Lost Lunar Baedeker Poems Of Mina Loy:

The Lost Lunar Baedeker Mina Loy, 1996 There was a time when it was common to couple Mina Loy's name with that of W C Williams or Marianne Moore her advanced contemporaries considered her a literary and artistic genius a descendant of Sappho by way of Emily Dickinson But the public was scandalized by her work and some critics openly scorned it Not only were her Futurist inspired techniques unlike anything most readers had encountered before but her subjects procreation parturition prostitution suicide addiction retardation were considered shocking even by some modernists Mina Loy vanished from the literary scene just as dramatically as she arrived on it and for most of the century her bold experiments have remained a well kept secret But in recent years Loy's work has been discovered by a new generation of poets and critics and has begun to surface in revisionist anthologies What has been needed is a reliable text of the essential Loy poems To assemble The Lost Lunar Baedeker Roger Conover has rescued Loy's poems and prose works from the Dada magazines and other ephemeral publications where they first appeared All of Loy's notorious Futurist and feminist satires are included as are many poems from her Paris and New York periods the complete cycle of Love Songs and several previously unknown texts Detailed notes accompany the text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Transformations of Trauma in Women's Writing Laura Alexander, 2023-01-10 This volume examines the ways in which trauma alters women's identities While some of the chapters look deeply at individual experiences many of the contributions look to national traumas and the consequences of political abuses including colonial subjugation and genocide for women The book shows that language has a transformative power to change us to give us a great capacity for inner and outer dialogues and for healing and self-love As shown here women have historically employed autobiography and memoir to free themselves and others rather than seeing the limit of form they reinvent the parameters to offer a new relationship with language

Revisiting the Poetics and Politics of Modernism Tamlyn Avery, Sascha Morrell, 2025-12-02 This book revisits women's literature in 1922 long hailed as the miracle year of literary modernism a landmark year of avant-garde innovations in publications that included James Joyce's Ulysses T S Eliot's The Waste Land and Ezra Pound's The Cantos Yet if 1922 has been considered a modernist annus mirabilis it was many things besides In 1922 or thereabouts according to Willa Cather the literary world broke in two sequestering traditional writers from those considered modern Many women writers produced work that year across a spectrum of genres forms and politics that would not be accepted into Hugh Kenner's modernist canon Nor however did they readily fit into Cather's categories in some cases rupturing and in other cases affirming a consensus of modernism as a masculinist culturally imperialist interwar enterprise Considering 1922's historical significance the essays in this collection seek greater inclusion of women in our memory of this year including writers from a range of global and regional contexts and cultural backgrounds Extending other attempts to examine the gender politics of modernism modernity over the past thirty years the project draws connections between the significance of 1922 as it has been understood in the new modernist studies and feminist literary criticism that utilizes single year approaches to revisit and reflect on women s history and the gender politics of modernism Nations of Nothing But Poetry Matthew
