Scriptures of an African People Christian R. Gaba, 1973 African Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-01 The historiography of African religions and religions in Africa presents a remarkable shift from the study of Africa as Object to Africa as Subject thus translating the subject from obscurity into the global community of the academic study of religion This book presents a unique multidisciplinary exploration of African traditions in the study of religion in Africa and the new African diaspora The book is structured under three main sections Emerging trends in the teaching of African Religions Indigenous Thought and Spirituality and Christianity Hinduism and Islam Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts African scholars enrich the study of religions from their respective academic and methodological orientations Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa This book is to his honour and marks his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research Sacred Sites and the Colonial Encounter Sandra E. Greene, 2002-05-14 Greene gives the reader a vivid sense of the Anlo encounter with western thought and Christian beliefs and the resulting erasures transferences adaptations and alterations in their perceptions of place space and the body Emmanuel Akyeampong Sandra E Greene reconstructs a vivid and convincing portrait of the human and physical environment of the 19th century Anlo Ewe people of Ghana and brings history and memory into contemporary context Drawing on her extensive fieldwork early European accounts and missionary archives and publications Greene shows how ideas from outside forced sacred and spiritual meanings associated with particular bodies of water burial sites sacred towns and the human body itself to change in favor of more scientific and regulatory views Anlo responses to these colonial ideas involved considerable resistance and over time the Anlo began to attribute selective varied and often contradictory meanings to the body and the spaces they inhabited Despite these multiple meanings Greene shows that the Anlo were successful in forging a consensus on how to manage their identity environment and community Africa: Facing Human Security Challenges in the 21st Century Mentan, Tatah, 2014-05-12 Africa s dynamic security environment is characterized by great diversity from conventional challenges such as insurgencies resource and identity conflicts and post conflict stabilization to growing threats from piracy narcotics trafficking violent extremism and organized crime taking root in urban slums among others This precarious environment jeopardizes security at the societal community and individual levels In a globalized and interconnected world millions of people worldwide are affected by some form of human insecurity Infectious and parasitic diseases annually kill millions Internally displaced persons number millions including 5 million in Sudan alone In Zambia 1 million people in a population of 11 million are reported to be HIV positive a situation much worse in other countries Potable water crisis looms almost everywhere In this book Tatah Mentan points out the need to shift the focus away from a state centric and military strategic emphasis on security to an interdisciplinary and people centric approach that embraces notions like global citizenship empowerment and participation The primary elements of economic food health environment personal community and political security all comprise the broader understanding of human security in an intricately interconnected world

Religion, Politics and Cults in East Africa Emmanuel K. Twesigye, 2010 Religion Politics and Cults in East Africa is the first major original and extensive research based study of the apocalyptic and doomsday Catholic Marian Movement and its Benedictine monastic moral and religious practices including vows of poverty celibacy obedience daily contemplation in silence and hard work The Marian Movement is presented within the cultural historical political and religious context of the East African Revival Movement the Anglican Balokole Movement Alice Lakwena's Holy Spirit Movement Joseph Kony's Lord's Resistance Army LRA and other religio political liberation movements including the Maji Maji the Mau Mau and Nyabingi Liberation Movement The Marian Movement was locally known as Abanyabugoto and The Movement for the Restoration of the Ten Commandments of God It began in 1989 as a Catholic women's Marian devotional and moral reformation movement founded and headed by Keledonia Mwerinde Faced with African cultural patriarchy and male dominated Catholic Church hierarchy Mwerinde recruited Joseph Kibwetere and the Rev Fr Dominic Kataribabo to serve as the public face of the Marian Movement In response to Catholic hierarchy's opposition and persecution Fr Kataribabo designed a theology of ritual sacrifice atonement and martyrdoms for the devout Marian Catholics who were devotees of the Blessed Virgin Mary He martyred the Marian devotees in March 2000 in order to transform them into Mary's saints and to liberate their souls and send them to heaven where they would instantly attain eternal life lasting peace and happiness Publisher's website

