M. Meade,2018-04-17 World War II leaves most of the world in ruins Hunger and homelessness wreak havoc on past military professionals who no longer feel they have a future or direction Torn by the loss of his wife and son an American admiral searches the globe for the best pilots he can find It is more than a distraction from his grief but also a way to offer these aces a way out of the rubble He creates an air race which brings together war birds from all over the world Once enemies now competitors these madmen and women are desperate for victory Participation guarantees transportation papers a thousand bucks and travel to anywhere in the world once the race is over Details are vague but its enough for these broken souls Along the way unexpected friendships form and even love blossoms for one lucky couple There are questions among the contestants but even when their air race takes a dark turn its worth the chance at a new life The war took everything from these brave pilots now they race to get back what they lost and so much more Dew on the Grass Makoto Ueda,2004 This book sketches the life and poetry of Kobayishi Issa a major Japanese haiku poet and tries to identify the sources of his bold individualism and all embracing humanism in terms of his long and checkered carrier The Conservator ,1900 W.
