Re-Embroidering the Robe Suzanne Bray,Adrienne E. Gavin,Peter Merchant,2009-10-02 Religious faith myths and legends have always been present in literature However their role has changed over time Since the middle of the nineteenth century with the diminishing role of religion in European society writers with some kind of belief system whether religious or political have tended to use myth in two different ways They have either retold the old familiar myths of the past so that they carry fresh messages relevant to a contemporary audience or created their own new myths as modern vehicles of traditional truths Many writers have combined the two techniques Such is the transforming artistry which the eighteen essays in Re Embroidering the Robe examine the remaking or new minting of myth in literature from 1850 to the present day so that what it embodies and expresses speaks powerfully to the modern reader In widely differing ways therefore all of the texts analysed here compel attention Love, Lust & Heartbreak: 50 Romance Classics in One Collection Stendhal,Charles
