Revelations Of Dr Modesto:

The Revelations of Dr. Modesto Alan Harrington, 1974 The Revelations of Dr Modesto Alan Harrington, Vance Nye Bourjaily, 1957 The Revelations of Dr. Modesto Dean Fuller, Beverly Fuller, Marshall Barer, Out of the Labyrinth Ellen Kaplan, Robert Kaplan, 2014-02-04

Out of the Labyrinth rejoices in the serious play of mathematics and explains how to think about math as a truly common pursuit full of fun and full of the wisdom of a lifetime of teaching Barry Mazur Gerhard Gade University Professory Harvard University Unadjusted Man in the Age of Overadjustment, The great critic Peter Viereck in a volume that both reproduces an earlier effort and presents an entirely new work on the intersection of history and literature offers a biting critique of the American desire for normalcy that leads to a culture of the surrender of personality In contrast to this voluntary thought control process is the unadjusted person Cast in the mold of great individualists from Thomas More to Friedrich Nietzsche such a person responds to fundamental values of conscience rather than conformity built exclusively on ego gratification and icon worship Viereck's book is a stinging critique of the liberal presumption of a monopoly in critical thought He argues to the contrary that most varieties of liberal expression offer little else than the common platitude dressed up as critique In such a cultural environment conservatism is the skeleton in the liberal closet The virtue of conservatism is that in its very stress on liberty as dependent on tradition and law it permits the human being an opportunity to test all transient things by the touchstone of all lasting ideas Unadjusted Man cuts deep and in many directions against left totalitarian regimes of Europe and right wannabes like McCarthyism in America For Viereck the art of conserving is not an embrace of utopias to come or empires that were but retaining the sense of individuality over against the senselessness of the massman Civil liberties in this approach are a right to non conspiratorial dissent informed by fundamental values The new material is presented unabashedly without an attempt to rewrite personal history and with an admission that not every prediction made in the original edition has come to fruition That said the underlying themes of the original are not so much repeated as expanded upon For those seeking a work in the classic mold of conservatism rather than the strident reactionary views that have come to dominate much of the conservative dialogue this will be a special book a special entrance to the mind of a great figure in American culture wars of present as well as past Transactional Analysis in Psychotherapy Eric Berne, 2022-12-19 In this groundbreaking work psychiatrist Dr Eric Berne introduces a new method for understanding and analyzing human behavior known as transactional analysis or TA which examines the interactions or transactions between individuals and the ways in which they change in response to each other Core to TA is the thesis that humans as social organisms are capable of adapting and changing in response to others Though developed more than a half century ago TA continues to shape the field of psychiatry and remains required reading for anyone investing the subject Dynamics of Expendability Benjamin M. Braginsky, 1995 Human expendability deals with all levels of the social system and shapes our lives Braginsky presents its genesis pathways through social systems and geopolitical effects from both macro and micro points of view in this unique work Contents A Model of Expendability Expendability and Mediocrity Expendability and Paranoia Expendability and Social Class The De educative Classroom The Expendable Family Expendability Hypocrisy and Sanctification Impression Management and Attempts to Reduce Surplus Value Expendability and the Economics of Meaning The Willy Loman Syndrome Expendability and Its Recognition Expendability and the Quality of Commodities The Meaning of Indifference The Model and Its Dynamics The Manufacture of Indifference Expendability and the Dynamic of Theocracies Expendability and the Theocracy of IT Next to an Inch WE are all Lies Inch and Justice War and Expendability The Grand Stimuli Expendability Imagining and Fanaticism Bibliography The Enchantments of Mammon Eugene McCarragher, 2019-11-12 Eugene McCarragher challenges the conventional view of capitalism as a force for disenchantment From Puritan and evangelical valorizations of profit to the heavenly Fordist city the mystically animated corporation and the deification of the market capitalism has hijacked our intrinsic longing for divinity laying hold to our souls

