Sacramental Pastoral Care:

Recovering the Riches of Anointing National Association of Catholic Chaplains (U.S.). International Symposium, Kevin Tripp, 2002 Recovering the Riches of Anointing A Study of the Sacrament of the Sick is a collection of the papers presented at the international symposium sponsored by the National Association of Catholic Chaplains in May 2001 as part of a long term exploration of topics of theological and pastoral concern in the pastoral care of the sick Book jacket Instrument of Your Peace Margaret Ghosn, 2024-08-30 The call to be an instrument of God's love and peace is at the heart of the Christian faith and forms the basis of all Catholic pastoral care This mission encompasses a broad spectrum of care reaching out to children families the elderly the housebound the sick the dying and the grieving Instrument of Your Peace is a comprehensive guide that acknowledges the serious and often complex issues involved in this vital ministry providing sound and practical advice and support for those engaged in pastoral care Sister Margaret Ghosn MSHF delves deeply into the Scriptural foundations of pastoral care placing special emphasis on the ministry of Jesus Through his teachings and actions Jesus exemplified compassion mercy and service to others setting a powerful precedent for pastoral care This book examines how the Church throughout its history and tradition has developed its unique spiritual and sacramental responses and resources to address the needs of the faithful Written from a Catholic perspective for an Australian audience Instrument of Your Peace is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to understand more about caring for a loved one or those involved professionally in ministry within the Catholic community The book is a simplified collection of diverse perspectives essential information and practical advice tailored to pastoral ministry with the young aging ill dying and grieving One of the strengths of this book lies in its practical approach It offers clear guidance on how to navigate the challenges and responsibilities of pastoral care whether it's providing emotional support to grieving families visiting the sick and housebound or offering comfort to those nearing the end of life The advice is grounded in real life experiences and enriched by theological insights making it both accessible and deeply rooted in Catholic tradition Moreover the book emphasises the importance of pastoral care as a communal and collaborative effort It encourages readers to see their role within the broader context of the Church's mission highlighting the interconnectedness of all members of the Catholic community By fostering a spirit of empathy and solidarity Instrument of Your Peace inspires individuals to become active participants in God's work of love and peace The practical tips and strategies provided are designed to equip pastoral caregivers with the tools they need to offer effective and compassionate care This includes understanding the psychological and emotional needs of those they serve recognising the importance of self care for caregivers and utilising the Church's sacramental resources to provide spiritual support Overall Instrument of Your Peace is more than just a guidebook it is a call to action for Catholics to embrace their role as instruments of God's love and peace Through thoughtful reflections practical advice and a strong Scriptural foundation this book empowers readers to engage more fully in the ministry of pastoral care making a meaningful difference in the lives of those they serve A History of Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century A Roman Catholic Theology of Pastoral Care Regis A. Duffy OFM, 2010-05-01 Drawing upon the long history of care in the sacramental mission of the clergy especially since the reforms of Vatican II Father Duffy offers a new model that can stimulate both Catholic and Protestant pastoral care to fresh thinking and imaginative reconstruction The model derives from the catechumenate that lengthy process of study and service which down through the ages has preceded baptism and guided Christian formation Reflecting a judicious use of interdisciplinary insights and praxis theology Father Duffy's vision represents an ecumenical contribution to sharpened focus and strengthened identity for pastoral care and practice

Understanding Sacramental Healing Father John Kasza, 2022-01-07 The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick plays a significant role in the lives of many throughout the Church but confusion over the sacrament can result in individuals not receiving this important comfort from the Church Understanding Sacramental Healing Anointing and Viaticum explores the rich history of the sacrament and addresses the changes that have occurred since the Second Vatican Council by providing a theological basis for the history and pastoral practice of the sacrament of the sick Father John Kasza offers a cohesive and concise synthesis of the disciplines of theology canon law medicine anthropology and liturgy geared toward assisting the practitioner in using the ritual to the fullest extent possible He also builds a greater appreciation of the sacrament and its part in the Church's role as