On Green Dolphin Street Sebastian Faulks, 2014-09-03 Focusing on a richly significant time in our recent past Sebastian Faulks the bestselling author of Birdsong and Charlotte Gray has written his first novel set in America The year is 1960 a fascinating moment of transition in our country when the comfortable Eisenhower years were drawing to a close and the ruthlessly competitive Nixon Kennedy presidential campaign signaled the beginning of a starkly different decade Mary van der Linden has recently moved from London to Washington D C with her two children and her loving admired husband Charlie who is posted to the British Embassy Nearly forty Mary has spent a lifetime as a loyal daughter wife and mother But in this year of so much change she feels compelled to break away from her familiar world and is drawn to the freedom of New York City which is effervescent with parties jazz three martini lunches girls in their summer dresses and men in their Sinatra hats and big ties Greenwich Village is still charmingly bohemian and Miles Davis s hit tune On Green Dolphin Street is playing everywhere Mary finds a hotel room in New York and then finds a lover while back in Washington her husband drinks to forget the demands of his job the absence of his wife and the Cold War paranoia that has overtaken the capital Faulks breaks new ground with this novel It is a love story not a war story and it is set in America rather than France Yet readers of his two previous bestselling novels will recognize the close focus of the historical setting the unforgettable characters and the gathering emotional power of the narrative On Green Dolphin Street is a dramatic tremendously moving novel that is certain to extend the American audience for this prodigiously talented author s work

Charlotte Gray Sebastian Faulks, 2014-09-03 Faulks's first novel since the extraordinary success of Birdsong is written with the same passion power and breadth of vision Set in England and France during the darkest days of World War II Charlotte Gray like Birdsong depicts a complex love affair that is both shaped and thwarted by war It is 1942 London is blacked out but France is under a greater darkness as the occupying Nazi forces encroach ever closer in a tense waiting game Charlotte Gray a volatile but determined young woman travels south from Edinburgh Working in London she has a brief but intense love affair with an RAF pilot When his plane is lost over France she contrives to go there herself to work in the Resistance and to search for him but then is unwilling to leave as she finds that the struggle for the country's fate is intimately linked to her own battle to take control of her life Faulks's novel is an examination of lost paradises politics without belief the limits of memory the redemptive power of art and the existence of hope beyond reason It is also a brilliant evocation of life in Occupied France and more significantly a revelation of the appalling price many Frenchmen paid to survive in unoccupied so called Free France As the men women and children of Charlotte's small town prepare to meet their terrible destiny the truth of what took place in wartime France is finally exposed When private lives and public events fatally collide the roots of the characters' lives are torn up and exposed These harrowing scenes are presented with the passion and narrative force that readers will recall from Birdsong Charlotte Gray will attract even more readers to Faulks's remarkable fiction
