A Search for Enemies Ted Galen Carpenter,1992 The passing of the Cold War is the most important development of the late 20th century yet the United States clings tenaciously to old policies Both the Bush administration and Democratic leaders have insisted on perpetuating a host of obsolete alliances including NATO and the alliance with Japan which cost American taxpayers nearly 150 billion a year Ted Galen Carpenter director of foreign policy studies at the Cato Institute offers a provocative critique of that status quo strategy Although Washington s outdated alliances have no real adversary or credible mission Carpenter says they hold the potential to embroil the United States in obscure conflicts ethnic and otherwise that have little relevance to America s legitimate security concerns As an alternative he proposes strategic independence under which the United States would act only to defend vital interests the republic s physical integrity political independence or domestic liberty Carpenter calls for the foreign policy equivalent of zero based budgeting insisting that because of the dramatic changes in the world caused by the collapse of the Soviet Union all alliances must be justified anew regardless of any utility they may have had during the Cold War He places under the microscope America s multilateral treaty obligations to defend other nations NATO ANZUS which links the United States Australia and New Zealand and the Rio Treaty which provides a collective defense arrangement for the Western Hemisphere He also examines four important bilateral security agreements with Japan South Korea the Philippines and Pakistan This is the book on a new foreign policy for the United States

The Search for Mother Missing Janine Vance, Can't travel yet Let's go to Korea In this contemporary tale detailing a two week trip that explores intercountry adoption from South Korea twin sisters naively travel to their birth city of Seoul in search of their Korean family Little incidents along the way serve as a catalyst leading them into a worldwide modern day adoptee rights movement seeking truth and transparency The intent of this book is to inspire and uplift anyone who has been removed from their birth family to know that there is a community of like minded individuals who've experienced the same circumstances Seeking Christ David A Jamadar, 2022-02-03 This book describes a three to four year period of my many mundane and ordinary interactions through the Holy Spirit interspersed with infrequent dramatic and life changing encounters such as being a conduit for healing For most of these testimonies I have tried to explain what I learned from the experience if anything I have also introduced some discussion about ideas that I have had trouble grasping such as how we as Christians should pray and fast I have also included some probably nontraditional views of mainstream Christianity including an understanding of sin and repentance with the hope that the reader may embrace the option of engaging a different perspective A different perspective does not necessarily mean agreement but rather the willingness to accept that God's ways and understanding of the universe are probably a little different from our own ideas of what we believe are the ways of our Holy Father I use scripture to support my understanding and to a lesser extent my testimonies as best I can I suspect that the scope of the material within is somewhat limited as I look primarily at healing peace prayer demonic influences and my experiences of moving into a non egoic understanding of God My overall approach is not academic but is generally experiential and in places feels almost conversational In the chapter on Prayer however it is primarily didactic I have come to believe that relationship with God through surrender is one way that we may get a glimpse of what it means to live an inclusive Christian life a life from the perspective of love
