Seth,2010-10-16 In this comprehensive yet compact book Michael J Seth surveys Korean history from Neolithic times to the present He explores the origins and development of Korean society politics and its still little known cultural heritage from their inception to the two Korean states of today Telling the remarkable story of the origins and evolution of a society that borrowed and adopted from abroad Seth describes how various tribal peoples in the peninsula came together to form one of the world s most distinctive communities He shows how this ancient culturally and ethnically homogeneous society was wrenched into the world of late nineteenth century imperialism fell victim to Japanese expansionism and then became arbitrarily divided into two opposed halves North and South after World War II Tracing the past seven decades the book explains how the two Koreas with their deeply different political and social systems and geopolitical orientations evolved into sharply contrasting societies South Korea after an unpromising start became one of the few postcolonial developing states to enter the ranks of the first world with a globally competitive economy a democratic political system and a cosmopolitan and dynamic culture North Korea by contrast became one of the world s most totalitarian and isolated societies a nuclear power with an impoverished and famine stricken population Seth describes and analyzes the radically different and historically unprecedented trajectories of the two Koreas formerly one tight knit society Throughout he adds a rich dimension by placing Korean history into broader global perspective and by including primary readings from each era All readers looking for a balanced knowledgeable history will be richly rewarded with this clear and concise book     A Concise History of Modern Korea Michael J. Seth,2024-03-12 Now in a fully revised and updated edition including new primary sources and illustrations this comprehensive and balanced history of modern Korea explores the social economic and political issues it has faced since being catapulted into the wider world at the end of the nineteenth century Placing this formerly insular society in a global context Michael J Seth describes how this ancient culturally and ethnically homogeneous society first fell victim to Japanese imperialist expansionism and then was arbitrarily divided in half after World War II Seth traces the postwar paths of the two Koreas with different political and social systems and different geopolitical orientations as they evolved into sharply contrasting societies South Korea after an unpromising start became one of the few postcolonial developing states to enter the ranks of the first world with a globally competitive economy a democratic political system and a cosmopolitan and dynamic culture By contrast North Korea became one of the world s most totalitarian and isolated societies a nuclear power with an impoverished and famine stricken population Considering the radically different and historically unprecedented trajectories of the two Koreas Seth assesses the insights they offer for understanding not only modern Korea but the broader perspective of world history All readers looking for a balanced knowledgeable history will be richly rewarded with this clear and concise book     The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 17, Number 1 \(Spring 2012\) Clark W. Sorensen,Donald Baker,2012-06-21 The University of Washington Korea Studies Program in collaboration with Rowman Littlefield Publishers is proud to publish the Journal of Korean Studies In 1979 Dr James Palais PhD Harvard 1968 former UW professor of Korean History edited and published the first volume of the Journal of Korean Studies For thirteen years it was a leading academic forum for innovative in depth research on Korea In 2004 former editors Gi Wook Shin and John Duncan revived this outstanding publication at Stanford University In August 2008 editorial responsibility transferred back to the University of Washington With the editorial guidance of Clark Sorensen and Donald Baker the Journal of Korean Studies JKS continues to be dedicated to publishing outstanding articles from all disciplines on a broad range of historical and contemporary topics concerning Korea In addition the JKS publishes reviews of the latest Korea related books To subscribe to the Journal of Korean Studies or order print back issues please click here     The Capitalist Unconscious Hyun Ok Park,2015-09-01 The unification of North and South Korea is widely considered an unresolved and volatile matter for the global order but this book argues capital has already unified Korea in a transnational form As Hyun Ok Park demonstrates rather than territorial integration and family union the capitalist unconscious drives the current unification imagining the capitalist integration of the Korean peninsula and the Korean diaspora as a new democratic moment Based on extensive archival and ethnographic research in South Korea and China The Capitalist Unconscious shows how the hegemonic democratic politics of the post Cold War era reparation peace and human rights have consigned the rights of migrant laborers protagonists of transnational Korea to identity politics constitutionalism and cosmopolitanism Park reveals the riveting capitalist logic of these politics which underpins legal and policy debates social activism and media spectacle While rethinking the historical trajectory of Cold War industrialism and its subsequent liberal path this book also probes memories of such key events as the North Korean and Chinese revolutions which are integral to migrants reckoning with capitalist allures and communal possibilities Casting capitalist democracy within an innovative framework of historical repetition Park elucidates the form and content of the capitalist unconscious at different historical moments and dissolves the modern opposition among socialism democracy and dictatorship The Capitalist Unconscious astutely explores the neoliberal present s past and introduces a compelling approach to the question of history and contemporaneity

