N. Eisenstadt, 1973      Comparative civilizations and multiple modernities : [a collection of essays]. 2(2003) Shemu'el Noah Aizenshtadt, 2003      Revolution and the Transformation of Societies Shemu'el Noah Aizenshtadt, 1978      Radicalism and Cultural Dislocation in Ethiopia, 1960-1974 Messay Kebede, 2008 A provocative investigation into the root causes of the Ethiopian political upheavals in the second half of the twentieth century During the 1960s and early 1970s a majority of Ethiopian students and intellectuals adopted a Marxist Leninist ideology with fanatic fervor The leading force in an uprising against the imperial regime of Emperor Haile Selassie they played a decisive role in the rise of a Leninist military regime In this original study Messay Kebede examines the sociopolitical and cultural factors that contributed to the radicalization of the educated elite in Ethiopia and how this phenomenon contributed to the country's uninterrupted political crises and economic setbacks since the Revolution of 1974 Offering a unique insider's perspective garnered from his direct participation in the student movement the author emphasizes the role of the Western education system in the progressive radicalization of students and assesses the impact of Western education on traditional cultures The most comprehensive study of the role of students in modern Ethiopian political history to date Radicalism and Cultural Dislocation in Ethiopia 1960-1974 opens the door for discussion and debate on the issue of African modernization and the effects of cultural colonization Messay Kebede is Professor in the Department of Philosophy at the University of Dayton and is author of Survival and Modernization Ethiopia's Enigmatic Present A Philosophical Discourse 1999      Religion, Rebellion, Revolution Bruce Lincoln, 1985-07-22 Papers from a symposium on Religion and revolution held at the University of Minnesota 6-8 Nov 1981      Market and Community Mark Irving Lichbach, Adam B. Seligman, 2010-11 Social order results from a complex interaction of individual actions institutional structures and cultural norms But just how do they relate to one another and is any one factor predominant The answers that social science has provided reflect the competing paradigms of the rationalist structuralist and culturalist approaches In this innovative book two prominent social scientists coming from competing research traditions attempt to chart a course between them drawing on their respective strengths to present a new model based on a classificatory scheme of market community contract hierarchy The discussion which includes a closing dialogue between the authors covers both methodological and empirical issues with a review of classic theories of revolution and an analysis of the process of re-legitimation following the French Revolution and the Dutch Revolt against the Hapsburgs      Tocqueville's Road Map Roger Boesche, 2007-12-01 One of the country's foremost Tocqueville scholars Roger Boesche has gathered together his writings on Tocqueville from the last quarter century These essays focus on specific aspects of Tocqueville's political thought the methodology that Tocqueville brought to his historical and political writings allowing him to predict so well his assumptions about what constitutes a revolution his conviction that democracy and commerce at times work against each other why Tocqueville's thought defies our modern political classifications his fear of a qualitatively new kind of despotism and Tocqueville's predictions for the future compared to those of Nietzsche Arendt and others Tocqueville's Road Map is a long overdue addition to Tocqueville scholarship that will find an audience amongst scholars of political thought and history
