Tagore and Nationalism K. L. Tuteja,Kaustav Chakraborty,2017-03-15 This volume brings together eminent Tagore scholars and younger writers to revisit the concepts of nation nationalism identity and selfhood civilization culture and homeland in Tagore s writings As these ideas take up the centre stage of politics in the subcontinent as also elsewhere in the world in the 21st century it becomes extremely relevant to revisit his works in this context Tagore s ambivalence towards nationalism as an ideology was apparent in the responses in his discussions with Indians and non Indians alike Tagore developed the concept of syncretic civilization as a basis of nationalist civilizational unity where society was central unlike the European model of state centric civilization. However, as the subterranean tensions of communalism became clear in the early 20th century, Tagore reflexively critiqued his own political position in society. He thus emerged as the critic of the nation state and in this he shared his deep unease with other thinkers like Romain Rolland and Albert Einstein. This volume for the first time covers the socio political historical literary and cultural concerns relating to Tagore's efforts towards the decolonization of the Self. The volume begins with various perspectives on Tagore's ambivalence about nationalism. It encompasses critical examinations of Tagore's literary works and other art forms as well as adaptations of his works on film. It also reads Tagore's nationalism in a comparative mode with contemporary thinkers in India and abroad who were engaged in similar debates.

Religion Index One, 2001 Gestures of God Geoffrey Rowell, Christine Hall, 2004-06-22

This important new collection of essays on a topic of vital importance is by a group of scholars from ten countries from a wide range of Christian traditions East and West and from various academic disciplines. What has happened to sacramentality in an age which is on the one hand visual and on the other culturally cast adrift from the traditional symbolic universe in which sacramental theology was naturally at home. This book is not just confined to a discussion of Eucharistic theology. It examines both the historical roots of sacramentality, the concept of a sacral person, ways in which sacramentality may be re-envisioned and the flourishing today of churches of a largely non-sacramental style in an age which is increasingly visual rather than verbal. The vital importance of the subject of this book is confirmed by the distinction of the contributors: David Brown, Professor of Theology at Durham University; Timothy Jenkins, Cambridge Bishop; Geoffrey Rowell, Oxford; Jeremy Begbie, St Andrews; and Cambridge Ann Loades, Durham; David N. Power, Catholic University of America; Sven Erik Brodd, Uppsala; Peter Bouteneff, St Vladimir's Seminary, New York; and Susan A. Ross, Loyola University, Chicago.

Staging Feminisms Anita Singh, 2021-07-15. This book questions how feminist beliefs are enacted within an artistic context. It critically examines the intersection of violence, gender performance and power through contemporary interventionist performances. The volume explores a host of key themes like feminism and folk epic, community theatre, performance as radical cultural intervention, volatile bodies and celebratory protests. Through analysing performances of theatre stalwarts like Usha Ganguly, Maya Krishna Rao, Sanjoy Ganguly, Shilpi Marwaha and Teejan Bai, the volume discusses the complexities and contradictions of a feminist reading of contemporary performances. A major intervention in the field of feminism and performance, this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of gender studies, performance studies, theatre studies, women's studies, cultural studies, sociology of gender and literature.
