

The Syd Field Paradigm

Legend:

Inciting Incident: sets the story in motion, usually knocks the character off balance

Pinch: concentrates the story toward the point which comes next

Plot Point: significant event that spins the action around in another direction

Plot Point I: the main character embarks on the journey and the story actually begins

Plot Point II: main crisis where it appears that all hope is lost

Climax: where the main tensions of the story are brought to their most intense point and the dramatic question answered

Midpoint: connects the halves of the Act II, often with a reversal or revelation that changes the direction of the story
