François Debrix, Cynthia Weber

Sebastiao Salgado An Uncertain Grace:

An Uncertain Grace Sebastião Salgado, Eduardo Galeano, Fred Ritchin, 2004 From a Brazilian mine where 50 000 mud covered men haul heavy bags of dirt up and down slippery ladders in search of a stray nugget of gold to a former lake in western Africa now swallowed by the encroaching desert where emaciated starving people walk over its surface of sand photographer Sebastião Salgado explores the lives of the planet's often ignored people with a critical eye and an empathetic heart

Sebastião Salgado: An Uncertain Grace (Signed Edition) Sebastião Salgado, Fred Ritchin, Eduardo Galeano, 2005-06 A world renowned photographer's powerful empathetic troubling vision of people struggling against difficult odds while maintaining the dignity and sense of self that define the very roots of human existence Mother Jones Magazine, 1991-01 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues

Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism Ted Nannicelli, 2020 Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood namely that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work The book pioneers an innovative production oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art one that will provide a refined philosophical account of this important topic as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism

Rituals of Mediation François Debrix, Cynthia Weber, 2003 A timely consideration of the meaning of transnational cultural interactions today In an era of increasing globalization the cultural and the international have borders as permeable as most nations and an understanding of one requires making sense of the other Foregrounding the role of mediation understood here as a site of representation transformation and pluralization the authors engage two specific questions How might we make theoretical and practical sense of transnational cultural interactions And how are we to understand the ways in which the sites of mediation represent transform and remediate internationals Accordingly the authors consider international issues like security development political activism and the war against terrorism through the lens of cultural practices such as traveling through airports exhibiting art and photography logging on to the Internet and spinning news stories

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms

Democracy in Crisis Stella Gaon,2009 This volume explores the political implications of violence and alterity radical difference for the very practice of democracy and reformulates the possibility of community that democracy is said to imply Most significantly contributors intervene in traditional democratic theory by boldly contesting the widely held assumption that increased inclusion tolerance and cultural recognition are democracy's sufficient conditions Rather than simply inquiring how best to expand the demos they investigate how claims to self determination identity and sovereignty are a problem for democracy and how paradoxically alterity may be its greatest strength Drawing largely on the Left continental tradition contributions include an appeal to the tension between fear and love in the face of anti-Semitism in Poland an injunction to rethink the identity difference binary that dominates liberal democratic thought a critique of the canonical democratic we and a call for an ethics and a politics of dissensus in democratic struggles against racist and sexist oppression The authors thus mobilize some of the most powerful critical insights emerging across the social sciences and humanities from anthropology critical legal studies critical race theory and post colonial studies Marxism psychoanalysis social and political thought philosophy and sociology to reconsider the meaning and possibility of democracy in the face of its contemporary crisis The book directly appeal to students and scholars interested in cutting edge critical reflection on the empirical phenomenon of increased violence in the West provoked by radical difference and on the possibility of radical political theoretical critique Conferment speeches Martin Schult,2019 Illuminations Liz Heron,Val

Williams,2021-04-26 This selection of women's writings on photography proposes a new and different history demonstrating the ways in which women's perspectives have advanced photographic criticism over 150 years focusing it more deeply and with the advent of feminist approaches increasingly challenging its orthodoxies Included in the book are Rosalind Krauss Ingrid Sischy Vicki Goldberg and Carol Squiers Between the Eyes David Levi Strauss,2003 David Levi Strauss is a writer whose visual and intellectual sensibilities are both acute and expansive His trenchant writings on photography and photographers have been collected for this volume from a broad range of magazines including Aperture Artforum and The Nation In Between the Eyes Essays on Photography and Politics Strauss tackles subjects as diverse as Photography and Propaganda the imagery of dreams Sebastiao Salgado's epic social documents and the deeply personal photographic revelations of Francesca Woodman The timely issue of photographic legitimacy is addressed in the essay Photography and Belief and in The Highest Degree of Illusion Strauss discusses the media frenzy surrounding the events of September 11 As our world is shaped more and more by images and their slipperiness what he calls a media pandemonium in its root meaning of the place of all howling demons we need a mind and voice like Levi Strauss to bring clarity to our vision Creative

Camera ,1992 Outside the Dream ,1991 Depicts the dangers children face from poverty drugs and violence Documentary photography at its most affecting Outside the dream rivets attention on one of our most urgent social problems the more than 12 million children of poverty adrift in an affluent society From 1984 1989 photographer Stephen Shames devoted himself to a major photographic study which chronicles the lives of the one out of five children in the United States who live in poverty While documenting the plight of children living below the poverty line Shames intimately experience daily existence in welfare hotels and abandoned buildings he documented children living in cars seeking shelter in churches and struggling to survive without electricity or water Shames extraordinary eye bears witness to the heartbreaking and the heroic the children who are too tired or ashamed to go to school and the love which binds families together even in the worst of situations The photographs which comprise Outside the dream evoke the unflinching emotional commitment of Jacob Riis
