Lost And Found A Woman Revisits 8th Grade:

Lost and Found Roberta Israeloff, 1997-10-14 Revisiting her past through old journals and diaries author Roberta Israeloff traces her passage from self confident tomboy to a teenager trying to understand what it means to be female in today's society Her recollections juxtaposed with thoughts on her current life capture from a personal perspective the journey to womanhood Will appeal to readers of REVIVING OPHELIA

Revisiting The Great White North? Darren E. Lund, 2015-01-20 Returning seven years later to their original pieces from this landmark book over 20 leading scholars and activists revisit and reframe their rich contributions to a burgeoning scholarship on Whiteness With new reflective writings for each chapter and valuable sections on relevant readings and resources this volume refreshes and enhances the first text to pay critical and sustained attention to Whiteness in education with implications far beyond national borders Contributors include George Sefa Dei Tracey Lindberg Carl James Cynthia Levine Rasky and the late Patrick Solomon Courageously examining diverse perspectives contexts and institutional practices contributors to this volume dismantle the underpinnings of inequitable power relations privilege and marginalization The book's relevance extends to those in a range of settings with abundant and poignant lessons for enhancing and understanding transformative social justice work in education Revisiting The Great White North offers terrific grist for examining the persistence of Whiteness even as it shape shifts Chapters are comprehensive theoretically rich and anchored in personal experience Authors reflections on the seven years since publication of the first edition of this book complexify how we understand Whiteness while simultaneously driving home the need not only to grapple with it but to work against it Christine Sleeter Professor Emerita California State University Monterey Bay Our understanding of racial inequities in education will be impoverished unless we look deeply at White privilege its variation in different contexts and resistances to change Such is the call in this important book by Lund Carr and colleagues whose analyses within Canadian contexts framed and re framed for this captivating revised edition will be useful to educators and scholars around the world Read this book today Kevin Kumashiro Dean School of Education University of San Francisco President National Association for Multicultural Education Darren Lund and Paul Carr have given the contributors to their original 2007 text the opportunity to revisit rethink reconceptualize and reframe their earlier work The result is an interesting invigorating and unsettling group of chapters that challenge readers to also revisit and rethink their own ideas about Whiteness privilege and power Teachers administrators policymakers and researchers will all benefit from this critical work Sonia Nieto Professor Emerita Language Literacy and Culture College of Education University of Massachusetts Amherst Lund and Carr bring together a superb collection of authors who collectively challenge readers to go beyond liberal platitudes about race until educators confront the political social and economic consequences of inequitably distributed privilege the path towards equality and freedom will remain elusive By immersing us in the discourse of Whiteness the essays in this book illuminate that very path Joel Westheimer University Research Chair Professor Faculty of

Education University of Ottawa Library Journal ,2006 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1997 Cultural Amnesia Stephen Bertman,2000-02-28 Applying the metaphor of Alzheimer s disease to our national state of mind Bertman offers a chilling prognosis for our country s future unless radical steps for recovery are taken He looks beyond the classroom to the larger social forces that conspire to alienate Americans from their past a materialistic creed that celebrates transience and disposability and an electronic faith that worships the present to the exclusion of all other dimensions of time Jacket

Talking about Leaving Revisited Elaine Seymour,Anne-Barrie Hunter,2019-12-10 Talking about Leaving Revisited discusses findings from a five year study that explores the extent nature and contributory causes of field switching both from and among STEM majors and what enables persistence to graduation The book reflects on what has and has not changed since publication of Talking about Leaving Why Undergraduates Leave the Sciences Elaine Seymour Nancy M Hewitt Westview Press 1997 With the editors guidance the authors of each chapter collaborate to address key questions drawing on findings from each related study source national and institutional data interviews with faculty and students structured observations and student assessments of teaching methods in STEM gateway courses Pitched to a wide audience engaging in style and richly illustrated in the interviewees own words this book affords the most comprehensive explanatory account to date of persistence relocation and loss in undergraduate sciences Comprehensively addresses the causes of loss from undergraduate STEM majors an issue of ongoing national concern Presents critical research relevant for nationwide STEM education reform efforts Explores the reasons why talented undergraduates abandon STEM majors Dispels popular causal myths about why students choose to leave STEM majors This volume is based upon work supported by the Alfred P Sloan Foundation Award No 2012 6 05 and the National Science Foundation Award No DUE 1224637 Development Studies Revisited Charles Cooper,E. V. K. FitzGerald,2016-04-15 First published in 1989 The Journal of Development Studies was founded 25 years ago as a professional journal for what had by then become an established sub discipline within British social science The Journal has consistently published a broad spectrum of British research on development studies a catholicity that has been reflected in the composition of the Editorial Board over the years and has always welcomed authors from the USA the European Continent and above all from the Third World Collated form the last twenty five years of the journal presented here are a collection of 20 odd papers that represent less than three per cent of articles published since 1964 The Class of 86 Revisited Lynn Barr-Telford,Geoff Bowlby,W. Clark,Statistics Canada,Canada. Human Resources Development Canada,1996 This report also funded by Human Resources Development Canada contains results of the Follow up of 1986 Graduates Survey FOG The FOG survey took place in March 1991 and was the second time that 1986 graduates were interviewed These graduates were first contacted in May 1988 for the National Graduates Survey NGS Over 35 000 respondents to the NGS who were still living in Canada were re interviewed by telephone for the FOG The results presented in this report represent the experiences of 1986 graduates of trade vocational career technical and university programs living in Canada in both May 1988 and March 1991 The report looks at 1986 graduates labour market activities their earnings the relationship between their education and labour market activities and their further educational qualifications five years after graduation The results of the FOG survey are also compared to those obtained in the NGS which was conducted two years after graduation

Revisiting Moral Panics Vivienne E. Cree, Gary Clapton, Mark Smith, 2016-06-15 We live in a world that is increasingly characterised as full of risk danger and threat Every day a new social issue emerges to assail our sensibilities and consciences Drawing on the popular Economic Social and Research Council ESRC seminar series this book examines these social issues and anxieties and the solutions to them through the concept of moral panic With a commentary by Charles Critcher and contributions from both well known and up and coming researchers and practitioners this is a stimulating and innovative overview of moral panic ideas which will be an essential resource
