Spirituality in Season Ross Thompson,2008-12-04 We are used to making Lent a special time for renewal but much less has been written on the other seasons of the year This resource explores the traditions that have shaped each season the lectionary readings and the liturgies observed across the ecumenical spectrum New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt,Diann L. Neu,2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity. Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this. Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic, inclusive and justice focused ways. From the Introduction, Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice. From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers, Christian worship will never be the same. Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations. The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity. They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world. Taken together, their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship. Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions, Scriptural Insights, Ethical Agendas, Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers, Ministerial Challenges.

Living the Season Ji Hyang Padma, 2013-09-09. As the Rig Vedas and Buddhist sutras foretell, as well as the Hopi and Mayan calendars, we are in the midst of complete transformation: ecologically, economically, politically, culturally. This graceful introduction offers creative safe passage through the sometimes overwhelming transition, drawing on ancient and contemporary spiritual practices, particularly useful for these times. The endings we experience are always the beginning of something else. Hence, author Ji Hyang Padma organizes teachings around the four seasons. In living connected to natural rhythms, the stillness of winter, the renewal of spring, the ripening of summer, the harvest of autumn, we touch a wholeness that is the source of healing and happiness. Practical exercises at the end of each chapter promote this state of being and bring the mind home to its innate clarity. Ideally suited to anyone experiencing personal change through career relationships or world events, the book provides a way into Zen for beginners as well as a refresher for the more advanced. Ecstasy and Intimacy Edith M. Humphrey, 2005-12-13. Foreword by Eugene H. Peterson. Countering the generic spirituality so popular today, Edith Humphrey presents an authentic Christian spirituality that draws on Scripture and the profound riches of the Christian tradition. Orthodox, Catholic and Protestant, Humphrey shows how Christian spirituality is rooted in the Trinity, in the ecstasy going out of oneself and intimacy, profound closeness with another, marking the relations between Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The book embodies a banquet of excerpts from the greatest spiritual writers in history, such luminaries as St. Augustine, St. John Chrysostom, Julian of Norwich, St. Teresa of Avila, the Wesley brothers, Thomas Merton and Alexander Schmemmann. Humphrey's elegant prose, laced with stories and images from her own life, beautifully uncovers the ways in which God's trinitarian life informs all human communion. Each chapter ends with questions for further reflection and discussion. The Esoteric Dream Book Dayna Winters, Patricia Gardner, Angela Kaufman, 2014-08-28. Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger, 1999 The richness of recent research on women's worship gives witness to the scholarly interest in its contemporary practice reflection and construction On the other hand feminist scholarship has had little impact on liturgical historiography In Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger reconstructs liturgical history from the perspectives of women She shows that the invisibility of women in the traditional liturgical narrative draws into question the credibility of that narrative especially at a time when research into women's history has unearthed much material relevant to women's liturgical lives Berger focuses on thirteen key interpretative principles that guide the reconstruction of women at worship from a re configuration of the canon of sources and a re Visioning of liturgical periodization to re interpretation of anthropological basics and of liturgical texts On the basis of these principles she analyzes liturgical dynamics in two time periods crucial to the history of women at worship the early centuries of the Christian Church and the twentieth century liturgical renewal Within the twentieth century liturgical renewal Berger focuses on two specific foci of renewal the classical liturgical movement of the first half of the century and as a case of history in the making the women's liturgical movement of the present day Women's Ways of Worship narrates both past and present liturgical developments from the perspectives of women's lives heeding such dynamics as the genderization of liturgical space women specific liturgical taboos gender specific devotional practices and the emergence of feminist liturgies An epilogue confronts the question of a future liturgy beyond gender Convinced that reconstructing the history of women at worship will offer a new Vision of the place of the women's liturgical movement within liturgical history as a whole Berger puts this movement on a continuum of women at worship which is a continuum of struggle against the historic marginalization of women in most liturgical contexts As this struggle has come to the forefront today Women's Ways of Worship provides a context for change with women themselves being agents of both the questioning and the transformation Chapters are Reconstructing Women's Ways of Worship In Search of Methodological Principles Liturgical History Re Constructed I Early Christian Women at Worship Liturgical History Re Constructed II Women in the Twentieth Century Liturgical Movement and Liturgical History in the Making The Women's Liturgical Movement Teresa Berger is associate professor of Ecumenical Theology at the Divinity School of Duke University Durham North Carolina She is the author of numerous books and contributor to a variety of journals including Worship published by The Liturgical Press

Fantasies of Gender and the Witch in Feminist Theory and Literature Justyna Sempruch, 2008-03-01 In Fantasies of Gender and the Witch in Feminist Theory and Literature Justyna Sempruch analyzes contemporary representations of the witch as a locus for the cultural negotiation of genders Sempruch revisits some of the most prominent traits in past and current perceptions in feminist scholarship of exclusion and difference She examines a selection of twentieth century US American Canadian and European narratives to reveal the continued political relevance of metaphors sustained in the archetype of the witch widely thought to belong to pop cultural or folkloristic formulations of the past Through a critical rereading of the feminist texts engaging with these metaphors Sempruch develops a new concept of the witch one that challenges traditional gender biased theories linking it either to a malevolent hag on the margins of culture or to unrestrained feminine sexual desire Sempruch turns instead to the causes for radical feminist critique of feminine sexuality as a fabrication of logocentric thinking and shows that the problematic conversion of the hag into a superwoman can be interpreted today as a therapeutic performance translating fixed identity into a site of continuous negotiation of the subject in process Tracing the development of feminist constructs of the witch from 1970s radical texts to the present Sempruch explores the early psychoanalytical writings of Cixous Kristeva and Irigaray and feminist reformulations of identity by Butler and Braidotti with fictional texts from different political and cultural contexts
