The Lost Civilization Enigma Philip Coppens,2012-10-22 An examination of archaeological controversies with arguments showing evidence of prehistoric civilizations not recorded as part of human history Are history books giving us the whole story Or is civilization far more complex and older than we have been taught Our school textbooks barely mention the 6 000 year old Sumerian civilization yet the latest archaeological findings at sites such as Jericho and most recently Gobekli Tepe in Turkey have been dated to 10 000 BC Civilization goes back at least another 10 000 years if we are willing to believe what our ancestors themselves claimed The Lost Civilization Enigma reveals the truth about Lost magnitudes to known cultures such as the Bosnian Pyramids and the civilization of Old Europe The fabled lost golden cities of South America and the Amazon which are slowly being rediscovered Fascinating examples of lost technology such as the Antikythera Device Atlantis and the fact that it was a real civilization Analyzing the historical and archaeological record best selling author Philip Coppens demonstrates that there is substantial evidence that civilization is far older far more advanced and far more special than is currently accepted Clearly our history books have left out a great deal

Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo,2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkoni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author's texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkoni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain

Libyan Novel Olszok Charis Olszok, 2020-06-18 Analysing prominent novelists such as Ibrahim al Kuni and Hisham Matar alongside lesser known and emerging voices this book introduces the themes and genres of the Libyan novel during the al Qadhafi era Exploring latent political protest and environmental lament in the writing of novelists in exile and in the Jamahiriyya Charis Olszok focuses on the prominence of encounters between humans animals and the land the poetics of vulnerability that emerge from them and the vision of humans as creatures makhluqat in which they are framed

Climate: Present, Past and Future (Routledge Revivals) H. H. Lamb, 2013-09-05 First published in 1977 the second volume of Climate Present Past and Future covers parts 3 and 4 of Professor Hubert Lamb's seminal and pioneering study of climatology Part 3 provides a survey of evidence of types of climates over the last million years and of methods of dating that evidence Through the earlier stages of the Earth's development the book traces what is known of the various geographies presented by the drifting continents and indicates what can be learnt about climatic regimes and the causes of climatic change From the last ice age to the present our knowledge of the succession of climates is summarized indicating prevailing temperatures rainfalls wind and ocean current patterns where possible Part 4 considers events during the fifteen years prior to the book's initial publication leading on to the problems of estimating the most probable future course of climatic development and the influence of Man's activities on climate Alongside the reissue of volume 1 this Routledge Revival will be essential reading for anyone interested in both the causes and workings of climate and in the history of climatology itself

Animals as Domesticates Juliet Clutton-Brock, 2012-01-01 Drawing on the latest research in archaeozoology archaeology and molecular biology Animals as Domesticates traces the history of the domestication of animals around the world From the llamas of South America and the turkeys of North America to the cattle of India and the Australian dingo this fascinating book explores the history of the complex relationships between humans and their domestic animals With expert insight into the biological and cultural processes of domestication Clutton Brock suggests how the human instinct for nurturing may have transformed relationships between predator and prey and she explains how animals have become companions livestock and laborers The changing face of domestication is traced from the spread of the earliest livestock around the Neolithic Old World through ancient Egypt the Greek and Roman empires South East Asia and up to the modern industrial age

In the Shadow of Slavery Judith Carney, 2011-02-01 The transatlantic slave trade forced millions of Africans into bondage Until the early nineteenth century African slaves came to the Americas in greater numbers than Europeans In the Shadow of Slavery provides a startling new assessment of the Atlantic slave trade and upends conventional wisdom by shifting attention from the crops slaves were forced to produce to the foods they planted for their own nourishment Many familiar foods millet sorghum coffee okra watermelon and the Asian long bean for example are native to Africa while commercial products such as Coca Cola Worcestershire Sauce and Palmolive Soap rely on African plants that were brought to the Americas on slave ships as provisions medicines cordage and bedding In this exciting original and groundbreaking book Judith A Carney and Richard Nicholas Rosomoff draw on archaeological records oral histories and the accounts of slave ship captains to show how slaves food plots botanical gardens of the dispossessed became the incubators of African survival in the Americas and Africanized the foodways of plantation societies

Lost Cities & Ancient Mysteries of Africa & Arabia David Hatcher Childress, 1989 Join Childress as he discovers forbidden cities in the Empty Quarter of Arabia Atlantean ruins in Egypt and the Kalahari desert a mysterious ancient empire in the Sahara and more This is an extraordinary life on the road across war torn countries Childress searches for King Solomon s Mines living dinosaurs the Ark of the Covenant and the solutions to the fantastic mysteries of the past