The Study of Spirituality Cheslyn Jones, Geoffrey Wainwright, Edward Yarnold, 1986-12-11 Written by contributors representing the Anglican Roman Catholic Free Church and Orthodox traditions this collection examines the nature and form of individual Christian devotion throughout the centuries

Worship as Body Language E. Elochukwu Uzukwu, 1997 The body language or gestures of praise adoration contemplation ritual dance and care of the neighbor are meaningful to the ethnic group African Christians tune into these body motions to express the one Christian faith In Worship as Body Language Father Uzukwu details how the patterns of the African ritual assemblies and sacred narratives have merged with Jewish Gospel and early Church traditions to create living Christian communities and liturgies

Readings in African Traditional Religion Emele Mba Uka, 1991 This book consists of classic articles on African Traditional Religion by eminent scholars in the field It has six sections The first one deals with definitions and how the African perceives his world the second looks at ATR in terms of its academic historical western and methodological perspectives The third examines some vital elements of the theology spirituality ethics and salvific value of ATR Section four reviews the impact of ATR in its environment as it bears on family life nation building education and health Section five examines the encounter of ATR with world missionary religions like Christianity and Islam The final section which ends with a selected bibliography on the subject considers the future and the way forward for ATR The book is designed as a resource and reference material for anyone interested in the field of Religion It will also appeal to both scholars and students in the field of Religious studies Sociology of Religion Comparative study of Religions and Mission studies Studies in African Religion and Culture Udobata Onunwa,2005 Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts Teresa N. Washington,2005-06-27 Washington writes supple and thoughtful prose and creatively integrates African and African derived terminology which never distract the reader I consider Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts not only a brilliant study but also a model to be emulated Ousseyunou B Traore William Patterson University j is a Yoruba word that signifies a spiritual power of vast potential as well as the human beings who exercise that power Although both men and women can have j its owners and controllers are women the literal and cosmic Mothers who are revered as the gods of society Because of its association with female power its invisibility and profundity j is often misconstrued as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington points out in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts j is central to the Yoruba ethos and cosmology Not only does it underpin the concepts of creation and creativity but as a force of justice and retribution j is essential to social harmony and balance As Africans were forced into exile and enslavement they took j with them and continued its work of creating destroying harming and healing in the New World Washington seeks out j s subversive power of creation and re creation in a diverse range of Africana texts from both men and women from both oral and contemporary literature and across space and time She guides readers to an understanding of the symbolic methodological and spiritual issues that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism She begins with an examination of the ancient forms of j in Yoruba culture which creates a framework for innovative readings of important works by Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This rich analysis will appeal to readers of Africana literature African religion and philosophy feminist studies and comparative literature The Black Roots and White Racism of Early Pentecostalism in the USA Walter J Hollenweger,Iain MacRobert,1988-10-10 African Religion, Philosophy, and Christianity in Logos-Christ Emmanuel K. Twesigye,1996 The author demonstrates the universal reality and sound logic of the efficacious existence of God s universal salvation and God s kingdom beyond the confines of the traditional Apostolic Christian Church God s universal Agape in creation is mediated through God s eternal Word Logos Christ The creative and redemptive cosmic work of God in the Logos Christ constitutes God s universal gratuitous process of creation and recreation or redemption No human being or society is ever left out of this redemptive universal free grace of God Global Dimensions of the African Diaspora Joseph E. Harris,1993 Global Dimensions of the African Diaspora collects selected essays from the First and Second African Diaspora Institutes and other essays This revised second edition with broader geographical scope than the first edition places greater emphasis on historical and sociopolitical analysis New essays that examine the African experience and slavery in the Mediterranean the black experience in Brazil African religious retentions in Latin American countries and essays by women that focus on the experience and contributions of African women of the diaspora address significant areas omitted in the first volume
