Latinx Writing Los Angeles Ignacio López-Calvo, Victor Valle, 2018-04-01 Latinx Writing Los Angeles offers a critical anthology of Los Angeles's most significant English language and Spanish language in translation nonfiction writing from the city's inception to the present. Contemporary Latinx authors including three Pulitzer Prize winners and writers such as Harry Gamboa Jr, Guillermo Gómez-Peña and Rubén Martínez focus on the ways in which Latinx Los Angeles's nonfiction narratives record the progressive racialization and subalternization of Latinxs in the southwestern United States. While notions of racial memory, coloniality, biopolitics, internal colonialism, cultural assimilation, Mexican or pan-Latinx cultural nationalism and transnationalism permeate this anthology, contributors advocate the idea of a contested modernity that refuses to accept mainstream cultural impositions, proposing instead alternative ways of knowing and understanding. Featuring a wide variety of voices as well as a diversity of subgenres, this collection is the first to illuminate divergent hybrid Latinx histories and cultures. Redefining Los Angeles's literary history and providing a new model for English, Spanish and Latinx studies, Latinx Writing Los Angeles is an essential contribution to southwestern and borderland studies. Christopher Ames, 2021-11-21 Hundreds of Hollywood on Hollywood movies can be found throughout the history of American cinema, from the days of silents to the present. They include films from genres as far ranging as musical, film noir, melodrama, comedy and action/adventure. Such movies seduce us with the promise of revealing the reality behind the camera. But as part of the very industry they supposedly critique, they cannot take us behind the scenes in any true sense. Through close analysis of fifteen critically acclaimed films, Christopher Ames reveals how the idea of Hollywood is constructed and constructs itself. Films discussed: What Price Hollywood? 1952, A Star Is Born 1937, Stand In 1937, Boy Meets Girl 1938, Sullivan's Travels 1941, In a Lonely Place 1950, Sunset Boulevard 1950, The Star 1950, Singin' in the Rain 1952, The Bad and the Beautiful 1952, Pennies from Heaven 1981, The Purple Rose of Cairo 1985, The Player 1992, Last Action Hero 1993. Landscapes of Desire

William Alexander McClung, 2002-05-31 An imaginative and provocative interpretation of the meaning of Los Angeles, carefully thought out and beautifully written. Robert Winter, editor of Toward a Simpler Way of Life, The Arts and Crafts Architects of California. McClung's sharp eye and his ability to be both critic and analyst combine to make this a book of real timeliness. It is unusual and it is smart. William Devereill, author of Railroad Crossing, Californians and the Railroad 1850-1910.

John Fante Richard Collins, 2000 John Fante, an important figure in the history of the Italian American novel, is proving to be fascinating to contemporary readers. Richard Collins has caught Fante's spirit from several crucial angles: as an ethnic writer, as a comic novelist, as a serious writer struggling to remain so in Hollywood. Intelligent, balanced, informative and empathetic, this book combines criticism with scholarship and biography with history to make what Henry James would have called a perfect literary portrait for it gives life to an interesting subject. Los Angeles, 1955-1985

Steinberg, Rob Shields, 2008 The devastation brought upon New Orleans by Hurricane Katrina and the subsequent levee system failure has forced urban theorists to revisit the fundamental question of urban geography and planning What is a city Is it a place of memory embedded in architecture a location in regional and global networks or an arena wherein communities form and reproduce themselves Planners architects policymakers and geographers from across the political spectrum have weighed in on how best to respond to the destruction wrought by Hurricane Katrina The thirteen contributors to What Is a City are a diverse group from the disciplines of anthropology architecture geography philosophy planning public policy studies and sociology as well as community organizing They believe that these conversations about the fate of New Orleans are animated by assumptions and beliefs about the function of cities in general They unpack post Katrina discourse examining what expert and public responses tell us about current attitudes not just toward New Orleans but toward cities As volume coeditor Phil Steinberg points out in his introduction Even before the floodwaters had subsided scholars and planners were beginning to reflect on Hurricane Katrina and its disastrous aftermath and they were beginning to ask bigger questions with implications for cities as a whole The experience of catastrophe forces us to reconsider not only the material but the abstract and virtual qualities of cities It requires us to revisit how we think about plan for and live in them The publishers weekly, 1991
