Orality And Cultural Identities In Zimbabwe:

Orality and Cultural Identities in Zimbabwe Maurice Taonezvi Vambe, 2001 This book traces through song theatre poetry novel film television and rituals of spirit possession the multiple shifts in values ideals and beliefs that have taken place in the black people's struggles for survival

Zimbabwe's Cinematic Arts Katrina Daly Thompson, 2013 This timely book reflects on discourses of identity that pervade local talk and texts in Zimbabwe a nation beset by political and economic crisis As she explores questions of culture that play out in broadly accessible local and foreign film and television Katrina Daly Thompson shows how viewers interpret these media and how they impact everyday life language use and thinking about community She offers a unique understanding of how media reflect and contribute to Zimbabwean culture language and ethnicity

Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbiti's The African Concept of Time and Paul Hiebert's The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustine's City of God John Bunyan's The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines

The Handbook of Civil Society in Africa Ebenezer

Obadare,2013-09-21 This volume brings together the most up to date analyses of civil society in Africa from the best scholars and researchers working on the subject Being the first of its kind it casts a panoramic look at the African continent drawing out persisting if often under communicated variations in regional discourses In a majority of notionally global studies Africa has received marginal attention a marginality often highlighted by the usual token chapter Filling a critical hiatus the Handbook of Civil Society in Africa takes Africa African developments and African perspectives very seriously and worthy of academic interrogation in their own right It offers a critical clear sighted perspective on civil society in Africa and positions African discourses within the framework of important regional and global debates It promises to be an invaluable reference work for researchers and practitioners working in the fields of civil society nonprofit studies development studies volunteerism civic service and African studies Endorsements This volume signposts a critical turning point in the renewed engagement with the theory and practice of civil society in Africa Moving from traditional concerns with disquisitions on the appropriateness and possibility of the existence and vibrancy of the idea of civil society on the continent the volume approaches the forms contents and features of the actually existing civil society in Africa from thematic regional and national angles It demonstrates clearly the extent to which core intellectual work on civil society in Africa has largely moved from concerns with cultural reductionism to a nuanced examination of the complexities of formal non formal organizational non organizational traditional newer usual unusual engagements detailing the extent to which over time civil society as a concept has been indigenized appropriated and adapted in the terrains of politics society economy culture and new technologies on the continent In all this the book accomplishes the near impossible Without sacrificing the vigour rigor and freshness of the often unpredictable fruits of up to date research into regional and national differences that crop up in the documentation of Africa s multiple realities and discourses the volume weaves together a rich tapestry of the historical theoretical and practical dimensions of an expanding civil society sector and accompanying growth in popular discourse advocacy and academic literature in such a diverse continent as Africa into a meaningful whole of insightful themes Written and edited by a very distinguished cross continental and multi disciplinary collection of researchers research students practitioners and activists the volume provides cutting edge evidence and makes a definitive case for a new lease of life for civil society research in Africa Adigun Agbaje Professor of Political Science University of Ibadan Nigeria Throughout Africa forms of civic engagement and political participation have seen dynamic change in recent decades yet conceptions of civil society have rarely accounted for this evolution This volume is an essential source of new thinking about political association and collective action in Africa The authors offer a wealth of analysis on changing organizations and social movements new forms of interaction and communication emerging strategies and issues diverse social foundations and the theoretical implications of a shifting associational landscape The contributors provide an invaluable addition to the comparative literature on political change democratic development and social movements in Africa Peter Lewis Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced international Studies Mawere: African Cultures, Memory and Space Munyaradzi Mawere, R. Mubaya, 2014-07-17 African Cultures Memory and Space is an impeccable volume that powerfully grapples with a gamut of cultural heritage issues challenges and problems from a vista of inter and multi disciplinary approach The book which is designed as a foundational text to the study of culture in ever changing environments makes an important argument that the dynamism of culture in highly globalised societies such as that of Zimbabwe can be studied from any perspective but most importantly through careful examination of cultural elements such as memory oral history and space among others While the book makes special reference to Zimbabwe it profoundly and audaciously dissect and cut across different geographical and cultural spaces through its penetrating interrogation and scrutiny of different issues commonplace in many African contexts and even beyond The book written by scholars from different backgrounds and orientations should appeal to scholars researchers and students from various disciplines which include but not limited to Cultural Heritage Studies Policy Studies Social Cultural Anthropology Sociology Development Studies and African Studies The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac, 2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by

