Diary, reminiscences, and correspondence, selected and ed. by T. Sadler Henry Crabb Robinson, 1869 Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume I) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices Displacement also entails displacement of location as well as dislocation or chaos This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority auctoritas has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view Volume One Exploring Europe from Europe includes essays on Shakespeare's Measure for Measure John Ross's Second Exploration Voyage Thomas Hardy's Jude the Obscure in addition to investigations of Rose Tremain's novels Disguise by Hugo Hamilton and the cinematic adaptation of Conrad's Almayer's Folly by Chantal Akerman The volume concludes with a study of two novels by the Anglo Sudanese writer Jamal Mahjoub

Contemporary British Novel James Acheson, 2005-12-14 Written by some of the world's finest contemporary literature specialists the newly commissioned essays in this volume examine the work of more than twenty major British novelists Peter Ackroyd Martin Amis Iain M Banks Pat Barker Julian Barnes A S Byatt Angela Carter Janice Galloway Abdulrazak Gurnah Kazuo Ishiguro James Kelman A L Kennedy Hanif Kureishi Ian McEwan Caryl Phillips Salman Rushdie Zadie Smith Graham Swift Rose Tremain Marina Warner Irvine Welsh and Jeanette Winterson The book will be of interest not only to students teachers and lecturers but to the general reader seeking help in approaching the often baffling novels of the recent past Key Features Literary criticalisms are described in clear jargon free language Focuses on British fiction since 1980 giving coverage of established authors such as Angela Carter and Ian McEwan as well as little addressed novelists such as James Kelman and Zadie Smith Essays are by leading scholars in contemporary fiction

The polemics of Ageing as reflected in Literatures. Essays on Ageing in Literature and Interviews with Vikram Chandra, James Halperin, Doris Lessing, Zadie Smith and Terri-ann White, El envejecimiento no es solo un proceso biológico sino también social económico psicológico político y cultural Las representaciones literarias del envejecimiento contribuyen a entender aspectos como el miedo a la decrepitud la pérdida de creatividad o la muerte las relaciones intergeneracionales y la sostenibilidad de la calidad de vida En el libro escritores y académicos discuten temas de vital importancia para nuestras sociedades actuales con artículos y entrevistas que reflejan actitudes positivas hacia el proceso en que todos estamos implicados

Dancing Times, 1998 British Music and the French Revolution Paul F. Rice, 2010-04-16 British Music and the French Revolution investigates the nature of British musical responses to the cataclysmic political events unfolding in France during the period of 1789-1795 a time when republican and royalist agendas were in conflict in both nations While the parallel demands for social and political change resulted from different stimuli and were resolved very differently the 1790s proved to be a defining period for each country In Britain the combination of a protracted period of Tory conservatism and the strong spirit of patriotism which swept the nation had a profound influence on the arts There was an outpouring of concert and theatrical music dealing with the French Revolution and the subsequent war with France While patriotic songs might be expected when a country is at war the number of recreations on the London stages of events taking place on the Continent may surprise Initially such topical subjects were restricted to the summer or minor theatres however government restrictions were relaxed after 1793 giving Londoners the opportunity to see topical theatre in the royal or patent theatres as well The resulting repertoire of plays and recreations often propagandist in nature made considerable use of music and those performed in the minor theatres were all sung Consequently there exists a large repertoire of music which has been little studied British Music and the French Revolution investigates this repertoire within a social and political context Initial chapters examine the historical relationship between France and Britain from a musical perspective the powerful symbols of national identity in both countries and the complex laws that governed commercial theatres in London Thereafter the materials are presented in a chronological fashion starting with the fall of the Bastille in 1789 and the F te de la F d ration in 1790 The period of the Captivity was one of growing tension and fear in both France and Britain as war became an ever increasing threat between the two nations Two subsequent chapters examine the war years of 1793 until first half of 1795 The choice of a five year period allows the reader to follow British musical reactions to the fall of the Bastille and subsequent events up to the rise of Napol on The Sadler's Wells Ballet, 1931-1956 Royal Opera House,1956 The Windsor Magazine ,1910 King of All Balloons Mark Davies,2015-11-15 The fascinating world of the first Englishman to fly is a true homage to our national desire to reach for the skies Todd Co, KY - Family Hist ,1995-06-15 Handbook of Attachment-Based Interventions Howard Steele,Miriam Steele,2019-09-10 The first volume to showcase science based interventions that have been demonstrated effective in promoting attachment security this is a vital reference and clinical guide for practitioners With a major focus on strengthening caregiving relationships in early childhood the Handbook also includes interventions for school age children at risk adolescents and couples with an emphasis on father involvement in parenting A consistent theme is working with children and parents who have been exposed to trauma and other adverse circumstances Leading authorities describe how their respective approaches are informed by attachment theory and research how sessions are structured and conducted special techniques used such as video feedback the empirical evidence base for the approach and training requirements Many chapters include illustrative case material

Stirling's Desert Triumph Gavin Mortimer,2015-04-20 The night of July 26 1942 saw one of the most audacious raids of World War II just as the outcome of that conflict hung in the balance In North Africa a convoy of 18 Allied jeeps carrying Special Air Service personnel appeared out of the early morning darkness and drove onto the Axis landing strip at Sidi Haneish in the Egyptian desert Within the space of a few savage minutes 18 Axis aircraft were ablaze a dozen more were damaged and scores of guards lay dead or wounded The men responsible for the raid then vanished into the night as swiftly as they had arrived prompting the Germans to dub the enemy leader David Stirling The Phantom Major Featuring full colour artwork gripping narrative and incisive analysis this engaging study recounts the origins planning execution and aftermath of the daring raid that made the name of the SAS at the height of World War II

Fictions of Migration in Contemporary Britain and Ireland Carmen Zamorano Llena,2020-04-30 This book examines how the transcultural and transnational migration of people texts and ideas has transformed the paradigm of national literature with Britain and Ireland as case studies The study questions definitions of migration and migrant literature that focus solely on the work of authors with migrant backgrounds and suggests that migration is not extraneous but intrinsic to contemporary understandings of national literature in a global context The fictional work of authors such as Caryl Phillips Colum McCann Abdulrazak Gurnah Rose Tremain Elif Shafak and Evelyn Conlon is analysed from a variety of perspectives including transculturality cosmopolitanism and Afropolitanism so as to emphasise how their work fosters an understanding of national literature as well as of individual and collective identities based on transborder interconnectivity