Before the Flood Ian Wilson, 2014-04-01 In the six hundredth year of Noah s life in the second month the seventeenth day of the month the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights The great Biblical flood so described in Genesis has long been a subject of fascination and speculation In the 19th century the English archbishop James Ussher established it as having happened in the year 2348 B C calculating what was then taken as the age of the earth and working backward through the entire series of Biblical begats Proof of the flood which is an element of so many creation myths began in earnest when archaeology started connecting physical evidence with Biblical story The dream of proving the Bible as literal truth has proven irresistible producing both spurious claims and serious scholarship As best selling historian Ian Wilson reveals in this fascinating new book evidence of a catastrophic event has been building steadily culminating in the work of William Ryan and Walter Pitman Several years ago Ryan and Pitman had posited that around 5600 BC there had an inundation in the Black Sea of such proportions that it turned the freshwater lake into a saltwater lake by connecting it to the Mediterranean Were that true they estimated that there would be signs of civilization 300 feet below the surface of the Black Sea In September 2000 using his famous underwater equipment Robert Ballard of SS Titanic fame explored parts of the Black Sea near the Turkish shore and found the remains of wood houses There had been a flood and whether God s wrath or not it had destroyed everything around it for hundreds of miles killing tens of thousands of people Exploring all the archeological evidence Wilson explains how the Black Sea flood and the Biblical flood have to be connected In particular Wilson argues learnedly and persuasively that the center of the civilized world was further to the West than previously thought not in Egypt or Mesopotamia but in what is today Northern Turkey The earliest antediluvian civilizations may have migrated east into those places we have come to call the cradles of civilization forced by the Black Sea flood to create new settlements Scrupulous in its details and compelling in its sweep Before the Flood is narrative detective history at its most provocative contributing a vital new chapter to the debate about the Bible and origins of the modern world

Ancient Astronauts, Cosmic Collisions William H. Stiebing, 2010-06-03 Controversial archaeological and astronomical discoveries have been the subject of countless news stories best selling books movies and television programs Promoted but seldom critically evaluated are the theories that markings in the desert of Peru are the remains of an ancient airfield used by space visitors that the Great Pyramid of Giza in Egypt exhibits advanced technology unknown to the ancient Egyptians and that there were near collisions between planets of our solar system in historical times This book critically evaluates many of these popular hypotheses about man's early history It presents the most important evidence and arguments for and against theories of a universal flood the lost continent of Atlantis mysterious pyramid powers pre Columbian voyages to America by ancient Egyptians and Phoenicians and Velikovsky's cosmic catastrophism Professor Stiebing stresses the need for careful and objective analysis of the evidence used to support radical reconstructions of the past The book discusses radio carbon dating archaeological stratigraphy textual interpretation and epigraphy as well as emphasis on the proper use of data provided by geology astronomy and other sciences It is written in non technical language and will appeal to a wide audience

Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East John A. Shoup, 2011-10-17 This encyclopedia is an essential guide to the different ethno linguistic groups in Africa and today's complicated Middle East region Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East contains encyclopedic entries arranged alphabetically within ethno linguistic classifications Each entry has four main sections an introduction identifying the language group where they are found and their numbers a brief discussion of their origins and early history a section on cultural life that includes religion literature social organization and art and a final section on political organization and recent history The contents are appropriate for high school and undergraduate students as well as for experts who need a refresher on groups in Africa and the Middle East While certain ethnic groups have been combined into a single entry some such as the Tuareg who are a Berber people are described within their own entries because of their importance in history or cultural domination

A Many-Colored Glass Freeman J. Dyson, 2010-02-03 Freeman Dyson's latest book does not attempt to bring together all of the celebrated physicist's thoughts on science and technology into a unified theory The emphasis is instead on the myriad ways in which the universe presents itself to us and how as observers and participants in its processes we respond to it Life like a dome of many colored glass wrote Percy Bysshe Shelley stains the white radiance of eternity The author seeks here to explore the variety that gives life its beauty Taken from Dyson's recent public lectures delivered to audiences with no specialized knowledge in hard sciences the book begins with a consideration of the practical and political questions surrounding biotechnology As he seeks how best to explain the place of life in the universe Dyson then moves from the ethical to the purely scientific The book concludes with an attempt to understand the implications of biology for philosophy and religion The pieces in this collection touch on numerous disciplines from astronomy and ecology to neurology and theology speaking to the lay reader as well as to the scientist As always Dyson s view of human nature and behavior is balanced and his predictions of a world to come serve primarily as a means for thinking about the world as it is today

Africa in the Iron Age Roland Anthony Oliver,Brian M. Fagan,1975-10-29 A textbook providing the only comprehensive and up to date account of African history between 500 B C and 1400 A D Also useful to students of archaeology

Mystery in Acambaro Charles H. Hapgood,1999-12 The Acambaro collection comprises hundreds of clay figurines that are apparently thousands of years old however they depict such bizarre animals and scenes that most archaeologists dismiss them as an elaborate hoax The collection shows humans interacting with dinosaurs and various other monsters such as horned men Both Hapgood and Earl Stanley Gardner were convinced that the figurines from Acambaro were authentic ancient artifacts that indicated that men and dinosaurs had cohabited together in the recent past and that dinosaurs had not become extinct many millions of years ago as commonly thought David Hatcher Childress writes a lengthy introduction concerning Acambaro the latest testing and other evidence of living dinosaurs