Weaver Press in Harare Relationality and Resilience in a Not So Relational World? Nhemachena, Artwell, 2017-03-08 This book critically examines the relevance of the increasingly popular theories on relationality by interfacing those theories with the African Shona modes of engagement known as chivanhu often erroneously narrowly translated as tradition In other words the book takes seriously concerns by African scholars that much of the theories that have been applied in Africa do not speak to relevance and faithfulness to the continent Situated in a recent Zimbabwean context marked by multiple crises producing multiple forms of violence and want the book examines the relevance of relational ontologies and epistemologies to the everyday life modes of engagements by villagers in a selected district The book unflinchingly surfaces the strengths and weaknesses of popular theories while at the same time underlining the exigencies of theorising from Africa using African data as the millstones By meticulously and painstakingly unpacking pertinent issues the book provides unparalleled intellectual grit for the contemporary and increasingly popular discourses on de coloniality and resilience in relation to the African peoples and their often deliberately contested environments past present and future In other words the book loudly sounds the bells for the battles to decolonise and transform Africa on Africa s own terms This is a book that would be extremely useful to scholars activists theorists policy makers and implementers as well as researchers interested not only in Africa s future trajectory but also in the simultaneities of temporalities and worlds that were sadly overshadowed by colonial epistemologies and ontologies for the past centuries

Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde, Ranka Primorac, 2005-06-15 The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice

Religion and the COVID-19 Pandemic in Southern Africa Fortune Sibanda, Tenson Muyambo, Ezra Chitando, 2022-02-24 This book investigates the role of religion in the context of the COVID 19 pandemic in Southern Africa Building on a diverse range of methodologies and disciplinary approaches the book reflects on how religion politics and health have interfaced in Southern African contexts when faced with the sudden public health emergency caused by the pandemic Religious actors have played a key role on the frontline throughout the pandemic sometimes posing roadblocks to public health messaging but more often deploying their resources to help provide effective and timely responses Drawing on case studies from African indigenous knowledge systems Islam Rastafari and various forms of Christianity this book provides important reflections on the role of religion in crisis response This book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of African Studies Health Politics and Religious Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license The Culture of AIDS in

