Educating Christian Teachers for Responsive Discipleship Peter P. DeBoer, 1993 Five members of the Calvin College Center for Christian Scholarship 1991 1992 team present some creative and constructive proposals for changes that could occur in the teacher education programs of hundreds of church related colleges Theoretically committed to a biblical vision of responsive discipleship the authors sketch out 1 a curricular theory that encourages many sided encounters with created reality which stimulate varieties of student responses that should arise ultimately from a commitment of the heart 2 a collaborative model of teacher education that urges congruent values to be held by the local school school district and the teacher education college and 3 a curriculum that arises in part out of the laboratory of the classroom through the interaction of teacher and student in a school organized to develop collegiality among teachers and students where through the use of evaluative portfolios student teachers learn to be reflective practitioners of the art and craft of teaching Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies

Naturalism Without Foundations Kai Nielsen, 1996 This volume considers in depth and carefully a cluster of issues central to contemporary philosophical and social scientific investigation while utilizing methods and conceptualizations at the very cutting edge of philosophy

Starting With Foucault C. G. Prado, 2018-03-05 Michel Foucault had a great influence upon a wide range of disciplines and his work has been widely interpreted and is frequently referred to but it is often difficult for beginners to find their way into the complexities of his thought This is especially true for readers whose background is Anglo American or analytic philosophy C G Prado argues in this updated introduction that the time is overdue for Anglo American philosophers to avail themselves of what Foucault offers In this clear and greatly revised second edition Prado focuses on Foucault s middle or genealogical work particularly Discipline and Punish and Volume One of The History of Sexuality in which Foucault most clearly comes to grips with the historicization of truth and knowledge and the formation of subjectivity Understanding Foucault s thought on these difficult subjects requires working through much complexity and ambiguity and Prado s direct and accessible introduction is the ideal place to start Shattering Silos Lambert Zuidervaart,2022-08-15 Questions first raised by Hannah Arendt in the 1960s take on new urgency in the post truth era as political leaders blithely reject facts in the public domain Is truth politically impotent Are politics inherently false Is the search for truth still relevant Shattering Silos a companion volume to Religion Truth and Social Transformation and Art Education and Cultural Renewal provides a path breaking response As in his two previous books Lambert Zuidervaart challenges the boundaries philosophers set up between epistemology ethics and political philosophy Knowledge he argues takes different forms in various social domains and all are subject to political struggle A critique of contemporary society must draw on many social domains of knowledge including the arts and religion and should recast politics as a striving for truth in the broadest sense Proposing a new conception of truth one that emphasizes the unity of knowledge and truth as well as their diversity among different social domains Zuidervaart asks what such holism and pluralism suggest about how we understand politics and society This book proposes a new understanding of large scale social change challenging how most people think about knowledge and truth Interweaving epistemology social criticism and political thought Shattering Silos aims to help redirect an allegedly post truth society Religion, Truth, and Social Transformation Lambert Zuidervaart,2016-03-29 A lucid introduction to a living philosophical tradition and a creative contribution to change oriented scholarship Naturalism and Religion Kai Nielsen,2011-04-29 This elucidation and defense of naturalism argues that an uncompromising secular orientation is the best framework for the search for meaning and interprets religion in purely naturalistic terms Part One seeks to demonstrate that religious symbols arise from facts about human beings and the societies in which they live specifically our needs fears and aspirations Part Two examines arguments for and against naturalism including the defenses of naturalism by Sidney Hook Ernest Nagel Antony Flew and critical reactions to their views The forceful and rigorously analytical case made by Jean Hampton against naturalism is also examined resulting in a clarification of the substantial and sound methodological grounds for naturalism and atheism Part Three considers the strongest intellectual challenge to secularism and naturalism namely that of Ludwig Wittgenstein and some of his followers Norman Malcolm D Z Phillips Hilary Putnam Rush Rhees and Peter Winch Nielsen concludes that none of these critiques diminish the cogency and viability of naturalism as the most reasonable basis for viewing our world today Abraham Kuyper James D. Bratt,2013-05 This is the first full scale English language biography of the highly influential and astonishingly multifaceted Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 theologian minister politician newspaper editor educational innovator Calvinist reformer and prime minister of the Netherlands from 1901 to 1905 James Bratt is the ideal scholar to tell the story of Kuyper's remarkable life and work He expertly traces the origin and development of Kuyper's signature concepts common grace Christian worldview sphere sovereignty Christian engagement with contemporary culture in the dynamic context of his life's story

