Sacred Songs Of Russia:

Russians on Russian Music, 1880-1917, 2003-08-14 This second anthology of Russian writing on Russian music begins in 1880 where the first volume concluded and ends in 1917 It brings the thoughts of leading Russian music critics to an English speaking readership as they react to the Russian music that is new to them during a period when all aspects of musical life were developing rapidly Music criticism had become more sure footed if no less opinionated These reviews demonstrate greater awareness both of music history and of contemporary music abroad The period covers the late careers of Tchaikovsky and Rimsky Korsakov as well as late works by Borodin and Balakirev and the emergence of Mussorgsky s compositions Works by the intervening generation including Arensky Glazunov and Lyadov are also reviewed and the book concludes with coverage of works by the Moscow School including Medtner Rachmaninoff and Skryabin and the early compositions of Stravinsky and Prokoviev History of Music in Russia from Antiquity to 1800, Volume 2 Nikolai Findeizen, 2008-02-07 In its scope and command of primary sources and its generosity of scholarly inquiry Nikolai Findeizen s monumental work published in 1928 and 1929 in Soviet Russia places the origins and development of music in Russia within the context of Russia's cultural and social history Volume 2 of Findeizen's landmark study surveys music in court life during the reigns of Elizabeth I and Catherine II music in Russian domestic and public life in the second half of the 18th century and the variety and vitality of Russian music at the end of the 18th century Russian Symbolism and Literary Tradition Michael Wachtel, 1994 Michael Wachtel explores here the art and development of Vyacheslav Ivanov 1866 1949 a poet and theorist who articulated a highly influential concept of Symbolism The German writers Goethe and Novalis played a powerful part in Ivanov s vision and were in his mind powerful precursors in a proto Symbolist pantheon Their work not only influenced his writing but also in maintaining the Symbolist creed of unity in art and life altered his world perspective Wachtel in exploring Ivanov's relationship to Goethe and Novalis illuminates the issues that lie at the core of Symbolism the theory of the symbol poetics poetry as theurgy the relationship between literary creation and real life and the theory and practice of translation Russia .1905 Russian Baptists and Orthodoxy, 1960-1990 Constantine Prokhorov, 2014-01-14 Russian Baptists and the Orthodox Church have had a difficult and at times dramatic relationship over the past century and a half However the purpose of this thesis is to examine certain internal connections between these two Christian bodies Despite the evident dissimilarity in theology church practice and traditions there is common ground which has been largely unexplored A number of features inevitably brought them together such as living in the same country over a long period of time sharing a history and national roots responding to the same civic concerns and finally until recently using the same Russian Synodal translation of the Bible This thesis explores first of all the roots of the issue of Orthodox Baptist similarities and dissimilarities in the nineteenth century The remainder of the thesis focuses on 1960 to 1990 There is a chapter analyzing the way in which in significant areas Russian Baptist theology resembled Orthodox thinking This is followed by a study of church and sacraments which again shows that Russian Baptist approaches had echoes of Orthodoxy The thesis then explores Baptist liturgy showing the Orthodox elements that were present The same connections are then explored in the area of Russian Baptist communal spiritual traditions The examination of the Bible beliefs and behaviour also indicates the extent to which Russian Baptists mirrored Orthodoxy Finally there is an analysis of the popular piety of the Russian Baptists and the way in which they constructed an alternative culture The basic views of Russian Baptists between the 1960s and 1990 have been drawn from periodicals of the Russian Baptist communities and from interviews with pastors presbyters and church members who were part of these communities. This often yields insights into primary theology which in relation to many issues differs from official Baptist declarations that tend to stress the more Protestant aspects of Russian Baptist life The aim of the thesis is to show that in a period in the history of the USSR when the division between the Western world and the Soviet bloc was marked there was a strong Eastern orientation among Russian Baptists This changed when the USSR came to an end Over a number of years there was mass emigration of Russian Baptists and in addition pro Western thinking gained considerable ground within the Russian Baptist community During the period examined here however it is possible to uncover a great deal of evidence of Russian Baptists participating in Orthodox theology spiritual mentality and culture Representing Russia's Orient Adalyat Issiyeva, 2021 Building on long forgotten archives and detailed case studies Representing Russia s Orient reveals how complex representations of oriental subjects in nineteenth century Russian art music which often merged elements of East and West contributed to the formation of Russia's national identity
