A Real-Life Christian Spiritual Journey Richard Ferguson, 2011-09-20 Richard Ferguson grew up a rough kid in a rough neighborhood and yet he went on to become a Reiki master with a pilots license and two masters degrees How did he rise above his early circumstances It started with a godly epiphany high in the sky above the Pacific Ocean Since then he has been a spiritual seeker and as the good book says those who seek will ultimately find Follow his riotous path in A Real Life Christian Spiritual Journey Fergusons Christian transformation was not immediate Once upon a time he hated everything to do with religion Part I uses Fergusons life journey as a template for the paths of all human life We all go through stages and each stage equates to who we ultimately will be and what we will believe in Part II traces the unity of our stages in the earthly realm Part III sets foot into the great beyond Ferguson lost his wife to death but he has come to realize that death is not an ending it is a graduation to a higher more joyful existence in eternity With the guidance of psychologists Erik Erikson and James Fowler as well as spiritual greats St Paul and the Buddha Ferguson looks back on a life well lived proving that when you seek first a higher power all knowledge will be given to you fellow congregants revitalize your worship service by allowing you to organize and direct your own worship making it a meaningful and fulfilling part of your life      Celtic Wisdom Book Caitlin Matthews,2013-10-21 Celebrate the seasons with Thunder Bay's Celtic Wisdom Box Based on the best selling Book in a Box kits his beautiful book will transport you into the world of the Celts where celebration and ritual will keep you in touch with the rhythm of the natural world and help you to keep your life balanced and in harmony with your environment The Celts revered the seasons and their four main festivals mark the turning points of the year Caitlin Matthews shows how you can now access ancient Celtic wisdom and beliefs and through simple ceremony and celebration feel more in touch with the world and yourself      The Living Church ,1998

Religion and Hopi Life, Second Edition John D. Loftin,2003-05-08 Includes material on shamanism death witchcraft myth tricksters and kachina initiations      The Strawberry Room-- Marilyn Sanders Mobley PhD,2016-11-08 What happens to a woman when the room that was once the guest room of her home becomes the space of self imposed exile What does she tell her children What does she tell herself How does she survive her marriage coming to an end without becoming bitter hard or cold What if her time in that space was actually the key to her spiritual destiny This inspiring memoir attempts to answer these questions and shares a riveting story of how one woman navigated the journey from one of life's darkest moments through the gateway to joy and to a new understanding of the calling on her life      Legends and Prophecies of the Quero Apache Maria Yracébûrû,2002-06 Ancient Native American tales passed down from generations reveal how sacred universal laws govern our relationship to the natural world our interaction with nature and our respect for each other      Society and the Holy in Late Antiquity Peter Brown,1989-10-25 With the blend of art and learning that is the hallmark of his work Peter Brown here examines how the sacred impinged upon the profane during the first Christian millennium      Healing Liturgies for the Seasons of Life Abigail Rian Evans,2004-01-01 Are you looking for a new way to renew your worship respond to the needs of the church and community and connect with people in their passage of life both chronological and crisis This book offers a rich resource to you both as a tool for worship and also devotionally as you face the deepest questions of life Here you will find one way that the church can renew and rediscover its healing ministry Abigail Evans a leading specialist in bioethics and health ministries explores how God's gift of healing is available during all seasons of a person's life and how the power of hope and healing are affirmed and redirected through liturgical services sacraments and rites This distinctive resource features specific healing liturgies for injury illness death separation retirement and a host of other major life events from a wide variety of religious traditions      God Is Not a Boy's Name Lyn Brakeman,2016-03-02 Lyn Brakeman was among the first women to enter the ordination process in the Episcopal Church just after the General Convention voted in 1976 that women could be priests The bishop of her diocese had voted against ordaining women priests and hospitality towards female aspirants was guarded at best So why would a forty year old institutional naïf suburban housewife and mother of four enter such unfriendly territory to seek priestly ordination at a time when her personal life was in chaos Things would have been easier had she been a man and had she not read Betty Friedan not been headed for divorce and not engaged in sins beginning with a How did she manage to stay this course Brakeman offers no easy answers but tackles difficult issues addiction death and grief divorce the nature of priesthood church politics Christian feminism and Jesus the Christ with candor Her story is held together by her spiritual connection to the voice of God from within and her growing conviction that the nature of divinity is gender free hence theological language in sanctuary and classroom must reflect this truth in a balanced way      Fearless Major Gifts Charles LaFond,2017-11-17 Every major gift is planned and every planned gift is major so this book is written intentionally blurring those lines with the premise that if you know how to identify evaluate cultivate and finally ask for the gift it does not matter if it is a major gift or is a will inclusion leaving the details of bequests to the donors their lawyers and accountants Clergy and others need help learning how to make the ask before the remaining generous generations of capacity anyone over 60 especially die having given their gifts to the non profits and schools so willing and prepared to ask for them LaFond recounts I remember sitting with a beloved dying parishioner who turned to me in her last three hours and quietly said I wish I had remembered the church in my will I asked why she had not and she said sweetly They never asked and everyone else did and so thoroughly Clergy and lay leaders are terrified of asking for major and planned gifts while parishes need them and donors need to give them Clergy are not taught in seminary how to do this essential work of ministry LaFond in his various roles is filling that educational gap      The Death of Death Neil Gillman,1997 Does death end life or is it the passage from one stage of life to another In The Death of Death noted theologian Neil Gillman offers readers an original and compelling argument that Judaism a religion often thought to pay little attention to the afterlife not only presents us with rich ideas on this subject but delivers a deathblow to death itself Combining astute scholarship with keen historical theological and liturgical insights Gillman outlines the evolution of Jewish thought about bodily resurrection and spiritual immortality Beginning with the near silence of the Bible on the afterlife he traces the development of these two doctrines through Jewish history He also describes why today somewhat surprisingly more contemporary Jewish scholars including Gillman have unabashedly reaffirmed the notion of bodily resurrection In this innovative and personal synthesis Gillman creates a strikingly modern statement on resurrection and immortality The Death of Death gives new and fascinating life to an ancient debate This new work is an intellectual and spiritual milestone for all of us interested in the meaning of life as well as the meaning of death      Christ the Ideal of the Monk Columba Marmion,1926

