Extractive Economies and Conflicts in the Global South Kenneth Omeje, 2017-11-28 The majority of developing countries in the Global South are evidently rich in natural resources but paradoxically blighted by excruciating poverty and conflicts This paradox of deprivation and war in the midst of plenteous resources has been the subject of great debate in international political economy in contemporary history This book contributes to the debate by examining the underlying structures actors and contexts of rentier politics and how they often produce and aggravate conflicts in the various extractive economies and regions of the Global South The book critically explores the theories of rentier economies and natural resource conflicts as well as the practical ramifications of rentier politics in the Global South with all their resonance for political economy and security in the Global North

National Politics and Sexuality in Transregional Perspective Achim Rohde, Christina von Braun, Stefanie Schüler-Springorum, 2017-11-28 National Politics and Sexuality in Transregional Perspective explores how modern identity politics around the world are gendered and sexualized in multiple ways Constructions of the imagined collective self often contain references to a heteronormative order whereas relevant internal or external others are often felt to deviate from this order through their gendered or sexual practices By contrast some Western countries have witnessed the evolution of LGBTQI friendly discourses by certain political actors in recent years often in the context of the post 9 11 culture wars This pathbreaking book focuses on perceptions of self and other in Europe the Middle East and North Africa from a gendered perspective It deals with anti LGBTQI as well as LGBTQI friendly aspects of modern culture and politics in countries within these regions focusing on the functions such discursive markers play in nationalist and racist imageries in discourses legitimizing class differences from the nineteenth century to the present day including globalized discourses in the context of 9 11 and its aftermath It shows that discourses on sexuality and gendered performances in everyday life often undermine the stability of such binary constructions as they point to the multiplicity ambivalence and the indeterminate character of individual and collective identities under conditions of modernity Addressing contemporary identity politics both in a wider historical context and within a transregional comparative framework thus helps to discern differences and similarities between different world regions and serves to dislocate essentialized notions of cultural differences based on gender and sex This book will appeal to those with an interest in Political Sociology Gender Studies and Globalisation
