On Loss Erica Marchant, Joshua George, Melissa Schell, 2019-07-06 Loss like love deepens with living Defining loss travels beyond grief It is more than saying goodbye surviving destruction or facing deprivation Loss means letting go moving on and finding the light again Lost items lost people lost minds In them there s a silent hope With loss comes pain but with pain comes finding the good the happiness in renewing one s life and redeeming the irredeemable On Loss is a genre crossing collection of short stories poetry and flash fiction Each piece though vastly different is On Loss Narratives tragedies and tales from space travel time travel and a crime fighting superhero to war veterans insanity and a drive thru cemetery splash across the pages Whether losing a loved one memories innocence or the mind each one follows a different path of loss and its aftermath Every story unique each touched with inflection and speckled with despair Follow the authors of On Loss through the pain and impossibility to lessons learned forgiveness and the hope of a better tomorrow Authors Include Aaron Pasker Alice Lam Andrea Goyan Bernadette Fah Boris Glikman Cari Greywolf Rowan Chad V Broughman Christy Nicholas Connor Edick Deborah Staunton Donald J Bingle Edward Ahern Erica Marchant Ethan D N Jones Gerri Leen Jennifer Bradpiece Joanna Hoyt Joshua George Judi Dettorre KJ Hunter K A Mielke Leah George Les Bernstein Leslie Cushman Lisa Fox Liz Perry Lynne Buchanan Mark Towse M Kari Barr Melissa Schell Michael Riley Michael Simon Michelle Tang Mika Doyle Benjamin R Barnes Samantha Pilecki Robert Stephenson Robert Walton Sara Marchant Winston Plowes The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women s short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women s studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide Loss David L. Eng, David Kazanjian, 2003 If catastrophe is not representable according to the narrative explanations which would make sense of history then making sense of ourselves and charting the future are not impossible But we are as it were marked for life and that mark is insuperable irrecoverable It becomes the condition by which life is risked by which the question of whether one can move and with whom and in what way is framed and incited by the irreversibility of loss itself Judith Butler from the Afterword Loss is a wonderful volume powerful and important deeply moving and intellectually challenging at the same time ethical and not moralistic It is one of those rare collections that work as a multifaceted whole to map new areas for inquiry and pose new questions I found myself educated and provoked by the experience of participating in an ongoing dialogue Amy Kaplan author of The Anarchy of Empire in the Making of U S Culture

Return Engagements Viet Lê,2021-04-12 In Return Engagements artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization trauma diaspora and modernity in Southeast Asian art Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and S i G n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces By returning to and refashioning these themes artists such as Tiffany Chung Rithy Panh and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam By doing so they disrupt dominant understandings of place time and belonging in contemporary art The Classical Journal ,1922 Aftermath Radix Media (Firm),2018 Aftermath Explorations of Loss Grief is an anthology that weaves together a broad collection of voices to illustrate the many forms of loss The topics range from the inevitable breakdown of a relationship to an immigrant family struggling to retain their culture as they attempt to assimilate In their interpretation of the book s theme the selected stories run the spectrum from heartfelt raw and powerful to lighter and humorous This body of work reveals how despite the differences of our day to day lives we are all connected It was named a Bronze Winner 2018 Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Awards The Art of Losing Kevin Young,2013-11-05 Poems about the various stages of grief with 150 selections from a variety of 20th 21st century poets and bereavement as a pathway to recovery At one time or another we will all find ourselves facing a dark journey through the grieving process My Five Stages of Grief Poetry Anthology is written to provide support and comfort for a person who is in the wake of despair following the loss of a loved one Example Poem from this Anthology A Castaway Dark clouds of despair rolling above Obscures the peak of mount melancholy Surrounded by a rough sea of sadness Waves of woe crashing all over me Where is this place i have landed A castaway in a far off land Beaches of gloom and misery Great sorrow in each grain of sand I really need to escape here Build a raft from my dreams and hopes Leave unhappiness there on the shoreline And break free of these heavy heart ropes Depression is no laughing matter Dejection is not a great show But no blast of darkness can block out the light Just one match can make a room glow Anthologies of British Poetry ,2021-11-22 From Tottel s Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web Finding Purple America Jon Smith,2013-05-01 The new southern studies has had an uneasy relationship with both American studies and the old southern studies In Finding Purple America Jon Smith one of the founders of the new movement locates the source of that unease in the fundamentally antimodern fantasies of both older fields The old southern studies tends to view modernity as a threat to a mystic southern essence a dangerous outside force taking the form of everything from a bulldozer revolution to a national project of forgetting Since the rise of the New Americanists American studies has also imagined itself to be in a permanent crisis mode seeking to affiliate the field and the national essence with youth countercultures that sixties leftists once imagined to be the future Such fantasies Smith argues have resulted in an old southern studies that cannot understand places like Birmingham or Atlanta or cities at all and an American studies that cannot understand red states Most Americans live in neither a comforting premodern Mayberry nor an exciting postmodern Los Angeles but rather in what postcolonialists call alternative modernities and hybrid cultures whose relationships to past and future to stability and change are complex and ambivalent Looking at how the South has played in global metropolitan pop culture since the nineties and at how southern popular and high culture alike have in fact repeatedly embraced urban modernity Smith masterfully weaves together postcolonial theory cultural studies Lacanian psychoanalysis and surprisingly marketing theory to open up the inconveniently in between purple