Icons of Unbelief S. T. Joshi, 2008-10-30 Discusses the ideas and impact of 27 atheists agnostics and secularists whose ideas have shaped society over the last 200 years In the opinion of many critics and philosophers we are entering an age of atheism marked by the waning of Christian fundamentalism and the flourishing of secular thought Through alphabetically arranged entries written by expert contributors this book profiles 27 iconic figures of unbelief whose ideas have shaped American society over the last 200 years Included are entries on influential figures of the past such as Albert Einstein and Voltaire as well as on such contemporary figures as Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of each person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and illuminating quotations and cites works for further reading The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Students in social studies and history classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the ideas central to the American separation of Church and State and to many of the political debates at the heart of society today Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of the person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and quotations and closes with a list of works for further reading The volume ends with a selected general bibliography Students in history and social studies classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the American separation of Church and State and to the ideas central to contemporary political debates

In the Phrygian Mode Robert Sweetman, 2007 This volume has emerged from a small scholarly conference on the relationship between Christianity and Greco Roman civilization above all that civilization's characteristic patterns of philosophical thought The field of investigation is the neo Calvinist current within Dutch protestantism and the elaboration in the 1920s and 1930s of Calvinistic philosophy as one of its most distinctive effects this parish tale has more to recommend it than might appear at first blush For there is a good argument to be made why such a thoroughly local study can benefit a much broader segment of contemporary Protestantism

Towards an Ethics of Community James Olthuis, 2006-01-01 How do we deal with difference personally interpersonally nationally Can we weave a cohesive social fabric in a religiously plural society without suppressing differences This collection of significant essays suggests that to truly honour differences in matters of faith and religion we must publicly exercise and celebrate them The secular sacred public private divisions long considered sacred in the West need to be dismantled if Canada or any nation state is to develop a genuine mosaic that embraces fundamental differences instead of a melting pot that marginalizes An ethics of difference starts with a recognition of difference not as deviance or deficit that threatens but as otherness to connect with cherish and celebrate The book begins with the suggestion that our inability to come to terms with social plurality is not fundamentally the fault of religious differences and that a public private split inadequately deals with matters of basic difference It then explores how encouraging people to live out their respective faiths may open new possibilities for respectful honourable and just negotiations of contemporary dilemmas arising out of the multicultural fabric of Canadian life Towards an Ethics of Community introduces readers to some of the most challenging and divisive dilemmas we face in this increasingly pluralistic postmodern world issues such as family and domestic violence Aboriginal rights homosexuality and public policy and female genital mutilation This is a book truly global in scope and significance South African Journal of Philosophy ,1992 Why Am I Still a Christian? Joseph A. Buijs,2021-03-12

Why am I a Christian Why is anyone a Christian or remain a Christian These questions can readily occur in our increasingly secular environment A prevalent mind set suggests that there is no point to being Christian that it is a cultural remnant of our upbringing a belief system out of step with enlightened thinking a moral code at odds with contemporary society Does it then still make sense to adhere to a Christian tradition Is it reasonable to be and remain Christian when atheistic criticisms imply otherwise A philosophical excursion explores these questions under the headings of Tradition Reason and Faith It critically discusses the what and the why of being Christian It differentiates explaining how we may have acquired faith and Christian commitment from justifying why it may nevertheless be reasonable to have faith and to remain Christian A personal narrative shows how approaches to these questions changed over the course of the authors personal life and academic career teaching philosophy Why am I or why is anyone a Christian Because as the author concludes it can be a reasonable choice to adopt and retain a Christian faith commitment
