Divination on stage Folke Gernert, 2021-02-08 Magicians necromancers and astrologers are assiduous characters in the European golden age theatre This book deals with dramatic characters who act as physiognomists or palm readers in the fictional world and analyses the fictionalisation of physiognomic lore as a practice of divination in early modern Romance theatre from Pietro Aretino and Giordano Bruno to Lope de Vega Calderón de la Barca and Thomas Corneille

Feminizing the Enemy Sidney Donnell, 2003 Donnell engages gender theory and cultural studies in order to shed light on cross dressing a common though poorly understood practice in plays performed in Spain and Colonial Spanish America during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author shows how certain naturalized assumptions about masculinity and femininity are unmasked through the cross dressed performance of works attributed to Lope de Rueda Morales Lope de Vega Monroy y Silva and Calderón

Sins of the Fathers Hilaire Kallendorf, 2013-12-06 Sins of the Fathers considers sins as nodes of cultural anxiety and explores the tensions between competing organizational categories for moral thought and behaviours namely the Seven Deadly Sins and the Ten Commandments Hilaire Kallendorf explores the decline and rise of these organizational categories against critical transformations of the early modern period such as the accession of Spain to a position of world dominance and the arrival of a new courtly culture to replace an old warrior ethos This ground breaking study is the first to consider Spanish Golden Age comedias as an archive of moral knowledge Kallendorf has examined over 800 of these plays to illustrate how they provide insight into aspects of early modern experience such as food sex work and money Finally Kallendorf engages the theoretical terminology of Marxist literary criticism to demonstrate the inherent ambiguity of cultural change