healer in today's society By recognizing the theological tradition of the sacrament of the sick Understanding Sacramental Healing Anointing and Viaticum becomes an incisive reflection on the current state of the sacrament that will bring all priest and ministers of care to a greater understanding of the sacrament The author examines The liturgical development of the sacrament in light of the Second Vatican Council The practical implementation of the sacrament in both parish and diocesan venues in the 40 years since the close of the Council The nature of illness how illness affects someone and how the Church responds to those suffering from an illness The criteria for the reception of the sacrament and how its use may be broadened Sacramental Pastoral Care Robert L. Kinast, 1988 Guide for Celebrating the Pastoral Care of the Sick J. Philip Horrigan, 2019 A thorough and pastoral walk through Pastoral Care of the Sick Rites of Anointing and Viaticum Sacramental Pastoral Care as a Means to Prevent Inactivity Quintin Michael

Cundiff,2022 Sacraments Philippe Bordeyne,Bruce T. Morrill,2008 This volume is a first ever companion to the intellectually and pastorally stimulating work of Louis Marie Chauvet one of the most important systematic theologians of liturgy and sacraments in recent times In this trans Atlantic venture pairs of leading thinkers continue the development of sacramental liturgical theology along six lines of Chauvet s thought fundamental theology Scripture and sacrament ecclesiology liturgy and ethics theology and the social sciences and the theological anthropology of symbolism Embracing his constant attention to faith is actual practice in history these francophone and anglophone authors test numerous of Chauvet s insights in the face of new challenges for the church and world the ongoing mediation of the humanity of God revealed in the crucified and risen Christ Louis Marie Chauvet retired in 2008 from the faculty of theology at the Institute Catholique de Paris while continuing his work as pastor of Saint Leu la Foret in the Diocese of Pontoise just outside Paris He is author of Symbol and Sacrament A Sacramental Reinterpretation of Christian Existence and The Sacraments The Word of God at the Mercy of the Body both published by Liturgical Press Philippe Bordeyne is professor of theological ethics and dean of the faculty of theology at the Institut Catholique de Paris Bruce T Morrill SJ holds the Edward A Maloy Chair of Catholic Studies in the divinity school at Vanderbilt University where he is also Professor of Theological Studies In addition to numerous journal articles book chapters and reviews he has published several books most recently Encountering Christ in the Eucharist The Paschal Mystery in People Word and Sacrament Paulist Press 2012 His most recent book with liturgical Press is Divine Worship and Human Healing Liturgical Theology at the Margins of Life and Death Pueblo Liturgical Press 2009 The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick Lizette Larson-Miller,2005 Overviews affirms and critiques the current Roman Catholic rites for the pastoral care of the sick and engages them through contemporary theological liturgical pastoral and cultural issues focusing particularly on the sacramental heart of the rites the anointing of the sick Provided by publisher Pastoral Care in Worship Neil Pembroke,2010-01-26 Pastoral Care in Worship draws on Christian heritage and illuminating psychological research to deepen and enrich the pastoral dimension of Sunday worship Spirituality and Pastoral Care Kenneth Leech,2005-11-18 This book explores the relationship between personal spirituality and pastoral ministry extolling the pastor s primary role as spiritual instructor to the parish Leech shares with pastors and spiritual directors the important insights that counseling and psychotherapy lend to the process of spiritual direction Leech amkes concrete his advice in spiritual formation by holding up the lives of four parish priests who were a great influence on his own spiritual development and of whom the Church Times writes All were gospel radicals Pastoral Care in Hospitals, Second Edition Neville A. Kirkwood,2005-10 Bringing comfort and concern to the bedside of the sick or dying is a challenge for lay people and clergy alike In this practical guide Neville Kirkwood shares his wisdom gleaned from some twenty years of experience as a hospital chaplain on the art of hospital visitation This classic handbook is now updated with an all new section addressing best practices for hospital chaplains Pastoral Care in Hospitals with additional sections addressed to clergy and trained lay pastoral workers as well as ordinary lay people who simply want to visit their fellow parishioners shows visitors ways to make the encounter meaningful and enriching to the patient Kirkwood guides readers through the minefield of hospital visits from false heartiness to too much talking and offers a theology of visitation that can guide both professionals and laity in their ministry A variety of exercises and a section of prayers for specific circumstances make this a must have resource for all who work with the sick and dying and an excellent text for course work Faith and the Sacraments Thomas G.

