Prior to 1962, sheep ranchers and homesteaders occupied Gore Creek Valley. A sleepy place studded with aspen and pine groves, the valley lay ripe for discovery. Two men, Pete Seibert and Earl Eaton, had a dream to build the perfect ski area. Earl knew of a mountain, and they climbed No Name Mountain in 1957. Although the mountain seemed unpretentious when Pete reached the top and saw the treeless back bowls, he smiled at Earl. The men had found their mountain. That day, Vail was born. With the spirit of adventure, the dream shaped the mountain, the mountain shaped the village, and the village prospered. As American skiing grew, it became a sport and then a lifestyle, and Vail is now the largest ski resort in America. Winter is why people come, and summer is why they stay. How this all happened in 50 years is a story of dreams, perseverance, creativity, and unforgettable people.      London and the Politics of Memory Stuart Burch, 2019-07-09. This book provides an original, impassioned exploration of memory studies and the uses of the past in the present. It capitalises on London's global appeal and Big Ben's iconic status. Moving beyond this familiar facade, the reader will journey around the hidden histories of Westminster's streets, squares, and statues. This tangible heritage supports a diversity of contested memories. The rationale for this approach is that by linking theory with empirical examples, it becomes possible to tackle complex issues in a grounded, accessible manner. Readers will be encouraged to use this case study as a framework for addressing the politics of memory in their own lives, as well as in other places, not just in Britain but around the world. This book will be of interest to scholars and
