Economic Expansion and Social Change: Industry, trade, and government C. G. A. Clay,1984 Historical understanding of the dynamics of economic and social change in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries has been transformed in the last twenty or thirty years by an enormous volume of original research A fascinating picture has emerged of an economy and society in turmoil under the influence of population growth inflation the commercialisation of agriculture the growth of a huge capital city the emergence of distinct forms of manufacturing and changes in the international economic context Traditional forms of production traditional social structures and traditional values all came under increasingly insistent attack from the forces of change leading to radical economic and social readjustments In this book Christopher Clay draws on this flourishing research to provide a lucidly written analysis of the economy and society of England in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries logically organised on a thematic rather than a chronological basis New Voices on Adam Smith Leonidas Montes,Eric Schliesser,2006-04-18 In recent years there has been a resurgence of academic interest in Adam Smith As a consequence a large number of PhD dissertations on Smith have been written by international scholars in different languages and in many diverse disciplines including economics women s studies philosophy science studies political theory and english literature diversity which has enriched the area of study In response to this activity and in order to making these contributions more easily accessible to other Smith scholars Leonidas Montes and Eric Schliesser have edited this important new book Of interest to Smith scholars and those interested in the history of economic thought in general the contributions to this book are self consciously interdisciplinary and skilfully employ many different methodologies Routledge Encyclopedia of International Political Economy R. W. Bob Coats,2005-08-08 Following an introduction to the key ideas of Coats this work focuses on two themes the difference between British and American economics both in content and in the practice of the profession and the interrelationships between economic ideas events or conditions and policy issues      A Revised History for Advanced Level & Colleges Nassoro Habib Mbwana,2017-11-10 The book is a response of the suggestions and opinions provided to me by the students on writing a text that could be beneficial for them and other readers The book covers the period from the fifteenth century to the present 2014 It includes the development of Europe from mercantilism to a new imperialism globalization and a neocolonial situation and underdevelopment to the less developed countries in the southern hemisphere It also justifies and revises important areas in the current 2009 syllabus which had been left by other authors in writing history texts for the advanced level Therefore the book justifies some areas that are beyond the syllabus but the questions do appear in examinations The book is directed to be useful for A level and college students the teachers and other readers who have an interest with history The Colonizing

Trick David Kazanjian,2003 An illuminating look at the concepts of race nation and equality in eighteenth and nineteenth century America The idea that all men are created equal is as close to a universal tenet as exists in American history In this hard hitting book David Kazanjian interrogates this tenet exploring transformative flash points in early America when the belief in equality came into contact with seemingly contrary ideas about race and nation The Colonizing Trick depicts early America as a white settler colony in the process of becoming an empire one deeply integrated with Euro American political economy imperial ventures in North America and Africa and pan American racial formations Kazanjian traces tensions between universal equality and racial or national particularity through theoretically informed critical readings of a wide range of texts the political writings of David Walker and Maria Stewart the narratives of black mariners economic treatises the personal letters of Thomas Jefferson and Phillis Wheatley Charles Brockden Brown s fiction congressional tariff debates international treaties and popular novelettes about the U S Mexico War and the Yucatan s Caste War Kazanjian shows how emergent racial and national formations do not contradict universalist egalitarianism rather they rearticulate it making equality at once restricted formal abstract and materially embodied Consumption as an Investment Cosimo Perrotta,2004