Weinandy,2022-10-11 In September of 2014 thirty new members were appointed for a five year term to the Vatican s International Theological Commission These theologians clerical and lay were chosen from twenty six different countries and from five continents The commission was charged with composing three documents of contemporary theological importance one of which was that of the relationship between faith and the sacraments This finished document was published with the approval of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and by Pope Francis in Spanish in early 2020 under the title La Reciprocidad entre Fe y Sacramentos en la Econom a Sacramental A subsequent English translation was published thereafter under the title The Reciprocity Between Faith and Sacraments in the Sacramental Economy This present volume contains the text of the English translation There follows an introduction by a member of the ITC Thomas G Weinandy OFM Cap and subsequently followed by six explanatory and interpretive commentaries on various chapters of the document Dr John Yocum considers the contemporary relevance of the topic Dr Christopher Ruddy examines the dialogical nature of the sacramental economy of salvation Dr Jennifer Holmes Martin discusses the relationship between faith and the sacraments of initiation There are two commentaries for section four concerning faith and the sacrament of marriage Professor John Grabowski treats the strictly theological issues relating to faith and marriage Canonist Timothy Cavanaugh takes up the canonical issues regarding faith and its relationship to enacting a valid sacramental marriage Dr Daniel Keating rounds off the commentaries by surveying the conclusion of the document that is the present need for evangelization so as to enliven the faith of the faithful and the present relevance of the new ecclesial movements within the Church today These commentaries are aimed at aiding priests and seminarians as they address or prepare to address the pastoral and theological concerns they encounter or will encounter on a daily basis This volume could also be used in parish adult education groups as well wherein the laity could better understand the relationship between faith and the sacraments Sacramental Pastoral Care and Crisis Intervention Thomas Anthony Curran,1970 Forming the Assembly to Celebrate Sacraments Lawrence E. Mick,2002 The Second Vatican Council envisioned a liturgical assembly that could understand and participate fully in the liturgy Even when parishes have helped their members to understand and participate in the Sunday eucharistic liturgy responses at liturgies for the other sacraments may seem uncertain and lukewarm Do we know what we re doing when we celebrate the sacraments In this book as in its companion Forming the Assembly to Celebrate the Mass Larry Mick a seasoned presider and writer on the liturgy offers insights and suggestions for helping our communities understand the work we are called to do when we celebrate sacraments The author explains each sacrament and its liturgical aspects in ways that will invigorate and prepare parish ministers for the work of liturgical catechesis Once leaders are prepared the book can then be used for catechizing the whole assembly Parish councils liturgy boards liturgical ministers adult formation groups and individuals in the assembly will all find in this book fresh perspectives for celebrating and savoring the sacraments Catholic Witness in Health Care John M. Travaline, Louise A. Mitchell, 2017-09-15 Catholic health care is about ethics but also ethos not only what we shouldn't do but a vision for what we should do with love The issues it faces don't just concern academic bioethicists they concern every faithful Catholic doctor nurse practitioner and even patient Modern medical practitioners on the ground day in day out wrestling with medical moral matters witnessing what is happening in American medicine today while also striving to witness to their Catholic faith in living out their medical vocation these are the primary authors of this unique book and these are the readers it hopes to serve Catholic Witness in Health Care integrates the theoretical presentation of Catholic medical ethics with real life practice It begins with fundamental elements of Catholic care touching upon Scripture moral philosophy theology Christian anthropology and pastoral care The second part features Catholic clinicians illuminating authentic Catholic medical care in their various medical disciplines gynecology and reproductive medicine fertility pediatrics geriatrics critical care surgery rehabilitation psychology and pharmacy Part three offers unique perspectives concerning medical education research and practice with an eye toward creating a cultural shift to an authentically Catholic medical ethos Readers of this book will learn essential elements upon which the ethics of Catholic medical practice is founded and gain insights into practicing medicine and caring for others in an authentically Catholic way Spiritual Caregiving as Secular Sacrament Ray Anderson, 2003-01-31 The author explores spirituality in the context of the individual and of society and discusses how those practicing pastoral or health care can deal with the issues raised outside of any religious ideas or practice Anderson shows how professionals can help people move towards a more positive state in the face of pain distress and illness Clinical Pastoral Supervision and the Theology of Charles Gerkin Thomas St. James O'Connor, 2006-01-01 In the last twenty years the number of texts written on clinical pastoral supervision has accelerated Thomas St James O Connor analyzes these texts nearly 300 of them in light of three fundamental questions about the praxis of clinical pastoral supervision 1 what is distinctive about the praxis 2 what is an appropriate theological method for the praxis and 3 what is an adequate praxis In doing so he formulates three approaches the social science the hermeneutic and the special interest Looking at the theology of Charles Gerkin a pastoral theologian and family therapist O Connor develops a conversation between Gerkin's theology and the texts The theological methods in the three approaches are critiqued and Gerkin's praxis theory praxis method is endorsed Case examples are used throughout to illustrate theory and issues discussed and to aid in the presentation of an adequate praxis Clinical Pastoral Supervision and the Theology of Charles Gerkin provides a unique overview of the history and current state of clinical pastoral supervision and an understanding of its methodology and theological foundations More than that it builds on the practical theory of Charles Gerkin expanding it for immediate use in the practice of ministry Gender and the City before Modernity Lin Foxhall, Gabriele Neher, 2012-05-29 Gender and the City before Modernity presents a series of multi disciplinary readings that explore issues relating to the role of gender in a variety of cities of the ancient medieval and early modern worlds Presents an inter disciplinary collection of readings that reveal new insights into the intersection of gender temporality and urban space Features a wide geographical and methodological range Includes numerous illustrations to enhance clarity