Kim Jong-il's Leadership of North Korea Jae-Cheon Lim, 2008-11-24 Kim Jong Il came to power after the death of his father Kim Il Sung in 1994 Contrary to expectations he has succeeded in maintaining enough political stability to remain in power Kim Jong Il s Leadership of North Korea is an examination of how political power has been developed transmitted from father to son and now operates in North Korea Using a variety of original North Korean sources as well as South Korean materials Jae Cheon Lim pieces together the ostensibly contradictory and inconsistent facts into a conceptual coherent framework This book considers Kim and his leadership through an analytical framework composed of four main elements i Kim as a leader of a totalitarian society ii as a politician iii as a Korean and iv as an individual person This illuminating account of what constitutes power and how it is used makes an important contribution to the understanding of an opaque and difficult regime It will be of interest for upper level undergraduate postgraduates and academics interested in North Korean politics and also those in Political theory

Revolution and Socialist Construction in Korea Sung Kim Il, 1971 Communism and Reform in East Asia (RLE Modern East and South East Asia)

David Goodman, 2015-04-10 The West no longer regards communism in East Asia as a threat On the contrary because the communist party states of East Asia appear to be undergoing a process of reform directed primarily at economic modernization it is now regarded as a potential market The West s attitude is reinforced by the recognition of East Asia s economic importance more generally a perception which in itself undoubtedly stimulated reform in the region s communist party states The causes extent and consequences of reform in the East Asian communist party states are the concerns of the contributions to this volume first published in 1988 It includes chapters on the reform process in China North Korea Vietnam and Mongolia as well as examinations of the roles played by both China and the Soviet Union in the Asia Pacific region They demonstrate that a belief in a simple single process of economic and political liberalization brought about by the drive for economic modernization the production imperative is a misleading argument Although the production imperative might act as a stimulus to reform it is neither a sufficient nor even a necessary condition In individual countries the communist party's search for legitimacy a change of leadership or the relationship with the USSR have equally been the spur to reform The drive for economic modernization may even be a consequence of the communist party's desire to reform rather than a cause The absence of a uniform pattern does not detract from the potential consequences of economic and political change These challenge socialist thinking on the nature of collective life ownership and rural society

 ,2023-08-28 During the second half of the twentieth century the countries of East Asia saw one of the most remarkable transformations in human history from relatively poor societies to global powerhouses of accumulation proletarianisation and mega urbanisation This volume features Marxist scholars from East Asia and Europe who are pioneering a new approach to this transformation using the theory of state capitalism The essays analyse the histories of countries on either side of the Cold War divide within the broader framework of twentieth century global capitalist expansion while at the same time offering a sophisticated critique of Developmental State Theory Contributors are Tobias ten Brink Gareth Dale Jeong Seongjin Michael Haynes Kim Ha young Kim Yong uk Lee Jeong goo and Owen Miller

North Korea on the Brink James Glyn Ford,Soyoung Kwon,2007-11-20 North Korea's development and testing of nuclear weapons made headlines in the Western media but is the country really a threat to the rest of the world This accessible introduction examines the country's history and focuses on whether the threat is realistic or exaggerated by the US in order to gain international support for the controversial missile defence system It also shows what the EU can do to engage with North Korea and counterbalance the US policy of isolationism North Korea is struggling to survive in the face of US threats of pre-emptive action and regime change by developing its own Weapons of Mass Destruction For the EU the challenge is to resolve this stand-off providing North Korea with sufficient security guarantees to enable them to give up their nuclear weapons and enough assistance to enable the economic and social reforms that the country so desperately needs

North Korea and the Global Nuclear Order Edward Howell,2023 For a state that has gained a global reputation as a violator of international norms North Korea's determination to become a nuclear armed state is puzzling
