Russian Military Mapping A. A. Psarev, 2005 The Manual contains information about the atmosphere weather and climate winds time and length of day about terrain and their effect on troop combat operations about topographic and special maps and photographic documents The book presents basic data shown on topographic and special maps the procedure used by unit commanders to maintain their working maps and the effects of meteorological elements on missions and assesses terrain as an element of battlefield conditions Russian Military Mapping, 2005 Military Thought, 2016 A

Cartographic Analysis of Soviet Military City Plans Martin Davis, 2021-09-29 The collapse of the Soviet Union has seen the emergence of its unprecedentedly comprehensive global secret military mapping project and the commercial availability of a vast number of detailed topographic maps and city plans at several scales This thesis provides an in depth examination of the series of over 2 000 large scale city plans produced in secret by the Military Topographic Directorate of the General Staff between the end of the Second World War and the collapse of the USSR in 1991 After positioning the series in its historical context the nature and content of the plans are examined in detail A poststructuralist perspective introduces possibilities to utilise and apply the maps in new contexts which this thesis facilitates by providing a systematic empirical analysis of the Soviet map symbology at 1 10 000 and 1 25 000 using new translations of production manuals and a sample of the city plans A comparative analysis with the current OpenStreetMap symbology indicates scope for Soviet mapping to be used as a valuable supplementary topographic resource in a variety of existing and future global mapping initiatives including humanitarian crisis mapping This leads to a conclusion that the relevance and value of Soviet military maps endure in modern applications both as a source of data and as a means of overcoming contemporary cartographic challenges relating to symbology design and the handling of large datasets Russian Grand Strategy in the era of global power competition Andrew Monaghan, 2022-04-26 This book offers a nuanced and detailed examination of two of the most important current debates about contemporary Russia s international activity is Moscow acting strategically or opportunistically and should this be understood in regional or global terms The book addresses core themes of Russian activity military energy and economic but it offers an unusual multi disciplinary analysis to these themes Monaghan incorporates both regional and thematic specialist expertise to give a fresh perspective to each of these core themes Underpinned by detailed analyses of the revolution in Russian geospatial capabilities and the establishment of a strategic planning foundation the book includes chapters on military and maritime strategies energy security and economic diversification and influence This serves to highlight the connections between military and economic interests that shape and drive Russian strategy Mapping Empires: Colonial Cartographies of Land and Sea Alexander James Kent, Soetkin Vervust, Imre Josef Demhardt, Nick Millea, 2019-08-26 This book comprises 17 chapters derived from new research papers presented at the 7th International Symposium of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography held in Oxford from 13 to 15 September 2018 and jointly organized by the ICA Commission on Topographic Mapping and the Bodleian Libraries University of Oxford The overall conference theme was Mapping Empires Colonial Cartographies of Land and Sea The book presents a breadth of original research undertaken by internationally recognized authors in the field of historical cartography and offers a significant contribution to the development of this growing field and to many interdisciplinary aspects of geography history and the geographic information sciences It is intended for researchers teachers postgraduate students map librarians and archivists

The Red Atlas John Davies,Alexander J. Kent,2017-10-17 The utterly fascinating untold story of Soviet Russia s global military mapping program featuring many of the surprising maps that resulted Marina Lewycka author of A Short History of Tractors in Ukrainian From 1950 to 1990 the Soviet Army conducted a global topographic mapping program creating large scale maps for much of the world that included a diversity of detail that would have supported a full range of military planning For big cities like New York Washington D C and London to towns like Pontiac MI and Galveston TX the Soviets gathered enough information to create street level maps The information on these maps ranged from the locations of factories and ports to building heights road widths and bridge capacities Some of the detail suggests early satellite technology while other specifics like detailed depictions of depths and channels around rivers and harbors could only have been gained by Soviet spies on the ground The Red Atlas includes over 350 extracts from these incredible Cold War maps exploring their provenance and cartographic techniques as well as what they can tell us about their makers and the Soviet initiatives that were going on all around us

Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies Sitta von Reden,2023-10-24 The Handbook of Ancient Afro Eurasian Economies offers in three volumes the first comprehensive discussion of economic development in the empires of the Afro Eurasian world region to elucidate the conditions under which large quantities of goods and people moved across continents and between empires Volume 3 Frontier Zone Processes and Transimperial Exchange analyzes frontier zones as particular landscapes of encounter economic development and transimperial network formation The chapters offer problematizing approaches to frontier zone processes as part of and in between empires with the goal of better understanding how and why goods and resources moved across the Afro Eurasian region Key frontiers in mountains and steppes along coasts rivers and deserts are investigated in depth demonstrating how local landscapes politics and pathways explain network practices and participation in long distance trade The chapters seek to retrieve local knowledge ignored in popular Silk Road models and to show the potential of frontier zone research for understanding the Afro Eurasian region as a connected space

Dissemination of Cartographic Knowledge Mirela Altić,Imre Josef Demhardt,Soetkin Vervust,2017-09-07 This book gathers 22 papers which were presented at the 6th International Symposium of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography in Dubrovnik Croatia on 13 15 October 2016 The overall conference theme was The Dissemination of Cartographic Knowledge Production Trade Consumption Preservation The book presents original research by internationally respected authors in the field of historical cartography offering a significant contribution to the development of this field of study but also of geography history and the GIS sciences The primary target audience includes researchers educators postgraduate students map librarians and archivists
