Dancing Between Two Worlds Fred Gustafson,1997 In this thought provoking and sensitive book a noted Jungian scholar explores the deepest elements in the American psyche that need healing to bring forth the best in both of the worlds we walk in the highly differentiated and technologically developed Western civilization and the indigenous native soul that is the essence of each human being The author demonstrates that this soul is forcefully represented in America in the experience of the Native American peoples and their relationship to the land and to the ancient indigenous one at the heart of our human rights The author explores not only the best of Native American spiritual thought to rediscover that soul but also the terrible psychic damage done to later settlers by five hundred years of violence against the original peoples He sketches positive directions that will create a partnership between the two worlds of our past and bring them together in a dance that will encourage a more redemptive spiritual order

Liturgical Language Gail Ramshaw,1996 Through a review of the history of language Ramshaw illustrates the difficulties of forming texts from words that have undergone numerous translations and whose primary meanings have also changed throughout the centuries. Her discussion of symbolic imagery and theological language illustrates how essential it is that words be evaluated and chosen with understanding and care.

Communication and Lonergan Thomas J. Farrell, Paul A. Soukup, 1993 Essays about communication and the thought of Canadian Jesuit philosopher and theologian Bernard Lonergan ABBA KEDDUS 'RASTAFARI AND THE RETURN OF OUR SACRED ORIGINS' 2015 Tyson Brown, 2011-11-15 This book is a new approach to the Rastafari movement. It connects the ancient history of Nile River Valley civilizations, the Ethiopian Tewahedo Church and its monastic heritage to the global phenomenon of Rastafari. At the heart of the story is the legend of the Abba Keddus, the sacred elder who arrives to transform the world and return us to our primordial origins. Facing the Dragon Robert L. Moore, 2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality, Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life, this book-length essay attacks the related problems of human evil, spiritual narcissism, secularism, and ritual and grandiosity. Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear, sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect. Along the way, he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology, spirituality, and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course. Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis. But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century, it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives. In recent decades, this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism, structuralism, Jungianism, deconstructionism, the analysis of archaic imagery and myth, the recovery of Gnostic texts, and finally an openness to pluralism, whether ethnic, geographic, religious, or interpretive. All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role. If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism, greed, and religious fanaticism, read Facing the Dragon. But be forewarned: you may find some offshoots in your own garden.

June Singer, Jungian analyst, author of Boundaries of the Soul. Robert Moore, Ph.D., was an internationally recognized psychotherapist and consultant in private practice in Chicago. He was considered one of the leading therapists specializing in psychotherapy with men because of his discovery of the Archetypal Dynamics of the Masculine Self: King, Warrior, Magician, Lover. He served as Distinguished Service Professor of Psychology, Psychoanalysis, and Spirituality at the Graduate Center of the Chicago Theological Seminary and has served as a Training Analyst at the C. G. Jung Institute of Chicago. He is Co-founder of the Chicago Center for Integrative Psychotherapy. Journeys Into Emptiness Robert Jingen Gunn, 2000 Journeys into Emptiness traces the lives of three famous religious seekers and their quests for personal transcendence: Dogen, a thirteenth-century Japanese Zen master, experienced emptiness in wordless meditation, the practice of zazen, that spread in time from the Eastern world to the West; Thomas Merton was a twentieth-century Catholic monk whose experience of personal homelessness brought him to explore the tension that lies between solitude and community Carl Jung raised by a pious father and a psychologically unbalanced mother was driven to understand the structure of the psyche including the male and female elements that exist in every human person Robert Jingen Guinn provides wise and compassionate portraits of these emblematic figures Each of them in his own way had to experience emptiness going beyond consciousness to discover his own personal truth whether that was rooted in Buddha nature God or the unconscious This going beyond became a path to encountering their own unique selves and a deeper sense of life
