Mankowitz,2002-09-30 This is the remarkable story of the 250 000 Holocaust survivors who converged on the American Zone of Occupied Germany from 1945 to 1948 They envisaged themselves as the living bridge between destruction and rebirth the last remnants of a world destroyed and the active agents of its return to life Much of what has been written elsewhere looks at the Surviving Remnant through the eyes of others and thus has often failed to disclose the tragic complexity of their lives together with their remarkable political and social achievements Despite having lost everyone and everything they got on with their lives they married had children and worked for a better future They did not surrender to the deformities of suffering and managed to preserve their humanity intact Mankowitz uses largely inaccessible archival material to give a moving and sensitive account of this neglected area in the aftermath of the Holocaust Jesus and the Hope of the Poor Luise Schottroff,Wolfgang Stegemann,2009-07-01 According to Luise Schottroff and Wolfgang Stegemann the search for the historical Jesus has been marked by the tendency to isolate Jesus from his disciples and from Judaism They argue however that Jesus is inseparable from his first disciples and from the indigent Jews who made up the earliest Jesus movement Understood in the context of his following Jesus emerges from Schottroff and Stegemann as a Jew who not only proclaimed the reign of God in a unique way but who was himself a symbol of hope for the poor and oppressed of his time This exciting socio historical interpretation of the Jesus movement focuses chiefly on the earliest Jesus tradition the Sayings source and the Gospel of Luke Students teachers of New Testament studies and anyone who wants to explore Jesus's life context will be challenged by this book The Public School Journal ,1896 School and Home Education ,1895 Hope in All Directions Geoffrey Karabin,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Join a truly inter disciplinary and international community of scholars in their quest to understand a concept critical to human life Academic studies regarding the nature of hope literary accounts of a hope that withstands brutal assaults on human dignity explorations of hope from a religious as well as non religious worldview the interrelation between nationalistic and individual
