Linda España Maram analyzes the politics of popular culture in the lives of Filipino laborers in Los Angeles's Little Manila from the 1920s to the 1940s The Filipinos participation in leisure activities including the thrills of Chinatown's gambling dens boxing matches and the sensual pleasures of dancing with white women in taxi dance halls sent legislators reformers and police forces scurrying to contain public displays of Filipino virility But as España Maram argues Filipino workers by flaunting improper behavior established niches of autonomy where they could defy racist attitudes and shape an immigrant identity based on youth ethnicity and notions of heterosexual masculinity within the confines of a working class España Maram takes this history one step further by examining the relationships among Filipinos and other Angelenos of color including the Chinese Mexican Americans and African Americans Drawing on oral histories and previously untapped archival records España Maram provides an innovative and engaging perspective on Filipino immigrant experiences Appendix to the Journals of the Senate and Assembly ... of the Legislature of the State of California ..., 1901
