Loretta Lux:

Loretta Lux Wim van Sinderen,2004 Loretta Lux Loretta Lux,Stefan Schmid,2000 Loretta Lux Francine Prose,2005 Though the sense of realism in German photographer Loretta Lux s striking portraits of children remains eerily intact Lux does not strive to create faithful photographic representations of her young subjects Instead each image invariably comprised of a lone child in a sparse landscape is painstakingly composed and manipulated to create psychically charged explorations of the nature of childhood and the process of self discovery Originally trained as a painter Lux continues to draw influence from paintings by old masters such as Velasquez Goya and Runge This influence is especially apparent in Lux s compositions After carefully choosing the models costumes and backdrops sometimes using her own paintings she digitally combines and enhances each element to form meticulously structured tableaux The consistently forlorn expressions of her models combined with the hyperreality of the image create portraits that transcend their subjects and remind us that childhood is as chaotic and multidimensional as any other part of life
