To See Every Bird on Earth Dan Koeppel,2006-04-25 What drives a man to travel to sixty countries and spend a fortune to count birds And what if that man is your father Richard Koeppel s obsession began at age twelve in Queens New York when he first spotted a Brown Thrasher and jotted the sighting in a notebook Several decades one failed marriage and two sons later he set out to see every bird on earth becoming a member of a subculture of competitive bird watchers worldwide all pursuing the same goal Over twenty five years he collected over seven thousand species becoming one of about ten people ever to do so To See Every Bird on Earth explores the thrill of this chase a crusade at the expense of all else for the sake of making a check in a notebook A riveting glimpse into a fascinating subculture the book traces the love loss and reconnection between a father and son and explains why birds are so critical to the human search for our place in the world Marvelous I loved just about everything about this book Simon Winchester author of The Professor and the Madman A lovingly told story helps you understand what moves humans to seek escape in seemingly strange other worlds Stefan Fatsis author of Word Freak Everyone has his or her addiction and birdwatching is the drug of choice for the father of author Dan Koeppel who writes affectionately but honestly about his father's obsession Audubon Magazine editor's choice As a glimpse into human behavior and family relationships To See Every Bird on Earth is a rarity a book about birding that nonbirders will find just as rewarding Chicago Tribune Murder on the Reservation Ray B. Browne, 2004-06-30 In Murder on the Reservation Ray B. Browne surveys the work of several of the best known writers of crime fiction involving Indian characters and references virtually every book that qualifies as an Indian related mystery Browne believes that within the genre of crime fiction all people are equal and the increasing role of Indian characters in criminal fiction proves what an important role this genre plays as a powerful democratizing force in American society He endeavors to both analyze and evaluate the individual work of the authors and at the same time provide a commentary on the various attitudes towards race relations in the United States that each author presents Some Indian fiction is intended to right the wrongs the authors feel have been leveled against Indians Other authors use Indian lore and Indian locales as exotic elements and locations for the entertaining and commercially successful stories they want to write Browne's analysis includes authors and works of all backgrounds with mysteries of first class murder both on and off the reservation The Mystery of Easter Island Katherine Routledge, 1998 Heavily illustrated with a wealth of old photos this book is a treasury of information on the most mysterious of islands Easter Island Rapa Nui Get Those Guys Reading! Kathleen A. Baxter, Marcia Agness Kochel, 2012-05-07 Want to identify fiction books that boys in grades three through nine will find irresistible This guide reveals dozens of worthwhile recommendations in categories ranging from adventure stories and sports novels to horror humorous and science fiction books In Get Those Guys Reading Fiction and Series Books that Boys Will Love authors Kathleen A. Baxter and Marcia A. Kochel provide compelling and current reading suggestions for younger boys information that educators librarians and parents alike are desperate for Comprising titles that are almost all well reviewed in at least one major professional journal or that are such big hits with kids that they've received the stamp of approval from the most important reviewers this book will be invaluable to anyone whose goal is to help boys develop a healthy enthusiasm for reading It includes chapters on adventure books animal stories graphic novels historical fiction humorous books mystery horror and suspense titles science fiction and fantasy and sports novels Within each chapter the selections are further divided into books for younger readers grades 3-6 and titles for older boys in grades 5-8 Elementary and middle school librarians and teachers public librarians Title One teachers and parents of boys in grades 3-9 will all benefit greatly from having this book at hand Restoring North America's Birds Robert Askins, 2002-01-01 This accessible book draws on recent research on bird species and their habitats to explain how basic principles of bird ecology and landscape ecology can help us create scientifically sound plans for protecting and restoring the rich diversity of North American birds This edition includes an afterword that reviews noteworthy literature that has appeared since the first edition was completed in 1999 This new material on such key issues as the importance of preserving large expanses of natural habitat the importance of maintaining early successional habitats and the habitat requirements of neotropical migrants shows how the research on landscape ecology of birds has shaped conservation policy more rapidly than most would have predicted Praise for the earlier edition This book is first rate very broad in scope and appeal readable and truly integrative in its coverage of landscape ecology and its implications for avian conservation biology It will be of significant interest to researchers and students of conservation biology ornithology and ecology land managers conservation agencies and anyone with an interest in protecting the rich avian diversity of North America Trevor E Pitcher American Scientist This wonderful book is especially relevant for conservation biologists from all walks of life Kathryn E Sieving Auk An enjoyable read for anyone from the amateur birder to the professional scientist J Michael Reed Ecology

The Dinosaurs and their Mysterious Demise Andrew Norman, 2025-01-16 Explores the captivating history of dinosaurs their reign extinction and presents a new theory on how certain species survived their cataclysmic end The dinosaurs are a source of endless fascination and each new generation is inspired and enchanted by images of these wondrous and awe inspiring creatures that dominated the Earth eons of time ago The smallest was the size of a chicken the largest on record the titanosaur Argentinosaurus huinculensis weighed about 95 tons fifteen times as much as an African bull elephant today s largest terrestrial creature Dinosaurs ruled the Earth for no less than 181 million years about 600 times longer than Homo sapiens have existed on the planet Homo sapiens is defined as the primate species to which modern humans belong the first modern humans having evolved in Africa about 300 000 years ago Today the consensus is that the dinosaurs became extinct when a meteorite impacted with the Earth 66 million years ago covering it with a thick layer of soot and throwing up enormous quantities of dust which caused the sky to darken and photosynthesis on which all terrestrial animals ultimately depend for their survival to cease The unanswered question however is how did mammals reptiles and birds which are the only species of dinosaur to survive escape this holocaust An entirely new theory is put forward for the first time to explain this mysterious and intriguing phenomenon The Secret Powers of Naming Sara Littlecrow-Russell, 2006 A collection of poems explore the Native American experience at the beginning of the twenty first century
