Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-14 This original study offers a timely reconsideration of the work of French philosopher Jean Fran ois Lyotard in relation to art performance and writing How can we write about art whilst acknowledging the transformation that inevitably accompanies translations of both media and temporality That is the question that persistently dogs Lyotard s own writings on art and to which this book responds through reference to artists from the recently formed canon of performance art history including the myths of seminal figures Marina Abramovic and Vito Acconci and the controlled documentation of Gina Pane s actions Through the unstable untranslatable element that Lyotard calls the figural his thought is brought to bear on attempts to write a history of performance art and to question the paradoxically prescriptive demand for rules to govern re performance Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard s writings and approach with reference to both his contemporaries including Deleuze and Kristeva and the contemporary art about which they wrote whilst arguing for the pertinence of Lyotard s provocations today The Handbook of Visual Culture Ian Heywood, Barry Sandywell, 2017-04-20 Visual culture has become one of the most dynamic fields of scholarship a reflection of how the study of human culture increasingly requires distinctively visual ways of thinking and methods of analysis Bringing together leading international scholars to assess all aspects of visual culture the Handbook aims to provide a comprehensive and authoritative overview of the subject The Handbook embraces the extraordinary range of disciplines which now engage in the study of the visual film and photography television fashion visual arts digital media geography philosophy architecture material culture sociology cultural studies and art history Throughout the Handbook is responsive to the cross disciplinary nature of many of the key questions raised in visual culture around digitization globalization cyberculture surveillance spectacle and the role of art The Handbook guides readers new to the area as well as experienced researchers into the topics issues and questions that have emerged in the study of visual culture since the start of the new millennium conveying the boldness excitement and vitality of the subject Michael Fried and Philosophy Mathew Abbott, 2018-01-29 This volume brings philosophers art historians intellectual historians and literary scholars together to argue for the philosophical significance of Michael Fried s art history and criticism It demonstrates that Fried s work on modernism artistic intention the ontology of art theatricality and anti theatricality can throw new light on problems in and beyond philosophical aesthetics Featuring an essay by Fried and articles from world leading scholars this collection engages with philosophical themes from Fried s texts and clarifies the relevance to his work of philosophers such as Ludwig Wittgenstein Stanley Cavell Morris Weitz Elizabeth Anscombe Arthur Danto George Dickie Immanuel Kant Friedrich Schiller G W F Hegel Arthur Schopenhauer Friedrich Nietzsche Denis Diderot Maurice Merleau Ponty Roland Barthes Jacques Ranciere and S ren Kierkegaard As it makes a case for the importance of Fried for philosophy this volume contributes to current

Looking Back to the Future Griselda Pollock, 2014-04-08 In this selection of recent essays Pollock insightfully engages all major areas of contemporary theory especially focusing on sexed subjectivities post colonialism and Marxist informed history In her commentary Penny Florence places Pollock's critique of modernism art history and criticism within the context of the social political and ideological developments that have taken place since the 1970s Florence recognizes in Pollock's work a critical model that moves beyond the contradictions that take place within the history of art Pollock's own essays and Florence's commentary elaborate the complexities in evaluating this prominent theorist and feminist whose work demands a capacity to sustain contradiction Media Research Marshall McLuhan, 2014-01-02 Herbert Marshall McLuhan 1911 1980 received his PhD in English literature from Cambridge University and taught in the United States and Canada. He is best known however as the founding father of media studies. McLuhan was Director of the Center for Culture and Technology at the University of Toronto. Among his ground breaking works on the psychic and social dimensions of communication technology are The Gutenberg Galaxy 1962, Understanding Media: the Extensions of Man 1964 and The Medium Is the Massage: An Inventory of Effects 1967. Michel Moos' premise is that Marshall McLuhan's importance derives from his achievements in rethinking the entire process of education and training itself, not with his popular fame as media guru and he analyzes McLuhan's work from the feedback effect; his vision continues to provide rather than from the perspective of interpreting McLuhan's pronouncements on the electronic media. Moos contrasts McLuhan's thoughts with those of such thinkers as Roland Barthes, Fredric Jameson, Friedrich Kittler, Donna Haraway and Deleuze and Guattari and renders an updated account of the effect of the mass media on our society and ourselves. The concept 'the medium is the message' is the hub around which Marshall McLuhan's explorations revolved. McLuhan's interests ranged from sixteenth century literature to twentieth century business practices. With wit and literary flair he reported the media's influence on society and on the individual. He concluded that we could not escape being transformed by the forces that are hidden deeply within the electronic telecommunications revolution of the sixties. For McLuhan, the new mediums of film, television and the emerging realm of the digital were the modern equivalent of Gutenberg's printing press.