Redeeming Our Sacred Story Mary C. Boys,2013 Stories of Jesus passion and death lie at the core of Christian identity They offer an encounter with his experience of the human condition betrayals by those closest to him his own fear of death uncertainty about God s will and the endurance of terrible suffering and an ignominious death From generation to generation these stories have functioned in sacred and saving ways for Christians Yet misinterpretations of the passion narratives have rationalized hostility to and violence against Jews as Christ killers This sacrilegious telling cries out for redemption

Redeeming Christianity's sacred story requires respect even awe for its power demands rigorous examination of the history between Jews and Christians and the ethical obligation to be altered by this history and entails pursuing solid biblical scholarship principles for reinterpreting troubling texts and incorporation into Christian spirituality Redeeming Our Sacred Story challenges us to forge more just relations between Jews and Christians It witnesses to the world that reconciliation is possible Back cover

Spiritual Formation in Local Faith Communities Neil Pembroke, Ewan Kelly, Theo Pleizier, William S. Schmidt, Jan-Albert van den Berg, 2022-03-31 Spiritual formation in our local churches is too often poorly done or it is virtually nonexistent We developed this innovative approach to spiritual formation in the congregation because it is desperately needed The prompt cards are used to spark deep reflection and shape potentially life transforming conversations with a pastor around spiritual practices spiritual character personal and social ethics and emotional well being The model was trialed in five countries We heard time and time again how the six week process fired a passion to go deeper with Christ Some reported praying regularly for the first time in decades Others found the Scriptures coming alive after years of going through the motions In this book the authors present a simple but powerful method and offer in depth theological reflection on related issues Some of the important areas covered are early church approaches to spiritual formation contemporary spiritual practices spiritual character the indissoluble link between spirituality and moral virtue the spirituality of the pastor and the positive psychology approach
