Revelation Reason The Christian Doctri:

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher

Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth

The Doctrine of Revelation Gabriel J. Fackre, 1997 This book ventures a new interpretation of revelation The author discusses the major themes in the narrative of revelation engaging critically with four of the century's giants in theology Karl Barth Paul Tillich Karl Rahner and Carl Henry These represent the four major phases in the narrative of revelation and Fackre addresses these alternative views in twentieth century theology through in depth inquiry and critical analysis The Doctrine of Revelation challenges reductionist views and strives for an ecumenical understanding that appropriates the insights from a variety of schools of thought

A Brief Theology of Revelation Colin E. Gunton, 2005-07-15 Professor Gunton asks whether there is more to be said for the motion of Christianity as a revealed religion than some of the more simplified recent treatments allow He analyses the concept of revelation illustrating its importance for understanding even beyond religious purposes He contends that natural theology and natural revelation are distinct categories and examines why they are so often confused He considers revelation in relation to scripture and tradition

Gunton, 2008-11-20 Colin Gunton was a world renowned scholar systematic theologian and Reformed Church minister Revelation and Reason is an in depth analysis derived from the annual lecture seminar course he gave to MA students at King's College London Approximately one third of the work is a direct transcript and analysis of the three two hour lectures Colin Gunton gave at a break neck speed 1 From Reason and Revelation to Revelation And Reason 2 The Modern Problem in an Historical Context 3 Aspects of Karl Barth on Faith And Reason These lectures were a history analysis and critique of Revelation and Reason in Systematic Theology and Philosophy culminating with Karl Barth The remainder is a transcript of the unrehearsed unscripted extemporaneous responses Colin Gunton gave to MA student's papers on set topics in the Revelation and Reason course seamlessly integrated where relevant with detail from the main three lectures Colin was a creative lecturer and widely read theologian and philosopher These extemporaneous responses show the breadth of his learning and his genius spontaneously to bring to mind relevant ideas from a wealth of theologians and philosophers whilst incisively and piercingly exposing the flaws as well as the strengths under consideration From this wealth of reading Colin gave space to the free rein of his mind particularly when fielding questions or trying to analyze a particular strand of a theologian's thought Revelation and Reason is a complementary volume to Colin Gunton's posthumously published The Barth Lectures Continuum 2007 and to the first volume of his unfinished Systematic Theology also forthcoming from T T Clark Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology In this monograph David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation Law and Gospel He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law-gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology. After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method, Gilliland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology, The Mediator (1927). In light of the preceding analysis, the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth, Nature and Grace (1934). The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth.

A History of Christian Doctrine Hubert Cunliffe-Jones, 2006-04-24. Anyone who is interested in constructive theology needs a knowledge of the history of Christian theology. In succession to the classic History of Christian Doctrine by G. P. Fisher, Professor Cunliffe-Jones has brought together a team of experts in the various periods to provide a new and comprehensive survey of the field. All the great themes, the Fathers, the Heretics, of the long story here find their due place from sub-apostolic Christianity to Vatican II. Also featured are the contribution of Orthodox theology to the whole development, the complex problems of the pre-Reformation period and the troubled modern period with its new perspectives of Church and society and its deep underlying malaise. Includes contributions from G. W. H. Lampe, Kallistos Ware, David Knowles, E. Gordon Rupp, Benjamin Drewery, Basil Hall, T. H. L. Parker, H. F. Woodhouse, R. Buick, Knox, and John H. S. Kent.

Christian Theology Adam Harwood, 2022-10-19. The church has been entrusted with God's revelation and to steward the word of truth we must confess the Bible's teaching with clarity and conviction. Adam Harwood's Christian Theology is both biblically faithful and historically informed, providing a fresh synthesis of the essential doctrines of the faith. Writing from a Baptist perspective, Harwood brings fresh insights that many systematic theologies lack. With readable prose, suggestions for further study and discussion questions, Christian Theology will equip students and pastors to clarify and articulate what they believe and why.

A History of Christian Doctrines Karl Rudolf Hagenbach, 1881.

The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01. Stephen Moroney's fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin, a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking. Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin, Abraham Kuyper, and Emil Brunner, Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject. He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject. Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff. Lastly, Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin. An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology, The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of