Essays by M. McLuhan, Edited and with a Commentary by M. A. Moos. Difference / Indifference Moira Roth, Jonathan D. Katz, 2014-04-08. First Published in 1999. For the first time gathered together in book form, here are the influential writings of Moira Roth: articles, lectures and interviews on the two men who for so long embodied the very spirit of the avant garde: Marcel Duchamp and John Cage. For almost thirty years Duchamp and Cage, who seemed to live on the border of modernism and later of postmodernism, alternately have fascinated, irritated, inspired and daunted the author. Since her initial engagement with Duchamp and Cage in the early seventies, Roth increasingly focused on the work of many American artists, primarily women, only to return to Duchamp and Cage intermittently. At first they were an inspiration for her writing and teaching. However, as they transformed themselves into classical figures, she came to reconsider and re-evaluate them. This collection offers a wide variety of literary forms: analytic, diaristic, art historical and autobiographical, all of which Roth has used in her work. Collectively, these writings form the subject of compelling and unique critical exchange between Moira Roth, who holds the Trefethen Chair of Art History at Mills College, Oakland, and Jonathan D. Katz, who is Chair of the Department of Gay and Lesbian Studies at City College, San Francisco.

Practice Stan Allen, Diana Agrest, 2000. Nine essays that practicing architect Allen wrote between 1989 and 1997 and extensively reworked over the next two years, explore how the modes of representation and techniques of realization available to the architect affect the practice. Though conversant in contemporary theory and architecture history, he argues that concepts in architecture are not imported from other disciplines but emerge through the materials and procedures of architectural practice itself He includes many monochrome photographs but no index c Book News Inc

Critical Vices Nicholas Zurbrugg, Warren Burt, 2005-07-15 This book of Nicholas Zurbrugg's challenging and provocative essays charts the most exciting developments in late 20th century multimedia art Zurbrugg challenges Jean Baudrillard's Fredric Jameson's and Achille Bonito Oliva's unfavorable accounts of postmodern techno culture Interweaving literary and cultural theory and visual studies Zurbrugg demonstrates how multimedia visionaries such as Bill Viola and Robert Wilson are notable exceptions to the neutering of mass media culture bringing together the modernist and postmodern avant garde

Theory for Classics Louise Hitchcock, 2008-01-10 This student's guide is a clear and concise handbook to the key connections between Classical Studies and critical theory in the twentieth century Louise Hitchcock looks at the way Classics has been engaged across a number of disciplines Beginning with four foundational figures Freud Marx Nietzsche and Saussure Hitchcock goes on to provide guided introductions of the major theoretical thinkers of the past century from Adorno to Williams Each entry offers biographical theoretical and bibliographical information along with a discussion of each figure's relevance to Classical Studies and suggestions for future research Theory for Classics adapted from Theory for Religious Studies by William E Deal and Timothy K Beal is a brisk thoughtful provocative and engaging title which will be an essential first volume for anyone interested in the intersection between theory and classical studies today England and its Aesthetes David Carrier, 2014-01-02 First Published in 1999 John Ruskin 1819 1900 Walter Pater 1839 1894 and Adrian Stokes 1902 1972 represent three generations of English aesthetes whose writings have transformed art history and the formations of museums as we know them They are three great writers in a distinctively English tradition Concerned with the nature of aesthetic experience and with the interpretation of visual art they offer approaches that are dramatically different in challenging ways from those of professional art historians They published autobiographies explaining the relationship of their conceptions of aesthetic experience to their critical thinking about social questions With England and Its Aesthetes David Carrier has assembled the autobiographical sketches of these influential aesthetes His reading reveals them to be less concerned with art appreciation or an aesthetic approach to everyday life than with issues of identity politics and desire

Literature, Media, Information Systems Friedrich Kittler, 2013-07-04 John Johnston's background combines expertise in modern literature poststructuralist philosophy and high technology's production Like Kittler he draws on historic fact anecdote and literature From this vantage point he explicates the theoretical and practical consequences of Friedrich Kittler's insights into the social and psychological effects of the processes by which metaphor in one medium is made real by another Fieldworks Lytle Shaw, 2013-01-22 Fieldworks offers a historical account of the social rhetorical and material attempts to ground art and poetry in the physicality of a site Arguing that place oriented inquiries allowed poets and artists to develop new experimental models of historiography and ethnography Lytle Shaw draws out the shifting terms of this practice from World War II to the present through a series of illuminating case studies Beginning with the alternate national genealogies unearthed by William Carlos Williams in Paterson and Charles Olson in Gloucester Shaw demonstrates how subsequent poets sought to ground such inquiries in concrete social formations to in effect live the poetics of place Gary Snyder in his back to the land familial compound Kitkitdizze Amiri Baraka in a black nationalist community in Newark Robert Creeley and the poets of Bolinas California in the capacious now of their poet run town Turning to the work of Robert Smithson who called one of his essays an appendix to Paterson and who in turn has exerted a major influence on poets since the 1970s Shaw then traces the emergence of site specific art in relation both to the poetics of place and to the larger linguistic turn in the humanities considering poets including Clark Coolidge Bernadette Mayer and Lisa Robertson By putting the poetics of place into dialog with site specificity in art Shaw demonstrates how poets and artists became experimental explicators not just of concrete locations and their histories but of the discourses used to interpret sites more broadly It is this dual sense of fieldwork that organizes Shaw s groundbreaking history of site specific poetry Music/ideology Jean-François Lyotard,1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
