Hilton,1957 From El Dorado to Lost Horizons Ken Windrum,2019-03-25 The era known as the Hollywood Renaissance is celebrated as a time when revolutionary movies broke all the rules of the previous classical era as part of the ferment of the late 1960s and early 1970s Yet many films during this era did not overtly smash the system but provided more traditional entertainment based on popular genres for a wider audience than the youth culture who flocked to more transgressive fare Ken Windrum focuses on four genres of traditionalist movies big budget musicals war spectacles naughty sex comedies and Westerns From El Dorado to Lost Horizons shows how even seemingly innocuous family oriented films still participated in the progressive aspects of the time while also holding a conservative point of view Windrum analyzes representations of issues including gender roles marriage sexuality civil rights and Cold War foreign policy revealing how these films dealt with changing times and reflected both status quo positions and new attitudes He also examines how the movies continued or deviated from classical principles of structure and style Windrum provides a counter history of the Hollywood Renaissance by focusing on a group of important films that have nevertheless been neglected in scholarly accounts Shangri-La Michael Buckley,2008-11-25 Appealing to the adventure traveler or armchair reader who simply wishes to browse and dream this guide promises to lead them into the glorious reality and breathtaking landscapes of the Himalayas Lost Horizon James JAMES HILTON,2021-07-19 The novel Lost Horizon was written in 1933 It was the first book published in pocket book form and was regarded to be one of the most popular books of the early 20th century Even the American president F D Roosevelt named the Presidential hideaway in Maryland after Shangri La This text is divided into two parts the first narrative is told by a neurologist Woodford Green and the second one is the third person narration with the main hero Hugh Conway but it was written by Woodford Green s friend a novelist Rutherford The author writes about such themes as the meaning of time in a man s life faith and its different interpretations for everybody culture and mentality of Lamas their differences from the Europeans and some other topics which are important and interesting for every adult and that is why actually the book became so popular in the world The book was adapted in two films 1937 and 1973 years of release it was broadcasted on the radio channels in the United States It won the Hawthornden Prize in the 1930s Palm Springs Legends Greg Niemann,2006 Palm Springs long a desert hideaway for celebrities has a history as unique and varied as its residents From the original Cahuilla inhabitants of the area to the settlers who were drawn to the therapeutic waters of the original hot springs you will get to know the people and stories that made Palm Springs famous Lost Horizon ,2009 Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons Elizabeth Rawitsch,2014-10-16 Frank Capra has long had a reputation as being the quintessential American director the man who perfectly captured the identity and core values of the United States with a string of classic films in the 1930s and 40s including It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It s a Wonderful Life However as Elizabeth Rawitsch argues Capra s construction of national identity did not occur within an exclusively national context She points out that many of his films are actually set in or include sequences set in China Latin America the Philippines and the South Seas Featuring in depth textual analysis supported by original archival research Frank Capra s Eastern Horizons explains that Capra s view of what constituted America changed over time extending its boundaries to embrace countries often far from the United States Complicating Edward Said s theory of Orientalism as a strict binary in which the West constructs the East as an inferior other it demonstrates that East and West often intermingle in films such as The Bitter Tea of General Yen and in Capra s orientation documentaries for World War II American servicemen Capra imagined a kind of global community albeit one with heavy undertones of British and American imperialism Investigating shifts in what Capra s

America has meant over time both to Capra and to those who have watched and studied his films this innovative book offers a startlingly fresh perspective on one of the most iconic figures in American film history Lost Horizon James Hilton, 2015-02-01 Flying out of India an aircraft is hijacked and flown into the high Tibetan Himalayas The passengers a British consul his deputy a missionary and an American financier are unexpectedly conducted to a remote valley a legendary paradise of peace and beauty known as Shangri La Have they been kidnapped Can they leave They discover a seemingly perfect hidden community where they are welcomed with gracious hospitality Intrigued by its mystery the travellers set about discovering the secret hidden at the shimmering heart of Shangri La Countervisions Darrell Y.
