surprising it shows how the most exquisite objects ever made by human hands came from unexpected places Mary Wellesley is a born storyteller and The Gilded Page is as good as historical writing gets This is a sensational debut by a wonderfully gifted historian Dan Jones bestselling author of The Plantagenets and The Templars Religious Books, 1876-1982, 1983 Prepared by the R R Bowker Company's Department of Bibliography in collaboration with the Publications Systems Department Page opposite t p Includes indexes Author Index 3901 4069 Title Index 4071 4389 Building, 1916 The Architect & Building News, 1927

Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2013-05-06 Few of us have been spared the agonies of intimate relationships They come in many shapes loving a man or a woman who will not commit to us being heartbroken when we're abandoned by a lover engaging in Sisyphean internet searches coming back lonely from bars parties or blind dates feeling bored in a relationship that is so much less than we had envisaged these are only some of the ways in which the search for love is a difficult and often painful experience Despite the widespread and almost collective character of these experiences our culture insists they are the result of faulty or insufficiently mature psyches For many the Freudian idea that the family designs the pattern of an individual's erotic career has been the main explanation for why and how we fail to find or sustain love Psychoanalysis and popular psychology have succeeded spectacularly in convincing us that individuals bear responsibility for the misery of their romantic and erotic lives The purpose of this book is to change our way of thinking about what is wrong in modern relationships The problem is not dysfunctional childhoods or insufficiently self-aware psyches but rather the institutional forces shaping how we love The argument of this book is that the modern romantic experience is shaped by a fundamental transformation in the ecology and architecture of romantic choice The samples from which men and women choose a partner the modes of evaluating prospective partners the very importance of choice and autonomy and what people imagine to be the spectrum of their choices all these aspects of choice have transformed the very core of the will how we want a partner the sense of worth bestowed by relationships and the organization of desire This book does to love what Marx did to commodities it shows that it is shaped by social relations and institutions and that it circulates in a marketplace of unequal actors

Sixteen Commentaries on LOVE versus HOPE Daniel Solomon, 2020 The Christian Century, 1916 Built upon

Love Alberto Perez-Gomez, 2008-02-15 A vision of architecture that transcends concerns of form and function and finds the connections between the architect's wish to design a beautiful world and architecture's imperative to provide a better place for society. The forced polarity between form and function in considerations of architecture opposing art to social interests, ethics to poetic expression, obscures the deep connections between ethical and poetical values in architectural tradition. Architecture has been and must continue to be, writes Alberto Perez Gomez, built upon love. Modernity has rightly rejected past architectural excesses but Perez Gomez argues the materialistic and technological alternatives it proposes do not answer satisfactorily the complex desire that defines humanity. True architecture is concerned with far more than fashionable form: affordable homes and sustainable development; it responds to a desire for an eloquent place to dwell, one that lovingly provides a sense of order resonant with our dreams. In Built upon Love, Perez Gomez uncovers the relationship between love and architecture in order to find the points of contact between poetics and ethics between the architect's wish to design a beautiful world and architecture's imperative to provide a better place for society. Eros, as first imagined by the early lyric poets of classical Greece, is the invisible force at the root of our capacity to create and comprehend the poetic image. Perez Gomez examines the nature of architectural form in the light of eros, seduction, and the tradition of the poetic image in Western architecture. He charts the ethical dimension of architecture, tracing the connections between philia, the love of friends that entails mutual responsibility among equals, and architectural program. He explores the position of architecture at the limits of language and discusses the analogical language of philia in modernist architectural theory. Finally, he uncovers connections between ethics and poetics, describing a contemporary practice of architecture under the sign of love, incorporating both eros and philia. Alchemy of Christ: The Book of Revelations LaRoya, 2017-07-10 It has been a long tradition among the Hebrews to use the pesher dream interpretation code which had encoded messages regarding two levels of information written within a story. One level was written as an allegory that told a message about morality. The other level was written about esoteric instruction and political events which mirrored inner growth. Each of the 22 chapters are inspired by the 22 Hebrew alphabet letters. In this book The Alchemy of Christ: The Book of Revelation, I give a commentary on the Book of Revelations. Apocalypse means revealing, and it is the revealing of the Christ within. The final battle of Armageddon takes place within us. This is an inner war that will transform us and bring us back to recovery to the state of Christ Consciousness. The political struggles within the world mirror the transformation of the individual. Just as we recover the earth as a whole will recover as well, leading to an enlightened Civilization. The influence of literature on architecture Arthur Thomas Bolton, 1895 The Magazine of Science, and Artists', Architects, and Builders Journal, 1850
