Communication and Economic Life Liz Moor, 2021-11-30 When we talk about media and the economy the economy is usually understood as the macro economy or GDP while the media usually refers to television and print news or the digital output of mainstream news providers But communication about money and the economy in everyday life is far more wide ranging than this It is also changing opportunities to discuss economic matters whether public or personal have proliferated online while new payment systems and shopping platforms embed economic behaviour more deeply into communications infrastructures Challenging earlier narrow definitions this ambitious book offers a new framework for thinking about the role of communication in our economic lives Foregrounding the broader category of communicative practices the book understands economic life not only in terms of the macro economy but more sociologically as a set of processes of providing for material wants and needs How we talk about these wants and needs and our means for meeting them is how we come to understand our economic lives as meaningful The book explores how our economic lives are constructed communicatively in a variety of modes that move through but also exceed mass media from the symbolism of credit cards to the language used by economists and from social media promotion to debates in online forums Communication and Economic Life is a vital resource for students and scholars in media and communications and sociology and for anyone interested in how we talk about economic lives GCSE English Literature for AQA Great Expectations Student Book Jon Seal, 2015-06-18 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the 2015 GCSE English qualifications Approved for the AQA 2015 GCSE English Literature specification this print Student Book is designed to help students develop whole text understanding and written response skills for their closed book exam The resource provides chapter by chapter coverage of Dickens's novel as well as a synoptic overview of the text and its themes Short memorable quotations and striking images throughout the book aid learning while in depth exam preparation includes practice questions and sample responses See also our Great Expectations print and digital pack which comprises the print Student Book the enhanced digital edition and a free Teacher's

Resource The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites' mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung, 2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies
