The Lost Faces Roderick Jellema, 1979 Saving Face Stephen Pattison, 2016-04-01 Faces are all around us and fundamentally shape both everyday experience and our understanding of people To lose face is to be alienated and experience shame to be enfaced is to enjoy the fullness of life In theology as in many other disciplines faces as both physical phenomena and symbols have not received the critical appreciative attention they deserve This pioneering book explores the nature of face and enfacement both human and divine Pattison discusses questions concerning what face is how important face is in human life and relationships and how we might understand face both as a physical phenomenon and as a series of socially inflected symbols and metaphors about the self and the body Examining what face means in terms of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary human society and how it is related to shame Pattison reveals what the experience of people who have difficulties with faces tell us about our society our understandings of and our reactions to face Exploring this ubiquitous yet ignored area of both contemporary human experience and of the Christian theological tradition Pattison explains how Christian theology understands face both human and divine and the insights might it offer to understanding face and enfacement Does God in any sense have a physically visible face What is the significance of having an enfaced or faceless God for Christian life and practice What does the vision of God mean now If we want to take face and defacing shame seriously and to get them properly into perspective we may need to change our theology thought and practice changing our ways of thinking about God and about theology Bittersweet Legacy Cynthia Moskowitz Brody, 2001 Bittersweet Legacy is a collection of poetry short stories and art inspired by the Holocaust It is a book born of paradox evoking remembrances of the darkest moments known to humankind by utilizing the power and beauty of the creative force The writers and artists represented in this book are individuals who were driven to respond to the extremities that define the Holocaust Some are accomplished in their fields others have created in an attempt to understand and give form to their sorrow and quest for meaning Each voice expresses a singular reprise Together they forge a resounding voice in response to the six million voices that were silenced The Books of Angelhaunt Jason Stuart Ratcliff, 2002-11 These final four Angelhaunt books are at once philosophy and works of art Ratcliff has created in these four books both poetry and religion both blasphemy and a completely original cosmology Ratcliff has looked into himself found both treasures and terrors and made works only a madman could create Faces of the Past: Unraveling Mysteries and Lives Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-23 Embark on a captivating journey into the realm of facial reconstruction with Faces of the Past Unraveling Mysteries and Lives This comprehensive guide unveils the intricate art and science of bringing life to skeletal remains shedding light on forgotten faces and providing closure to families and communities Step into the fascinating world of forensic anthropologists artists and scientists as they meticulously analyze skull structures employ cutting edge technology and harness the power of artistic interpretation to reconstruct faces from fragments of bone and historical records Witness the transformative process of

What stands behind the propensity to remember victims of mass atrocities by their personal names Grounded in ethnographic and archival research with Last Address and Memorial one of the oldest independent archives of Soviet political repressions in Moscow and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize the book examines a version of archival activism that is centred on various practices of documentation and commemoration of many dead victims of historical violence in Russia to understand what kind of historicity is produced when a single name is added to an endless list What do acts of accumulation of names of the dead affirm when they are concretised in monuments and performance events The key premise is that multimodal inscriptions of names of the dead entail a political aesthetic and conceptual movement between singularity and multitude that honours each dead name yet conveys the scale of a mass atrocity without reducing it to a number Drawing on anthropology history philosophy and aesthetic theory the book yields a new perspective on the politics of archival and historical justice while it critically engages with the debates on relations and distinctions between names and numbers of the dead monumental art and its political effects law and history image and text the specific one and the infinite many
