of hope Rusty used to wonder if she would make it through the day seeing danger in everyday living Rusty has epilepsy She was twenty when Carol Gino met her and learned of her past ordeals the stigma of mental illness the drugs that took away her self control the treatments that only worsened her symptoms Carol and Rusty set out to prove that illness can be overcome and that there is no substitute for love and care From Library Journal While many advancements have been made in understanding and treating epilepsy the disease is still surrounded by an aura of dread Rusty was a teenager when she was stricken with epilepsy Misdiagnosed as a paranoid schizophrenic for years she suffered more from inappropriate medical treatment than from her condition The reader is mesmerized as Gino passionately relates Rusty's plight Despite repeated incarcerations in a frightful state mental institution and the toxic effects of drugs she never lost her sense of humanity or her strong desire to help others Gino's deep distrust of the medical establishment her fervent attachment to nursing and her conviction that the patient knows best are themes that are interwoven into the emotional story of Rusty's fight for a normal life Carol R Glatt Helene Fuld Medical Center Lib Trenton N J impressively Rusty knew how to accomplish that mission His start in life could not have been more unhappy or heartbreaking yet he prevailed through life as if he was the luckiest little guy ever born This is the story of how one cat brought God and faith back to a darkened soul saved a life minutes from leaving this world and even through his own health dilemmas created friendships and stories to last a lifetime You ve lost a therapy pet a service cat in my opinion He helped you navigate MS and helped you through the illness and deaths of your parents God sent him to you as a furry angel here on earth to support you
