Karate is one of the most effective forms of self defense but it is this area that is most ignored in traditional Shotokan dojos. This modest manual is different from most Shotokan Karate texts because it focuses on the self defense application of karate. Traditional Shotokan karate concentrates on three primary areas. They are basics or Kihon, Kata or forms and sparring or kumite. The sparring may consist of five times sparring, three times sparring, one time sparring, semi free sparring and free sparring. Self defense training is seldom practiced and this manual hopes to fill that gap for students of Shotokan and other traditional styles of Karate. This manual covers the basic principles of self defense, use of force, factors in self defense, simple and effective self defense techniques to counter arm grabs, body grabs, choke attacks, punching and kicking attack counters, club attacks, knife attacks, gun attacks, ground attacks and multiple attacker self defense techniques. The Samurai Soul Joseph J. Truncale, 2013-07. This is the sixth published poetry collection by the author and the third book published by PublishAmerica. It is also the largest with more than 130 poems. Like the Season of the Warrior, A Poetic tribute to warriors, the main theme in this book has to do with living the way of the warrior. However, there are numerous other topics covered in this comprehensive poetry collection. A lifetime of experience and emotions went into this collection and it is hoped those reading this book will enjoy and relate to the many thoughts contained in the poems. As one ages and matures, one realizes their own mortality and there are many poems that deal with the changes in life. Most of us experience. To the author, poetry should tell a clear and brief story that the reader can understand and possibly relate to their own life. Most of the poems are short and to the point, which I hope is enjoyed by the reader. This poetic tribute is to the one thing in common with all living creatures, which is life and death. Warrior Poems Steven A. Brunet, 2010-04. Warrior Poems is a collection of poems that attempt to capture and express the feelings and emotions of history's most complex people, warriors. It includes vivid poems of brutal warriors who fight for gold and plunder for ancient gods for honour in death or simply for the love of bloodshed. The direct and brutal nature of these poems will fulfill a longing for readers who desire material that is both unique and alive with the adventure of history. The Party Family Kimberley Ens Manning, 2023-08-15. Co-winner of the Canadian Political Science Association Prize in Comparative Politics of the Canadian Political Science Association. The Party Family explores the formation and consolidation of the state in revolutionary China through the crucial role that social ties, specifically family ties, played in the state's capacity to respond to crisis before and after the foundation of the People's Republic of China. Central to these ties, Kimberley Ens Manning finds, were women as both the subjects and leaders of reform. Drawing on interviews with 163 participants in the provinces of Henan and Jiangsu, as well as government documents and elite memoirs, biographies, speeches and reports, Manning offers a new theoretical lens, attachment politics, to underscore how family and ideology intertwined to create an important building block of state capacity and governance. As The Party Family details infant mortality in China dropped by more than half within a decade of the PRC's foundation, a policy achievement produced to a large extent through the personal and family ties of the maternalist policy coalition that led the reform movement. However, these achievements were undermined or reversed in the complex policy struggles over the family during Mao's Great Leap Forward 1958-60