Anarchists, Beats and Dadaists Jim Burns, 2015-10-12 This seventh collection of essays and reviews kicks off with a survey of some overlooked British poets from the 1940s who through a network of little magazines with anarchist inclinations attempted to offer an alternative to the MacSpaunDay generation's sensibilities Another piece considers how British writers were monitored by MI5 and local police forces while a third switches attention to the USA and looks at the still controversial case of Alger Hiss and his alleged role as a spy who passed information to Russia There are essays about lesser known Beat related writers like Bob Kaufman and Brion Gysin inspections of some little magazines of the 1950s and 1960s and two long reviews which consider the effect that Dadaism had and the role played in the movement by Tristan Tzara Walt Whitman Woody Guthrie and Malcolm Cowley also make an appearance The Life Swap Nancy Weber, 2015-06-23 In February of 1973 Nancy Weber put an ad in the Village Voice offering to trade places with another woman a stranger for a month In hopes of better understanding what was fixed and final in each person and what was invented and therefore might be reinvented they would use each other's names live in each other's homes love each other's loves and do each other's work After interviewing many of the fascinating women who answered the ad Weber single with a longtime lover and straight chose a polyamorous bisexual married psychologist and academic the pseudonymous Micki Wrangler They spent five months getting ready for their adventure cajoling their nearest and dearest into participating exchanging thousands of details and swapping deep secrets But instead of a month their wild ride lasted only a week Wrangler was having a rough time and Weber too good a time maybe so they decided to call things off Wanting The Life Swap to convey more than her own experience Weber invited Wrangler and ten others to enrich the book with their uncensored reports Publicity for the book included stints on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson and To Tell the Truth The book achieved a kind of cult status in part because it's a relic of 1970s sexual openness cruelly destroyed by HIV AIDS and belief in the right of self invention Recent critics have credited the book with inspiring life swap reality TV shows and several popular novels and films

Perspectives USA, 1956 Brother-Souls Ann Charters, Samuel Charters, 2010-09-27 John Clellon Holmes met Jack Kerouac on a hot New York City weekend in 1948 and until the end of Kerouac's life they were in Holmes's words Brother Souls. Both were neophyte novelists hungry for literary fame but just as hungry to find a new way of responding to their experiences in a postwar American society that for them had lost its direction. Late one night as they sat talking, Kerouac spontaneously created the term Beat Generation to describe this new attitude they felt stirring around them. Brother Souls John Clellon Holmes, Jack Kerouac, and the Beat Generation is the remarkable chronicle of this cornerstone friendship and the life of John Clellon Holmes. From 1948 to 1951 when Kerouac's wanderings took him back to New York, he and Holmes met almost daily. Struggling to find a form for the novel he intended to write, Kerouac climbed the stairs to the apartment in midtown Manhattan where Holmes lived with his wife to read the pages of Holmes's manuscript for the novel. Go as they left the typewriter. With the pages of Holmes's final chapter still in his mind, he was at last able to crack his own writing dilemma. In a burst of creation in April 1951, he drew all the materials he had been gathering into the scroll manuscript of On the Road. Biographer Ann Charters was close to John Clellon Holmes for more than a decade. At his death in 1988, she was one of a handful of scholars allowed access to the voluminous archive of letters, journals, and manuscripts Holmes had been keeping for twenty-five years. In that mass of material waited an untold story. These two ambitious writers, Holmes and Kerouac, shared days and nights arguing over what writing should be, wandering from one explosive party to the next and hanging on the new sounds of bebop. Through the pages of Holmes's journals, often written the morning after the events they recount, Charters discovered and mined an unparalleled trove describing the seminal figures of the Beat Generation: Holmes, Kerouac, Neal Cassady, Allen Ginsberg, William Burroughs, Gregory Corso, and their friends and lovers. Newsweek, 1955 What the Woman Lived Louise Bogan, 1973 LIFE, 1969-07-04 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. It now lives on at LIFE.com, the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet. Users can browse, search, and view photos of today's people and events. They have free access to share, print, and post images for personal use. The Fifties Douglas T. Miller, Marion Nowak, 1977. Surveys the social, cultural, and political history of the United States during the decade of the 1950s. Perspectives, 1955 Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1955 American Satire in Prose and Verse Henry Carlisle, 1962. Satirical pieces, classical and contemporary.

Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. Wessells, 1965-10. Includes beginning Sept 15, 1954, and on the 15th of each month Sept-May a special section. School library journal. ISSN 0000-0035. Called Junior Libraries 1954-May 1961. Issued also separately.