Africa Gregory Barz, Judah M. Cohen, 2011-10-13 The Culture of AIDS in Africa presents 30 chapters offering a multifaceted nuanced and deeply affective portrait of the relationship between HIV AIDS and the arts in Africa including source material such as song lyrics and interviews Oliver Mtukudzi Jennifer W. Kyker, 2016-10-31 Oliver Tuku Mtukudzi a Zimbabwean guitarist vocalist and composer has performed worldwide and released some 50 albums One of a handful of artists to have a beat named after him Mtukudzi blends Zimbabwean traditional sounds with South African township music and American gospel and soul to compose what is known as Tuku Music In this biography Jennifer W Kyker looks at Mtukudzi s life and art from his encounters with Rhodesian soldiers during the Zimbabwe war of liberation to his friendship with American blues artist Bonnie Raitt With unprecedented access to Mtukudzi Kyker breaks down his distinctive performance style using the Shona concept of hunhu or human identity through moral relationships as a framework By reading Mtukudzi s life in connection with his lyrics and the social milieu in which they were created Kyker offers an engaging portrait of one of African music s most recognized performers Interviews with family friends and band members make this a penetrating sensitive and uplifting biography of one of the world s most popular musicians Popular Media, Democracy and Development in Africa Herman Wasserman, 2010-10-04 This book examines the role that popular media could play to encourage political debate provide information for development or critique the very definitions of democracy and development The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Family Studies, 4 Volume Set Constance L. Shehan, 2016-02-29 The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Family Studies presents a comprehensive interdisciplinary collection of the key concepts trends and processes relating to the study of families and family patterns throughout the world Offers more than 550 entries arranged A Z Includes contributions from hundreds of family scholars in various academic disciplines from around the world Covers issues ranging from changing birth rates fertility and an aging world population to human trafficking homelessness famine and genocide Features entries that approach families households and kin networks from a macro level and micro level perspective Covers basic demographic concepts and long term trends across various nations the impact of globalization on families global family problems and many more Features in depth examinations of families in numerous nations in several world regions 4 Volumes www.familystudiesencyclopedia.com African Oral Story-telling Tradition and the Zimbabwean Novel in English Maurice Taonezvi Vambe, 2004 This study presents a break with previous literary criticism that has vilified orality in an effort to understand the interface between orality and the black Zimbabwean novel It traces the ways in which the African oral story telling tradition has survived within the black Zimbabwean novel in English The author critically analyses the works of eight leading Zimbabwean creative writers revealing how they have used oral story telling traditions in their literature He argues that throughout the colonisation liberation and post independence periods African orature was and remains a mode of expressing resistance to authoritarian ideas and cultural dominance and a social vision Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora Akinloye Ojo, Mobolanle Sotunsa, Karim Traore, 2016-06-22 Expressions of Indigenous and Local Knowledge in Africa and its Diaspora provides critical discourses on Africa and the various configurations of its reflections in folklore literature music languages and philosophy The collection through its selected works focuses on the African continent in terms of preserving the unique identity of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge In reality this preservation effort is confronted by a number of challenges within today s increasingly globalized and westernized world This book documents ongoing scholarly discussion on the paradoxical dynamics of preserving this identity and consequently enhancing the relevance of African Indigenous and Local Knowledge This volume articulates the representation of knowledge and values lodged in the diverse knowledge systems in Africa and its diaspora and which are constantly expressed in local and global spaces It highlights the prejudicial assessment of African Indigenous knowledge systems that has ensured that Western epistemological systems are internationally recognized and supported while African epistemological systems are denigrated discouraged or simply ignored even on the African continent Given that the term expressions entails making something known or manifest this edited collection is assembled to make known some of the elements of indigenous and local knowledge as well as the practices that these elements necessitate both historically and contemporarily in the African situation

Religion, Law and Security in Africa M Christian Green,T Jeremy Gunn,Mark Hill,2018-05-16 Security is a key topic of our time But how do we understand it Do law and religion take different views of it In this fifth volume in the Law and Religion in Africa series radicalisation terrorism blasphemy hate speech religious freedom and just war theories rub shoulders with issues of witchcraft female genital mutilation circumcision child marriage displaced communities and additional issues besides This unique collection of topics is both challenging and inspiring providing illumination in troubled times and forming a sound foundation for future scholarship

The Politics of Everyday Life in Gikuyu Popular Musice of Kenya 1990-2000 wa Mutonya, Maina,2014-01-16 While probing the politics of everyday in Gikuyu popular music the main thrust of this book is to unpack the representation of daily struggles through music Depending mainly on the lyrics of the songs the study also combines both the textual and the contextual analysis of the music Music here is studied both as a text and as an aspect of popular culture The decade 1990 2000 in Kenya provides two contrasting political developments which directly impacted on the ordinary Kenyan firstly the extremes of the country s one party rule were at the peak until when multi party democracy was re introduced This ushered in a new era but with antecedents in one party rule where service delivery was below par and economic mismanagement corruption assassinations and detentions continued unabated It is in this contrasting environment that popular arts proliferated as a way of countering the repressed freedom of expression This book therefore looks at how the Gikuyu musicians reacted and responded to these social and political realities in their songs Music is discussed as an essential site for creation re creation and negotiation of the various forms of identities

The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr,2019-03-21 Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social cultural and political identity For Palestinians the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales edited compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again 1989 In addition to the folktales themselves Muhawi and Kanaana s collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric historical and anthropological annotations Here for the first time the folktales and the compilers work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies gender studies and social movement studies Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity In particular the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture gender studies and memory studies and those interested in folklore and oral literature
