National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins,2006-11-01 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century Jenkins book focuses on what made the subsequent literature essentially South African and what aspects of the country and its society authors concentrated on What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Another exceptional feature is that the book follows the author's previous work in placing children's literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history e g cinema He also makes enlightening comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children's literature Search Graves for Ghosts Nan Tang,2019-12-13 I am a corpse sealer a profession known in the profession as the Ergonomist In this line of work there were corpses that were raped humiliated and frequently happened That day a plump and naked female corpse was brought to me Little Yellow Book Of Poetry Arpit Parashar,2019-09-17 The poetry book which probably you would have never read before Little yellow book of poetry is a collection of 101 marvelous poems taking you to the journey of life events conversations conclusions and happenings marked by the author's eye which reveals the lines left unsaid and unwritten Words revealing faces and shapes of all the vibes and languages of the wind kissed slapped his face by introducing all the daffodils and thrones came across his way A ride to the deep and enigmatic world which can only be felt but cannot be viewed from the writings of a philosopher to the romanticism of a Romeo The book is waiting to spread its fragrance of poetry to give you a sensation of nocturnal nostalgia to the freshness of morning This book is a pictorial witness of all the places where this project was scripted in the poet's shadow and soul The book is ready to take you on a poetic journey where every abstract character is not only expressed itself but intimated as well The book is smeared with the stains of poetry which depicts the story of all the leaves which were once concerned by those who passed near them The book shows how life is beautiful not only when you chase but also when you stop for a while and touch an old tree which gave you shelter when you were busy in chasing Now take a deep breath and forget all your worries and bothers Stop being practical for a while and step into the invisible world of woods Herald and Presbyter ,1894 The Delineator R.
