Losing The Plot:

Finding the Plot Loïc Artiago, Diana Holmes, David Platten, 2014-08-11 Plot writes Peter Brooks is so basic to our very experience of reading and indeed to our articulation of experience in general that criticism has often passed it over in silence Reading for the Plot xi Finding the Plot both explores and helps to redress this critical neglect The book brings together an international group of scholars to address the nature effects and specific pleasures of consuming stories If the central focus is on France and popular literary fiction the book's scope like contemporary fiction itself observes no national frontiers and extends across a variety of media The book addresses both the empirical question of which genres and types of text have been and are most popular and the theoretical questions of how plots work what pleasures they offer to readers and why it matters that the plot should not be lost

Losing the Plot Annaleise Byrd, 2024-03-06 When did things get so Grimm A hilarious tale of readers finding themselves immersed in a story literally To save the football team Basil Beedon is roped into listening to reluctant reader and star footballer Terry Clegg read fairytales out loud Every Single Saturday But when Terry brings over a battered copy of The Complete Fairy Tales of the Brothers Grimm and haltingly begins reading Hansel and Gretel the pair find themselves transported inside the book having fallen through a plot hole They meet Gretel who can't stop crying but only because she is written that way and endeavour to help find Hansel who is stuck in a bottle The bureaucratic world is run by FANCY the Fairytale Alliance Network of Character Unions where Gretel is part of the subset SUPER FANCY Stereotypical Unempowered Princesses and Extraneous Royalty She and the boys are accused of breaching SLIP and SLIDE Safety Laws of Interworld Portals Secrecy Laws of Interworld Demystification Experiences Using a combination of Basil's bookishness and Terry's sporting skills the boys must outwit their opponents as Basil realises he has always underestimated princesses and Terry realises that books are growing on him

Losing the Golden Hour James Stephenson, 2007-10-31 In emergency medicine the golden hour is the first hour after injury during which treatment greatly increases survivability In post conflict transition terminology it is the first year after hostilities end Without steadily improving conditions then popular support declines and chances for economic political and social transformation begin to evaporate James Stephenson believes we have lost Iraq's golden hour A veteran of postconflict reconstruction on three continents he ran the Iraq mission of the Agency for International Development in 2004-05 with more than a thousand employees and expatriate contractors The Coalition Provisional Authority which oversaw the largest reconstruction and nation building exercise ever was a dysfunctional organization the Department of Defense cobbled together with temporary employees and a few experienced professionals from the State Department and other agencies Iraqis soon became disillusioned and the insurgency grew Losing the Golden Hour tells of hubris incompetence courage fear and duty It is about foreign assistance professionals trying to overcome the mistakes of an ill conceived occupation and help Iraqis create a nation after decades of despair Neither criticizing nor defending U S foreign policy Stephenson offers an informed assessment of Iraq's future Selected for the Diplomats and Diplomacy Book Series of the Association for Diplomatic Studies and Training and Diplomatic and Consular Officers Retired Deconstructing Evidence Based Practice Dawn

Freshwater, Gary Rolfe, 2004 This innovative book strips the concept of evidence based practice back to basics using deconstructive analysis so that readers can move towards a clearer understanding of it The practitioner is guided through a number of case studies in which the authors examine how the concept of evidence based practice has been used in a variety of clinical settings Divided into three parts the book provides a deconstruction of key texts related to evidence based practice weaving together contemporary themes in healthcare research Deconstructing Evidence Based Practice is essential reading for nurses and other health practitioners who need to understand more about evidence based practice and who want to learn methods of critical thinking that will be invaluable in judiciously informing their practice , Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2008-01-01 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Losing the Way Richie Savage, 2010 Richie a forty year old languages teacher is lying on a beach in Lanzarote recovering from a traumatic accident He recalls the events which have brought him here as he reconstructs the latter part of his home and working life from marriage to the neurotic Matty and job success in a secondary school to a painful divorce and professional burn out He takes us on a rollercoaster ride as we travel with him from the Canaries to Japan meeting along the way the new woman new women new toys and new places he travels to We watch him slowly piece himself back together as he begins to accept his mid life transition This is not a mid life crisis It is a story which reveals the darker side of our fallen hero whose story is told with humour and understanding as he pokes fun at himself those around him and life in general For anyone entering the teaching profession or for any teacher currently serving or contemplating escape this is a book which will make you laugh out loud and nod in agreement And for anyone stuck in a rut either professionally or on a personal level Richie might well be the one to help you find your way out Diplomatic Para-citations Sam Okoth Opondo, 2022-02-09 Taking seriously the critical conception of diplomacy as the mediation of estrangement Diplomatic Para citations turns to the politics and laws that tie modern diplomacy to colonial cultures and the genres of Man that they privilege In an attempt to read the diplomatic from the African postcolony the book probes the injunction at the center of the law of genre that states that genres are not to be mixed This enables it to investigate the citational recitational forms of knowledge and practices of recognition that reproduce the diplomatic and colonial order of things in the African context Through a reading of literature philosophy and a multiplicity of everyday practices in Africa and its diasporas Sam Okoth Opondo explores amateur diplomatic practices that provide a counterforce to laws that prescribe faithfulness to a norm form while proscribing the mixing of genres Barracking from the Sidelines: The Songs Book 2 Greg Tuck,2023-12-09 Politics in Australia offers up some very strange characters who become even stranger when elected This book contains parodies of well known songs about the weird antics that they get up to and the awkward positions they find themselves in There has been a revolving door on Prime Ministers Cabinet ministers seem to forget their oaths of office and ministerial responsibility disappeared long ago Australian politicians leave themselves wide open for criticism and ridicule This book along with the other books in the series shines a light on some of the important events on the Australian political stage since 2014 The Life Changing Episodes Brig Narayan Singh Malik,2015-12-02 Commissioned in the famous Rajputana Rifles Regiment in 1964 Brig Narayan Singh Malik retired is a veteran of 1965 1971 and 1999 wars He was also rewarded for bravery in anti insurgency operations in Nagaland National Defence Academy alumni he attended the Defence Services Staff College and Higher Defence Management Course Besides holding the coveted appointments in Military Operations Directorates Divisional and Corps Headquarters he earned the unique distinction of serving in the Cabinet Secretariat on two separate assignments including RAW He is known for making laudatory contribution on many National issues including Kargil both in India as well as abroad Whereas he faced severe health problems in the formative years tenures in vital places in subsequent years were also interspersed by unprecedented encumbrances How he could brush aside the impediments to reach the objectives is a story of perseverance sans seeking rewards In postretirement period he continues to indulge in educating people to develop progressive skills The episodes are a reflection of pains and pleasures derived in life Although he has taken up permanent residence in Australia he continues to work towards development of concerned people in India by training them in Leadership School Management First Aid Life Saving Disaster Management and National Security
