Circular ,1930 Collections of United States Joint Publications Research Service Translations in the Social Sciences Emanating from Communist China United States. Joint Publications Research Service,1962 Scientific Communication Across the Iron Curtain Christopher D. Hollings,2015-12-12 This monograph provides a concise introduction to the tangled issues of communication between Russian and Western scientists during the Cold War It details the extent to which mid twentieth century researchers and practitioners were able to communicate with their counterparts on the opposite side of the Iron Curtain Drawing upon evidence from a range of disciplines a decade by decade account is first given of the varying levels of contact that existed via private correspondence and conference attendance Next the book examines the exchange of publications and the availability of one side s work in the libraries of the other It then goes on to compare general language abilities on opposite sides of the Iron Curtain with comments on efforts in the West to learn Russian and the systematic translation of Russian work In the end author Christopher Hollings argues that physical accessibility was generally good in both directions but that Western scientists were afflicted by greater linguistic difficulties than their Soviet counterparts whose major problems were bureaucratic in nature This volume will be of interest to historians of Cold War science particularly those who study communications and language issues In addition it will be an ideal starting pointing for anyone looking to know more about this fascinating area Cultures, Ideologies, and the Dictionary Braj B. Kachru,Henry Kahane,2013-03-01 A pioneering volume addressing issues related to cultures ideologies and the dictionary A cross cultural and cross linguistic study with focus on selected Western and non Western languages A number of in depth case studies illustrates the dominant role ideology and other types of bias play in the making of a dictionary The volume includes invited papers of 40 internationally recognized scholars Russian-English Dictionary of Scientific and Technical Usage ,1986 Communist China Digest ,1962
